SALVE REGINA - THE NEWPORT COLLEGE PLANS 1982
HONORS CONVOCATION; GOVERNOR GARRAHY TO ATTEND

The Honorable Governor J. Joseph Garrahy will be present at the 1982 Honors Convocation Saturday, May 1 at Salve Regina - The Newport College.

Over 700 people are expected to attend the event, held annually to recognize and honor Salve students who have excelled in leadership, scholarship and service to others.

This year, approximately 150 students will receive awards from academic departments and College organizations, for outstanding scholarship, Who's Who Among Students, and Honor Society membership. In addition, college-wide service awards will be given to outstanding members of the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes.

This year's valedictory address will be presented by Mary Beth Cordeiro, a resident of Westport, Mass. Cordeiro, an elementary education major with a minor in psychology, achieved a grade point average of 3.99 out of a possible 4.0.

Dr. Lucille McKillop, R.S.M., president of the College, will also name the 1982 recipient of the Salve Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded annually to the sophomore or junior having the highest grade point average and covers full tuition costs for one year.

This year's Honors Convocation will be held on the terrace of Ochre Court.
