NEW COLLEGE ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR
AT THE NEWPORT COLLEGE - SALVE REGINA

Norman J. Faria of Bristol has been named to the position of director of college activities at The Newport College - Salve Regina. As director he will be responsible for managing events sponsored by administration, faculty, students and staff. Under his guidance, students will be offered opportunities to develop their capabilities as coordinators of events and activities.

Faria earned his Bachelor of Science degree in journalism and communications in 1979 at the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut. He was awarded the Charles A. Dana Scholarship for personal and academic achievement. During his education, he served as president of the University's advertising club and was presented the American Advertising Federation Student Competition Award. He is a member of the National Entertainment and Campus Activities Association.
