WORKSHOP AND CONFERENCE ON AGING TO BE HELD AT SALVE

An intensive five day workshop on Aging will be held at The Newport College - Salve Regina from June 5 - June 9, 1978. Participation will include individuals presently involved with older persons, those who are interested in working with the aged in the future, as well as those who have an interest in the topic of aging and its implications for America.

The morning session of the workshop will consider current social attitudes surrounding the aged in America and discussions based on current books, magazines, and films dealing with this important segment of society. Afternoons will be spent in visiting community agencies now serving older citizens.

Sociology professor, Ms. Patricia Murray, M. A. of the Salve Regina faculty, will conduct the workshop. Ms. Murray's background includes wide experience with the elderly as a social worker at Newport Hospital and other social agencies.
