

Letter from Jules Allard to Mr. Goëlet,
Paris, the 9th of July 1883
C/O Messieurs Brown, Shipley & Co

Dear Sir,

I received these past few days a visit from Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt who came to order from me a complete Louis XVI style salon. As he was pressed to go back to London, I have to bring him myself on the seventeenth of July my sketches and estimates. I would be very happy to see you on the same occasion in England and I would thank you to give me your exact address.

Yours sincerely,
Jules Allard
