CAREER DAY AT SALVE REGINA - THE NEWPORT COLLEGE BRINGS IN RECRUITERS DESPITE ECONOMY

More than 30 agencies and companies in the New England area were represented at the third annual Career Day Wednesday, April 21 at Salve Regina - The Newport College.

The event, held in O'Hare Academic Center featured guest lecturers from various organizations who provided tips to those individuals seeking out the best fields for careers in the 80's and beyond.

Recruiters from business, industry, schools, social service and state and federal agencies were also on hand to discuss individuals' career opportunities with their organizations

Career Day was sponsored by the Student Academic Senate in cooperation with the Colleges Career Planning and Placement Office. Free and open to the public, the event ran from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., with a special workshop, "Women Juggling Careers and Families," presented at 7:30 p.m.
