PROFESSORIAL APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED
AT SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Brother Victor Hickey, F.S.C., and Dr. Richard Marquise are among several faculty at Salve Regina College (Newport, R.I.) recently promoted to full professorships.

Brother Hickey, a resident of Newport, has taught at Salve Regina since 1977 and currently serves as chairman of the education department. A Fulbright scholar, he was formerly principal of the Christian Brothers Academy (Syracuse, N.Y.) and St. Joseph's Collegiate (Buffalo, N.Y.). Brother Hickey earned a bachelor of arts from Catholic University of America and master of arts degrees from Manhattan College and Niagara University. He holds a doctorate from St. John's University. At Salve Regina, he is a member of the Graduate Council and the Education Policies and Curriculum Committee.
