

Letter from Jules Allard to Mr. Ogden Goëlet
C/o Messieurs Brown, Shipley & Co, London
Paris, the 20th of June 1883

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to send you with this letter the one I received today from Mr. Saint-Pierre; I write him by this same mail with instructions to start nothing before having received your orders.

I am currently preparing the drawings you asked me for the upholstering of your chairs. As agreed upon, I will send them to you with the estimate as soon as finished.

Please pay my respects to Madame,

Yours faithfully,

Jules Allard

P.S. I will send you the agreement to be signed when we will have decided on the fabrics to cover the seats so that the sum will be all inclusive.
