THREE ARE PROMOTED AT SALVE REGINA - THE NEWPORT COLLEGE;
TWO NEW APPOINTMENTS GIVEN

Carl P. Nykaza of Newport has been promoted to director of financial aid and assistant to the vice president for budgeting at Salve Regina - The Newport College. As director of financial aid, Nykaza will be responsible for counseling students and making financial aid awards and preparing applications and fiscal operations reports to the College and the state and federal governments. Nykaza's role as assistant to the vice president for budgeting includes advising the College's vice presidents on the approval of expenditures requested by the academic and college services departments and preparation of budget reports. Prior to assuming his new duties, Nykaza was director of veteran's services, a job he still maintains, and assistant dean of admissions. He is a 1976 graduate of the College, and is currently working on a master of arts degree in human development with a specialization in management.

Clara M. Rosa, and Mary Alice Campbell, both of Newport, have been promoted to admissions officers. Rosa's responsibilities will include working in the contact, interviewing and application processing phases for those students who come to the College directly from high school. Campbell's responsibilities will include contacting, interviewing and processing the applications of all special entry students.

Appointed to the position of residence program director, is Steven Painchaud. Painchaud will be working with the College's hall directors and resident assistants in developing programs for the residence halls. Before coming to Salve, Painchaud was assistant dean of student affairs at St. Joseph's College, N. Windham, Maine. He holds a B.A. in English from St. Joseph's, and an M.S. in education from the University of Southern Maine, Gorham. He is a native of Concord, N.H.

Lynette Patterson of Portsmouth has been appointed to the new position of writer/publicist in the College's Public Relations Office. Before coming to Rhode Island, Patterson served as an advertising copy writer in Michigan, and a newspaper reporter/editor at three daily newspapers in her native Minnesota. She holds a B.A. in English/journalism from Mankato State University (Minnesota) and studied audio visual media on the graduate level in Michigan.
