FOR USE UPON RECEIPT

CHAIRMAN OF PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT AT SALVE REGINA-
THE NEWPORT COLLEGE APPOINTED ADJUNCT PROFESSOR AT BROWN

Dr. Anthony Walsh, professor and chairman of the department of psychology at Salve Regina - The Newport College has been appointed adjunct professor of the Child Study Center at Brown University.

The appointment carries faculty status and provides Walsh with the use of Brown University facilities and research space to continue his personal study into the history of psychology.

Walsh holds a doctorate in general psychology with a specialization in history and systematic psychology from the University of New Hampshire. He earned a master of science degree and a certificate of advanced graduate studies in clinical and counseling psychology from Springfield College, Springfield, Mass.
