RHODE ISLAND STRING QUARTET TO PERFORM CLASSICAL MUSIC
AT THE NEWPORT COLLEGE - SALVE REGINA

Concerts at Ochre Court will present an afternoon of classical music on Sunday, April 26 at 2:30 p.m. in the Great Hall of Ochre Court at The Newport College - Salve Regina. The Rhode Island String Quartet, in residence at the University of Rhode Island, will perform music composed by Haydn, Schumann and Gianstera.

The Rhode Island String Quartet includes musicians John Dempsey, violinist, Karen Dempsey, violinist, Joseph Ceo, violist and Janet Chapple, cellist.

John Dempsey is first violinist with the Rhode Island Philharmonic and assistant concertmaster of the Rhode Island Civic Chorale Orchestra. He is also associate professor of music at the University of Rhode Island where he teaches violin, chamber music and music theory.

Karen Dempsey is principal second violinist in the Rhode Island Philharmonic and first violinist in the Rhode Island Civic Chorale Orchestra. She is a special instructor at U.R.I.

Joseph Ceo, also a member of the U.R.I. music faculty, teaches viola and conducts the U.R.I. Symphony Orchestra. He is principal violist with the Rhode Island Philharmonic and has an extensive background in chamber music performance.

Janet Chapple is a special instructor in cello at U.R.I. and Rhode Island Junior College. She is a member of the New Music Ensemble of Providence and principal cellist with the Rhode Island Civic Chorale and Artists Internationale Opera Orchestra.

The concert is sponsored by The Newport College - Salve Regina. Partial funding for this performance was provided by the New England Foundation for the Arts, the Rhode Island Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Young people in the community are especially invited to this concert at Ochre Court. Donations will be accepted.
