PROMOTED AT THE NEWPORT COLLEGE - SALVE REGINA

Nina Kaull of Newport has been promoted to director of career planning and placement at The Newport College - Salve Regina. Kaull holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and Spanish, and a master of arts in human development with a specialization in management from the College. She will be responsible for career development activities, internships and student employment. Her memberships include the Eastern College Personnel Officers and the American Personnel and Guidance Association.

Promoted to Assistant Dean of Admissions and Special Entry Counselor Carl P. Nykaza of Newport. A 1976 graduate of the College, Nykaza holds a Bachelor of Science degree in management. Prior to his new position, he was admissions counselor/assistant to the dean, veterans affairs coordinator and assistant dean of students.

Diane Caplin of Portsmouth has been appointed assistant to the dean of student development and director of academic advising. She has been director of college activities for the past two years and was the women's varsity basketball coach for three years. She is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island.
