HEALTH CARE DEGREE OFFERINGS AT THE NEWPORT COLLEGE - SALVE REGINA

Today, having an education in health services is the surest route to advancement on the job, or even to a brand new career. What steps are you taking this fall to maximize your earnings and career potential?

The Newport College - Salve Regina offers a Master of Science in Health Services Administration and a Master of Arts in Human Development with a specialization in gerontology. By signing up for one course, you can be one step closer to a professional degree.

Two courses in Health Services Administration are offered. One in MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING at the Newport campus and one in CORPORATE HEALTH PLANNING at Rhode Island Hospital, 593 Eddy Street in Providence. Those interested in the gerontology program can take COMMUNITY SERVICES FOR THE AGED, a course focusing on services offered the aged by local, state, and federal agencies. This course is offered on the Newport campus.

All health care courses are at convenient times in the evening. You can experiment with one or two and decide later about pursuing a degree. Each student has an opportunity to meet with a graduate studies advisor to then plan a program--full-or part-time--that fulfills degree requirements.

Classes don't begin at The Newport College - Salve Regina until October 1. You have until September 26 to register. Walk in, register by mail, or for more information call Nick Nykaza at 847-6650, ext. 233.
