CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS GIVE SCHOLARSHIP TO THE NEWPORT COLLEGE - SALVE REGINA

The Captain Louis Gallucci Scholarship was presented to The Newport College - Salve Regina July 21 by the R.I. Brotherhood of Correctional Officers (R.I.B.C.O.). The $500 scholarship is given in memory of Captain Louis Gallucci, a 1973 graduate of the College, and former superior officer at the medium security section of the Adult Correctional Institute. The award was presented to Sister Lucille McKillop, president of the College, by Ronald Brodeur, R.I.B.C.O. vice-president. It will be given each year to a Newport College student majoring in Criminal Justice.

Captain Gallucci was an officer at the A.C.I. for 20 years. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from The Newport College. Prior to his death in 1979 he was active in establishing the College Incentive program for correctional officers. This program is designed to encourage corrections officials to further their education in law enforcement and criminal justice.

The Newport College - Salve Regina offers an Associate, Bachelor and Master degree in Criminal Justice. The program is aimed at preparing professionals in the service of law and criminal justice. Since its introduction, it has graduated hundreds of law enforcement and correctional officers in Southern New England.
