and human services from Boston University. She is the recipient of the College's award for academic excellence.

The second recipient of the award for academic excellence is Guy Smith. A Naval officer stationed in Newport, Smith is a graduate of Purdue University with a degree in electrical engineering.

This year's Magisterial Mass in Ochre Court Chapel, will honor 44 graduates. The Mass will also include the hooding ceremony which will be conducted by Dr. Lucille McKillop, R.S.M., president of Salve Regina. A reception in Ochre Court will follow the Mass.

Salve Regina offers four masters programs, including a master of science in criminal justice and health services administration, and a master of arts in human development and liberal studies.
