SCOTTISH SINGERS TO PERFORM FIRST OF FOUR
"CONCERTS AT OCHRE COURT;" PUBLIC INVITED TO SALVE

The 1982-83 "Concerts at Ochre Court," begins Sunday, October 3, with the performance of "Silly Wizard," a four-man Scottish band singing traditional and original music from their native land. Concert time is 8 p.m. at Salve Regina College.

The Silly Wizard band was formed in 1972 and since then their unique blend of music has carried them from the Scottish Highlands to the French Alps, the Californian desert, and the mountains of Alaska. They have written and performed music for television, radio, films and stage.

The performance of Silly Wizard is sponsored by Salve Regina - The Newport College in conjunction with the Newport Folklore Society. Tickets are $7 in advance ($6 for Folklore Society members), or $8 at the door. They may be purchased at the String Instrument Workshop,
