

January

- 6 Feast of the Epiphany
- 7 Spanish Club Pinata Party at 3:30 p.m. Angelus Hall.
- 8 French Club Program for the Feast of the Kings - Dining Room 3:30 p.m.
- 9 Buffet Supper for Salve Regina Guild.
- 10 Basketball Game
- 11 Movie - Mercy Hall
- 11 Mixer at Providence College
- 12 Basketball Game
- 14 Reading Day
- 15-23 Semester Examinations
- 22-26 Sister M. Norbert and Sister M. Christopher attended the Council on Social Work Education held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Boston, Mass.
- 24-25 Semester Vacation
- 28 Classes resume for second semester
President's Tea for Seniors - 3 p.m.
- 26 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, addressed the C.Y.O. Youth Congress at a panel discussion at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel on Leadership and Education. The discussion concerned preparation of High School students to enter college.
- 30 Supt. Charles O'Connor addressed the Faculty at a Faculty Meeting in the Drawing Room.
- 31 Holy Hour at 6:15 p.m.

February

- 1 First Friday -Communion of Reparation to the Sacred Heart
- 2 Basketball Game with Stonehill College
Commuter's Cake Sale - McWhirr's, Fall River, Mass.
Communion in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary - First Saturday
Candlemas Day - Feast of Purification
- 3 Feast of St. Blaise - blessing of throats
- 4 "The Endowed", a Movie which tells the story of the Extension Volunteers.
Mercy Hall at 6:30 p.m.
- 5 Basketball Game with Barrington College at Barrington.
French Club Meeting
- 6 Lecture on The Second Vatican Council given by Reverend Daniel Reilly, Assistant Chancellor at Mercy Hall - 3 p.m.

....1963...

February

- 8-10 Students' First Retreat given by Reverend Frederick Jelly, O.P.
- 9 Sister M. Philemon and Sister M. Olga attended a meeting of the Chemistry Teachers held at Rhode Island College, Providence, R.I.
- 13 Lecture on Caryll Houselander, That Divine Eccentric, given by Maisie Ward (Mrs. Frank Sheed) at Mercy Hall - 3 p.m.
Movie at Mercy Hall - 6:30 p.m.
- 15 Freshman Investiture in Great Hall at 2:30 p.m.
- 16 Joint Concert in Great Hall at 8 p.m. St. Michael's College of Winooski Park, Vermont and Salve Regina College Glee Clubs.
- 19 Lecture on Tennessee Williams as a Dramatist given by Reverend Thomas Coskran, O.P. at 7 p.m.
- 22 Washington's Birthday - Holiday
- 22-24 Junior Weekend
- 22 Ring Ceremony in Great Hall at 2:30 p.m. Tea in State Dining Room following the ceremony.
German Die Spiegel Party at St. Joseph's Hall 8 - 12 p.m.
- 23 Carribbean Holiday at Mercy Hall - 2-5 p.m.
Sapphire Ball at Ochre Court 9-p.m.- 1 a.m.
- 24 Holy Mass for Juniors at 11 a.m. followed by Brunch in State Dining Room at 12 noon. Reverend Christopher Johnson, O.P., Guest Speaker.
- 22-24 Sister M. Rosalia, R.S.M., Dean, attended a meeting of the Regional Sister Formation held at Mt. St. Mary's College, Hooksett, N.H.
- 27 Ash Wednesday. Ashes were distributed before the 7:20 a.m. Mass and after the 8 a.m. Mass. During the Holy Season of Lent Holy Communion will be distributed daily at noon.
- 28 Holy Hour at 4:45 p.m. before First Friday.
- March
- 1 First Friday. Holy Communion in reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
- 1-3 Retreat for Students given by Reverend Charles Quirk, O.P.
- 2 First Saturday. Holy Communion in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
- 3-6 Sister M. Emily and Sister M. Rosalia attended a meeting of the Presidents of Mercy Colleges to form a College Commission of all Mercy College Presidents in the union to draw upon the resources of all in consideration of common problems and striving toward common objectives. The meetings were held at the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, Illinois.

....1963....

- March
3-6 Madam Ramos attended the Educational Meetings held at the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, Illinois representing Salve Regina College.
- 7 Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas, Patron of the Schools.
Reverend John F. Cunningham, O.P. lectured on "Existentialism in Retrospect, A Thomist Takes a Second Look" at 7 p.m.
- 7 Salve Regina College Basketball Team played Stonehill at Stonehill.
Salve Regina College won.
- 10-17 Salve Regina Participants attended Senator Pell's Internship Program held at the Senator's Office in Washington, D.C. The students were Miss Sally Brown and Miss Lena Parente.
- 12 Sisters of Mercy arrived in Providence from Pittsburg on March 12, 1851 (112 years ago).
- 12 Honors Colloquium. Topic: "The American Novel". Sister Mary Jean had charge of this.
- 12 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Sister M. Emily, Treasurer, attended the Preliminary Meeting for the Government Loan held at New York in the Federal Housing Agency Office.
- 13 Under the auspices of the Sodality a Lecture, "The Christian Family Movement" was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cavanagh in the Drawing Room at 3 p.m. It was open to all.
- 14 Basketball Game. Salve Regina College played with University of Rhode Island. Salve Regina College won.
- 15 Meeting of the Fathers' Council Committee.
- 18 Sister M. Venard attended a meeting for Procurators and Business
- 23 Managers held at the General Motherhouse in Bethesda.
- 18 Salve Regina College Basketball Team played Rhode Island College and Salve Regina College won.
- 18 Honors Colloquium. "The American Novel" continued - S.M. Jean, R.S.M.
- 19 Advisory Board Meeting at 3:30 p.m. Mother M. Alban, Sister M. Hilda, Sister M. Emily, Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Martina attended.
- 19 Sister M. Rosalia, Sister M. Janice, and Sister M. Jeremy were panelists at the 16th Meeting of the Newport County Institute held at Rogers High at 1:45 p.m. Their topics were respectively
The Critic Teacher, Reading on the Secondary Level, and Aural Oral French.
- 20 Fashion Show sponsored by the Home Economics Department. This was held in Great Hall at 8 p.m.

March

- 21 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Christopher attended a meeting of the Committee on Articulation between Colleges and Secondary Schools of Rhode Island held at Rhode Island University Extension Building in Providence.
- 22 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Annhurst Team. Salve Regina Team won.
- 23 Sister M. Andrea and Sister M. Brenda observed their Silver Jubilee . Movie, "Good Morning Miss Dove", was shown to guests in the afternoon before buffet supper in the State Dining Room.
Madeline
- 24 Salve Regina Guidl Meeting. Mrs./Corey spoke on "Fashions: Yesterday Today, and Tomorrow".
- 24 Mrs. Patricia Nagle and Mr. Leo Bottari represented Salve Regina College on "Operation Appreciation", a Viking Tour of Newport and its places of interest.
- * 26 Mr. Rene Fortin of Providence College lectured on "Robert Frost" in Great Hall at 7 p.m.
- 26 Sister M. Martina, Sister M. Antonine, Sister M. Janice and Sister M. Jeremy represented Salve Regina College at a Convocation for Cardinal Bea held at Boston College in honor of the Centennial of the College.
- 28 Sister M. Antonine and Sister M. Jeremy attended the lecture, "Presence and Influence of the French in Colonial Times" given by Patrick O'N. Hayes at the Historical Society on Touro Street, Newport. This was sponsored by the Alliance Francaise de Newport.
- 28 Salve Regina Basketball Team played Bryant Team. S.R.C. won.
- 29 -30-31 Retreat for Students given by Rev. Frederick M. Jelly, O.P.
- 30 Mass composed by C. Alexander Peloquin sung at Boston College in honor of the centennial was attended by Sister M. Martina and Sister M. Rosina representing Salve Regina College.
- *25 Sister M. Augustine, Sister Mariel, Miss Jane Cowsill and Miss Lois Prosser attended a meeting of the New England Regional Conference for Public Health Nursing Education held at Boston College at 9:30 a.m. and also attended the Meeting in the afternoon to honor the Directors of Schools of Nursing in New England Association of Nurse Anesthetists N.E. Hospital Assembly.
- 30 Sister M. Philemon, Sister M. Brenda and Mr. Leo Bottari judged Science Fair entries at the Marble Gymnasium of Brown University.
- 31 The Legion of Mary which was formed at Salve Regina College in February under the moderator Sister M. Mercedes attended a Mass for the Legion of the Providence Curia held at Providence College. Sister M. Mercedes and Sister M. Jeremy attended the Annual Acies Ceremony held at St. Ann's Church under the Spiritual Director Right Reverend Monsignor Patrick S. Canning in Providence, R.I. The Salve Regina Praesidium made their act of consecration at the Shrine there. The members received their certificates at this afternoon ceremony.

April

- 1 Monday in Passion Week
- 4 Holy Hour at 6:15 p.m.
- 5 First Friday. Holy Communion in reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
- 5 Vacation begins after last class.
- 6-7 Sister M. Christopher and Sister M. Donald attended the annual national program conducted by the National Catholic Guidance Conference in conjunction with the meeting of the American Personnel and Guidance Association at Boston College where Sister M. Christopher was one of the speakers.
- 14 Easter Sunday
- 15 Sister Mariel and Sister M. Rosarita attended a workshop on Leadership and Nursing Administration held at the U.S.Navy Hospital.
- 15-18 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Martina attended the Tenth Annual Meetings of the Mercy Educational Conference held at Hotel Lennox, St. Louis, Missouri. They also attended the meetings of the N.C.E.A. annual convention held at St. Louis in the same hotel.
- 19-20 Sister Marie Therese attended the Annual Meeting of the New England College Librarians held at Cushing-Martin Library of Stonehill College.
- 22 At the R.I.Student Nurse Convention held at R.I.College, Providence Miss Rose Marie Sbona was elected President of the Rhode Island Student Nurse Organization. All Nursing Faculty and students who are majoring in Nursing attended.
- 22 Sister Marie Therese and Sister M. Antonine attended the meeting of Librarians at ~~Brown University~~ <sup>R.I. College</sup> to study and debate on the Brown University report on "Library Cooperation", a comprehensive plan to improve the entire library system in the state.
- 24 Sister M. Rose Agnes conducted the Honors Colloquium on the subject of the New Mathematics.
- * 26-27
- 26 Spanish Club Lecture on "The Value of the Spanish Language in the United States". This lecture took place in the Drawing Room at Ochre Court at 2 p.m. and was given by Mr. Arthur Natella.
- 27 Court Cotillion - Freshman Formal Dance.
Graduate Record for Seniors given on Campus.
- 27 N.C.E.A., College and University Department, held the Annual Sectional Meetings at Stonehill College, North Easton, Mass. Sister M. Mauritia, Sister M. Antonine, Sister M. Martha, Sister M. Mercedes, Sister M. Jean, Sister M. Eloise, Sister M. Philemon, Sister M. Donald, Sister M. Olga, Sister M. Andrea, Sister M. Wilhelmina, Sister Marilyn, Rev. John Egan, and Mr. Leo Bottari attended.

* See next page.

....1963....

- 28 Mass at 9 a.m. for the Freshman Class. Communion Breakfast at Cliff Walk Manor at 10:00 a.m. Rev. Frederick Jelly, O.P. was the celebrant of the Mass and the Speaker at the Breakfast.
- 29 Miss Marie Kenney received word that she was the recipient of the dietetic Scholarship Award from the Rhode Island Dietetic Association. Miss Kenney will use the scholarship at the University of Michigan Medical Center next year.
- * 26-27 Sister M. Jeremy attended the NorthEastern Conference in Teaching Foreign Languages held at Benjamin Franklin Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa.
- May
- 1 Sister M. Rose Agnes conducted the Honors Colloquium continuing the subject of the "New Mathematics" and introducing Topology and Sets.
- 2 Holy Hour at 6:15 p.m. for Juniors and Freshmen.
- 3 First Friday
- 4 It was announced in the Providence Journal that Sister Marilyn had been awarded a mental health training grant of $12,564 for the next fiscal year from the National Institutes of Health for a training program in psychiatric nursing. Representative John E. Fogarty said the training program has been approved for two additional years with a moral commitment of the same amount each year.
- 5 Alumnae Family Day - 2:30 - 5:00 p.m. Ochre Court
- 7 Alliance Francaise - "An Evening With Debussy". Great Hall at 7:30 p.m.
- 8 Ceremony of Induction into Sigma Phi Sigma at 7 p.m. followed by a Social Hour in the State Dining Room.
- 9 Dramatic Readings: Othello by Regina Players in Great Hall at 7:30 p.m.
- Sister M. Philemon and Sister M. Brenda were judges of the Science Exposition held at the Bishop Feehan High School, Attleboro, Mass. during the eighth annual convention of the Catholic Teachers Association.
- 11-13 Sister M. Augustine and Sister Cor Mariae with Miss Maloof attended the meetings of the Council of Member Agencies of the National League for Nursing Convention held at Atlantic City, New Jersey.
- 14-16 Miss Jane Cowsill, Mrs. Catherine Graziano, and Miss Lois Prosser attended the meetings of the National League for Nursing Convention held at Atlantic City. Miss Prosser attended the special Public Health Meeting.
- 12 Mother's Day
- 15 Sister Marilyn attended a meeting of the E.A.C.T. Section of the Executive Board of the State Nurses' Association at 3:30 p.m. at the State Nurses' Association on Angell Street, Providence, R.I.

.... 1963....

- May
15-17 Comprehensive Examinations
- 16 Reading Day for Seniors for Comprehensive Examinations
- 17 Reading Day for undergraduates.
- 20-29 Examinations
- 20 Ceremony of Presentation of Regina Medal to Miss Margaret C. Kelleher, R.N., Director of Nurses in Rhode Island. Rev. Joseph Lennon, O.P. was the speaker of the day. The presentation took place in the Great Hall at 3 p.m. Mother Provincial placed the medal around Miss Kelleher's shoulders. Representatives from many schools of Nursing and Hospitals were present, clergy and guests of Miss Kelleher, members of the Administration and Faculty also graced the occasion.
- 21 A movie on The Abnormal Child was shown in the Great Hall at 8 p.m.
- 22 Farewell Assembly in Mercy Hall at 2 p.m.
Dinner at 5:30 p.m. in the State Dining Room for the class of 1963.
Induction of the class into the Alumnae Association. Guests were the Alumnae Officials and speaker. Visiting speaker was Mr. Edward P. Conaty, Assistant Director of Administration for State of Rhode Island and President-elect of Providence College Alumni Association.
- 23 Ascension Thursday - Holyday - No classes
Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Brenda attended Commencement at Newport*
- 24 Class Day at 2 p.m. on Terrace. Formal Procession. Laurel Chain Dance by Sophomores and planting of Class Tree. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the ceremony.
- ** 25 Salve Regina Guild Tea in honor of Class of 1963. Musicales by Glee Club.
26
- 27 Day of Recollection for the Senior Class given by Rev. Charles Quirk, O.P.
- 28 Rehearsal for Commencement
- 29 Sister M. Augustine and Sister Mariel attended the meeting of the N.E. Board of Higher Education Council on Nursing Education held at Winchester, Mass.
Rehearsal for Commencement.
- 30 Memorial Day - Holiday
- 31 Rehearsal for Commencement
- June 1 Commencement Ball - Ochre 9 p.m.-1 a.m.
- 2 Baccalaureate Mass at St. Mary's Church. Rev. Ralph McCaffrey, O.P. said the Mass at 4:30 p.m. Dinner for parents and class at Viking Hotel-6 p.m.
*Hospital, School of Medical Technology at 12:30 p.m.
** Sister M. Emily and Sister M. Mercedes attended Catholic Teachers' College Commencement.

June

- 3 Commencement Exercises on Terrace at 3 p.m. Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney presided. At the opening of the Exercises he announced the death of our Most Sovereign Pontiff, Pope John XXIII which took place at 2:49 p.m. Eastern Daylight Saving time. He led the prayers for his departed soul.
Senators from Rhode Island, the Governor of Rhode Island, The Mayor of Newport, Dignitaries of Church and State marched in procession with the Administration and Faculty of Salve Regina. Mother Provincial and her Council graced the occasion. Dr. William Robinson, Commissioner of Education in the state of Rhode Island presented the state certificates to those who had been practice teaching and had earned them. Reverend Robert F. Drinan, S.J., Dean of Boston College Law School delivered the scholarly address concerning the place of women in the world of today.
- 3 Dr. Ascanio DiPippo represented Salve Regina College at Brown University Commencement at 10 a.m.
- 4 Sister M. Mauritia and Sister M. Jean attended Providence College Commencement representing Salve Regina College.
- 4 Sister Marilyn and Sister Cor Mariae attended a Sectional Meeting of Educators, Administrators, Consultants and Teachers of the Rhode Island Nurses' Association at the Newport Hospital from 2 to 5 p.m. Miss Rita Kelleher, Dean of the School of Nursing at Boston College spoke on "Maintaining Student Interest".

It was announced that the Misses Terri Nappi, Patricia O'Donnell and Judith Palmisciano, all members of the graduating class were selected to take part in the Central European Tour program of the United States National Student Association this summer with college students from all parts of the country. The countries to be visited are England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany and Holland.
- 5 Sister M. Augustine attended a meeting of the Governor's Blue Ribbon Commission on Nursing held at the State Office Building in Providence, Rhode Island.
- 5 Sister Mariel attended a meeting of the Rhode Island State Nurses' Association on the Rehabilitation Program held at Veteran's Hospital. The topic under discussion was "Early Diagnosis and Rehabilitation of the Physically Impaired Child: The Approach".
- 6 Sister Marilyn and Sister Mariel attended a meeting of the Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurses held at the Rhode Island State Nurses' Association in Providence at 2:30 p.m.
- 6 Miss Eileen Flaherty attended the Commencement of Roger Williams Junior College representing Salve Regina. It was held at 8 p.m.
- 6 Sister M. Martha and Sister M. Eloise attended the Commencement of Our Lady of Providence Seminary representing Salve Regina College. It was held at 10 a.m.

....1963....

June

- 7-9 Annual Alumnae Week-Eng
Dance on Saturday evening. Mass at 11 a.m. on Sunday in College Chapel. Meeting in the Drawing Room on Sunday afternoon.
- 8 Sister Marie Therese and Sister Mary Andrea represented Salve Regina College at Rhode Island College/at 10 a.m.
Commencement
- 9 Mr. Leo Bottari attended the Commencement of the University of Rhode Island representing Salve Regina College.
- 9 - 12 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Emily attended a meeting of the Sister Formation especially relating to the education of the Sisters from Asia held at St. Xavier's College, Chicago, Ill.
- 13 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Sister M. Emily, Superior and Treasurer, attended a meeting concerning the Government Loan held in New York City at the Federal Housing Agency Office. The two architects, the college accountant and lawyer were present at the meeting.
- 13 Sister Cor Mariae attended an informal meeting of the Nominating Committee of E.A.C.T. section of Rhode Island State Nurses' Association held at Roger Williams General Hospital at 10 a.m.
- 14 Faculty of Salve Regina began their annual retreat under the direction of Reverend Gregory Roy, S.J.
- It was announced early in the month that Salve Regina College had received a grant from the United Atomic Energy Commission States/for purchase of lab equipment to use atomic tracer materials. The amount of the grant is $6,400.
- 24 The Salve Regina Summer Session opened with an enrollment of 42 lay people and 56 Sisters.
- 24 The Mercy Institute of Spirituality opened at Queen Hall. Rev. Edward R. Callahan, S.J. and the Rev. Francis A. Sullivan were the Chaplains and Instructors each taking a period of three weeks. The Institute opened with a ten day retreat. The superior was Sister M. Eugene Sullivan, R.S.M., the mistress was Sister M. Joachim Giannini, R.S.M. and the portress was Sister M. Imelda Nee, R.S.M.
- 25 Sister M. Mercedes, R.S.M. left for courses at Columbia University New York, N.Y.
- July
- 6-8 Mrs. Romalda Bishop Spaulding of Honolulu, Hawaii, author of "The Writing Road to Reading" and Mr. Spaulding visited Salve Regina. On July 8, Mrs. Spaulding addressed area school teachers and administrators at a public lecture at 2 p.m. in the Great Hall.
- 8-12 Sister M. Rosina, R.S.M. attended a Music Conference at New York City.
- 10 Nearly 100 Sisters, students and faculty members of the Summer Session at Salve Regina College visited Touro Synagogue in Newport, the oldest synagogue building now standing in United States.

..... 1963 .....

- July
24 Mother M. Hilda, R.S.M., President, and Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, attended a meeting at the University of Rhode Island concerning the opportunities for Education in Rhode Island for Negro Youth Conference. This was attended by representatives from Rhode Island Colleges and other school systems of Rhode Island.
- 29 Sister M. Rosalia, R.S.M., Dean, attended an Advisory Board Meeting at Battle Creek, Michigan.
- August
1 Thirty-one Sisters of Mercy received their degrees at the Commencement for Sisters. This was the largest summer session graduation class. Reverend Edward R. Callahan, S.J., Commencement Speaker, had as his topic, "The Two Cities and the Veil". Dr. William Robinson, Jr., Commissioner of Education in Rhode Island, presented 23 of the group with the statement of eligibility for teaching. The Rt. Rev. Monsignor James V. Greene, pastor of St. Mary Church, Newport, and Dean of the Newport Area, presided at the Commencement. The dean, Sister M. Rosalia, R.S.M., presented the candidates for degrees to Sister M. Hilda, R.S.M., President.
- July
20 The Assignments for the Sisters of Mercy at Salve Regina College were announced. To leave the College: Sister Cor Mariae, R.S.M. of the division of Nursing to go to La Ceiba to teach the nurses there. To come to the College: Sister M. Harold Nelson, R.S.M. to teach in the History Department; Sister Mariella Heffernan, R.S.M. to instruct in the Nursing Department; and Sister M. Susanne Breckel, R.S.M., to the Faculty of Salve Regina College. Sister M. Rosarita, R.S.M., R.N. was later assigned to the Nursing Division.
- Announcements for secular faculty for the academic year 1963-1964 were (New this year): Miss Joan David in the department of English and Speech; Mrs. Donald B. Fletcher in the Home Economics Department; Dr. Lorraine N. Gaudreau in the Sociology Department; Dr. Stanley J. Goicz in the Modern Foreign Language Department; Miss Jane Hale, Director; Mr. Hugh Kilmer, grandson of Joyce Kilmer, the poet, in the departments of English and Philosophy; Mrs. Richard P. McMahon in the Education Department; Dr. George V. Morris in the Physics Department.
- *
Aug. 19 Sister M. Rosarita, R.S.M. was appointed to the faculty of Salve Regina College to teach in the Division of Nursing to replace Sister Mariel who is no longer a faculty member.
- 22-24 Sister M. Mercedes attended a meeting of the C.C.D. held at Boston, Mass.
- 27 A farewell buffet supper was held in the State Dining Room and Terrace to honor the three Sisters who were leaving Salve Regina: Sister Cor Mariae to go to La Ceiba; Sister M. Norbert to study at University of Pennsylvania for a year; and Sister Anne Maria, S.A.B.S. who is to study Practical Nursing in a Mercy College in Michigan.
- Aug. 7 Meeting of College Executives and School Superintendents to consider the problem of drop-outs and opportunities for Higher Education of the Negro.

.... 1963 ....

August

- 28 Sister Anne Maria, S.A.B.S. left via Boston on plane to Michigan.
- 30 Sister Cor Mariae left by boat from New York to sail to La Ceiba.

September

- 3 Sister M. Norbert left to travel to Philadelphia, Penn. where she will study in the Sociology Department for the year.
- 3 Meeting for all Senior Student Teachers at Rogers High. Fifty-eight Salve Regina Students were of this group. All these resident students returned for the academic year.
- 7 A Sister Formation Teacher Education Conference was held at Salve Regina College at 1:30 p.m. Mother Provincial and Sister M. Alban were present as well as Sister Supervisors, Sister Principals, and Critic Teachers of student teachers. A general Session was followed by group discussions. The Dean, Sister M. Rosalia, R.S.M., presided and Mother M. Helena, R.S.M. gave the final message of appreciation.
- *
9-10 A Nursing Curriculum Workshop was held at Salve Regina College. All Sister and Lay Nursing Faculty attended and Sisters who taught the student nurses were invited to contribute to the discussions.
- 7 Most of the Sister Faculty of Salve Regina College enjoyed a boat ride as Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pomfret, relations of S.M. Augustine, R.S.M. They visited Prudence Island (did not disembark) and lunched close to a destroyer. All enjoyed the day.
- 12 A Faculty Meeting including a general session, coffee break, divisional meetings, and a final general session took the entire day from 9:15 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The highlight of the day was the luncheon in the College Cafeteria at noon when Dr. Charles Russell, Vice-President of Bryant College spoke on the theme of the day: The College Teaching Challenge for Professor Chips.
- 15 Freshmen Resident Students arrived - the largest class in the history of Salve Regina. There are 175 Freshmen, 110 of this number being Resident students.
- 16 Assembly for all Freshmen at Mercy Hall. 9:30 a.m.
Academic Placement Tests at Angelus Hall. 1:30 p.m.
- 17 Academic Placement Tests at Angelus Hall. 9:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
"This is Newport" Assembly for Resident Freshmen at 7:00 p.m.
- 18 Junior Residents arrive 2-4 p.m.
Sophomore Residents arrive 7-10 p.m.
APT for Freshmen at Angelus at 9:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
Barbecue on Ocean Terrace with Junior Sisters.
- 19 Non-resident Juniors and Sophomores arrive. Registration conferences with major departments faculty members for Sophomores and Juniors, Seniors also held all day Thursday and Friday.
- 19-20 See next page for meeting attended by Dr. DiPippo
Registration for Sophomores at 9:30 a.m.
Registration for Freshmen 1:30 p.m.
- 20 Registration for Juniors at 9:30 a.m.
Registration for Seniors at 1:30 p.m.

..... 1963 .....

September

- 20 Freshmen APT at Angelus at 9:00 a.m.
Informal Dance at Mercy Hall at 8:00 p.m.
- 17 Sister M. Joannes and Mrs. Donald Fletcher attended a meeting of the Co-Sponsors of the R.I. League of Nursing, R.I. Dept. of Health, R.I. State Nurses' Association, and R.I. Dietetic Association held at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, R.I.

Miss Lois Prosser, R.N. also attended the above meeting.
- 23 Mass of the Holy Ghost. All classes on schedule.
- 24 Mercy Day - High Mass sung by the Sisters.
- 27 Honors Convocation Day. Right Rev. Msgr. James V. Greene presided at the ceremony held on the Terrace of Ochre Court. Dr. Thomas H.D. Mahoney, Professor of Humanities at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, spoke on "The Catholic Woman's College and the World of the 'Sixties'". Representatives of the Provincial Council were present. Twenty-two nursing students were capped at the ceremony.
- 26-30 Two Sisters of Mercy from Endsleigh Convent of Mercy, Hull, Yorkshire, England, on a lecture tour of America stayed at Salve Regina. They observed teacher training programs and lectured at different times. Sister M. Madeleine and Sister M. Everilda both hold a Ministry of Education Certificate in Education.
- 30 Sister M. Madeleine lectured on "English Religious Poetry" at 3 p.m. in the Great Hall. Sister Mary Everilda spoke on the "English School System and the Training of Teachers in England" at 7 p.m. in the Great Hall. She also showed slides to illustrate her talk.
- 30 Sister M. Augustine, Director of Nurses, will work with the Rhode Island Council of Community Services, Inc. as a member of the Nursing Needs and Resources Committee. There was a meeting of this committee held at Rhode Island Hospital on Sept. 30.
- 30 S.M. Rosalia, Dean, attended a meeting of Provincial Advisory Board with S.M. Martina, Registrar.
(held at Mt. St. Rita's)
- October
- 1 There was a Conference of Supervising Teachers of the Newport School System held at Salve Regina College in the Drawing Room of Ochre Court at 1 p.m. Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, was the chairman of the meeting.
- 2 Ground was broken for the new Residence Hall and Student Center at 11 a.m. The Mother Provincial, the Assistant Provincial, Mr. Moore, the Mayor of Newport, Representatives of the Guild, Alumnae, Father's Council, the Administration and Faculty, the student body - all participated in the informal ceremony presided over by Right Reverend Monsignor who blessed the ground. Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Director of Public Relations and Development, was the Chairman on this occasion.

Reverend John J. Sullivan, National Director of the Extension Lay Volunteers, addressed the student body in Mercy Hall at 3 p.m. He presented the need for qualified Catholic lay people to serve in the Extension home missions and in Latin America.

October

3

Holy Hour at 6:15 p.m.

3-5

Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Sister M. Venard, Assistant Treasurer, attended the Annual Meeting of the American Council on Education held at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C. Sister M. Rosalia also participated in a meeting of the College Commission of the Sisters of Mercy of the Union of which commission she is vice chairman.

4-5

Mr. George L. McKim represented Salve Regina College at the meeting of the New England Teacher Preparation Association held at Somerset Hotel, Boston, Mass.

4

First Friday

5

Sister M. Venard and Sister M. Rosalia attended the Academic Convocation in Emmitsburg, Maryland honoring the Beatification of Elizabeth Ann Seton, foundress of St. Joseph's College in that city. They were the official representatives of Salve Regina.

5

Salve Regina Guild Bridge

6

Salve Regina students and faculty were represented at the annual Fatima Pilgrimage at Mt. St. Rita, Cumberland, R.I.

7

Mrs. Donald B. Fletcher, Instructor in the Home Economics Department, was re-elected chairman of the Rhode Island Hospital Auxiliaries at the sixth annual meeting of the Section of Hospital Auxiliaries, held during the annual meeting of the Hospital Association of R.I. at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel in Providence, R.I.

8

Salve Regina Maria Regina Sodality began activities of the year with four representatives of the Sodality from Holy Cross College attending the informal discussion of the "The Formation of a Sodalist".

* 9

Dr. Michael Walsh, former Commissioner of Education in R.I., addressed the students at their respective class meeting on the advantages of a College education. Dr. Walsh addressed the seniors on Monday, October 7 on the same subject.

10

Eilis Dillon, in private life Mrs. Cormac O'Cuilleainain, addressed an audience of students and guests of the college on "The Poetic Tradition in Ireland" at 7:30 p.m. in the Great Hall. Her husband, is professor of the History of Irish Literature at the University College, Cork.

11-12

Co-editors of the Salve Regina College yearbook, Regina Maris, attended the Columbia School Press Conference at Columbia University in New York City. They were Mrs. Ann Neville and Miss Sally O'Brien. Miss Sue Mailloux, member of yearbook staff, accompanied them.

* 9

Smith
Sister M. Othilda and Sister M. Wilhelmina attended an orientation meeting of the College Coordinates for College-Business Symposium which was held at the Conference Room of the Chamber of Commerce in Providence, Rhode Island at 4 p.m.

October

13-16

Mrs. Catherine E. Graziano, R.N. represented Salve Regina College at a conference held at Hartford, Connecticut sponsored by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. Mrs. Graziano attended the general sessions and also participated in the seminars being held on Obstetric, Gynecologic, and Neonatal Nursing.

15

The first meeting of the Campus unit of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine was held at 7 p.m. in Angelus Hall. Sister M. Mercedes, Diocesan Chairman of the Teaching Sisters and Brothers Committee, CCD, was scheduled to teach the Methods Course of the lay catechist's training while Mr. Hugh Kilmer of the College Theology faculty was scheduled to teach the Dogma and Liturgy course. These courses were scheduled weekly for the remainder of the year.

15-16

Mission Tag Days.

16

Mrs. Richard McMahon, director of elementary student teaching at Salve Regina College, participated in the program of the 1963 Essex County Teachers' Convention held at Salem State College, Salem, Massachusetts. Mrs. McMahon conducted a third grade teaching demonstration in Modern Mathematics.

16

Sister Marilyn was elected to the board of directors of the Rhode Island League for Nursing at the annual joint meeting of the league and the Rhode Island Nurses Association in Cranston. Sister M. Augustine, director of nurses at Salve Regina, and Miss Helen Maloof, faculty member, were members of the constitution revision committee.

17

Mr. John Hogan, Principal of Cranston-Calvert School, Newport, addressed all the student teachers of Salve Regina at Angelus Hall at 4 p.m. His topic was "The Gifted Child Program".

17

Holy Hour for Freshmen and Sophomores at 6:15 p.m.

18-20

All College Fall Weekend. Dance on Friday night at Mercy Hall, activities during the day on Saturday, Dance at Cliff Walk Manor on Saturday night. Benefits of the Weekend went to the Year Book.

20

Salve Regina Guild Holy Hour.

19

Sister M. Christopher and Dr. Lorraine Gaudreau of the Sociology Department attended a meeting of the American Catholic Sociological Association held at Regis College. This was a regional meeting.

20

Dr. Lorraine Gaudreau spoke at the Social Work Careers Program held at Boston University, Massachusetts.

22

Salve Regina held a College Orientation Program for the seniors of our Mercy High Schools. There was a panel in the Great Hall with Miss David as Moderator and four students - one from each of the four Mercy High Schools and now a student of Salve Regina. This was followed with a tour of the Campus and ended up with refreshments at Mercy Hall.

*22
October

- 23 Salve Regina College was featured on T.V. on the Program "On Campus" on WTEV-TV, Channel 6 at 10:45 a.m. Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Director of Public Relations and Development, was interviewed by Bob Basset, the regular MC of the program. Miss Joan David of the Drama Department and Miss Ellen M. Scully, president of the student were also interviewed.
- 23 The Freshmen, after a month's friendly hazing by the Sophomores, gave the faculty and student body a cleverly improvised skit planned to "get Back" at the Sophomores for their tricks. The affair was held at Mercy Hall at 7:15 p.m. and was enjoyed by the audience.
- *22 Mr. Anthony Riccio, Director of Rhode Island Department of Social Welfare, spoke to the Family Service Organization at the meeting of the Board of Directors in the Great Hall at 3 p.m.
- 24 Sister M. Harold attended a meeting of the Rhode Island Social Studies held at the Donovan Dining Center of Rhode Island College.
- 25 Joint meeting of the Father's Council's Executive Committee, Newport Arrangement Committee, and the Area Chairmen in charge of the Father-Daughter Week End.
- *26
26-27 Father-Daughter Week End
This Week End consisted of: Father-Daughter Classes-Angelus Hall, Luncheon - State Dining Room, Fathers' Conference - Mercy Hall, Fathers' Area Meetings - Mercy and McAuley Halls, Free Time for Fathers and Daughters to enjoy Newport and the College, Class Dinners, Father and Daughter Dance- Great Hall.
On Sunday morning they assisted at 9 a.m. Mass and enjoyed a New England Brunch at 10 a.m. after the Mass. This closed the Week End's activities.
- 28 Rev. John P. Reid, O.P. spoke at the Faculty Seminar on the Social Doctrine of Pope John XXIII in the Perspective of Christian Philosophy. The Seminar was held in the Drawing Room at 7:15 p.m.
- 29 A Hurricane Watch caused "No School" in the Newport Schools and there were no classes at Salve Regina. We were not affected as the path of the storm did not reach us after all.
- *26 Miss Joan David attended a "Colloquium on History and the Literary Imagination" held at Seton Hall University, New Jersey.
- 30 The Alliance Francaise held their initial meeting of the Academic year 1963-1964 at 4 p.m. at Ochre Court. The guest of honor was Mme. Pierre Chardin, wife of Commander Chardin, who is a representative of France in the current class at the Naval War College at Newport.
- 31 Students had Hallowe'en Parties in their respective Dorms.

November

- 1-2 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Augustine visited St. Joseph's College in Maine to discuss the organization of a Collegiate Nursing Program with the College Administration.
- 1 All Saints Day. Holyday of obligation. No Classes.
- 2 Sister Marie Therese and Sister M. Isabel attended a meeting of the New England Catholic Library Association held at Providence College.
- 6-8 Sister M. Martina, Registrar, and Sister M. Othilda attended a meeting of Registrars at Portland University, Maine.
- 7,8 Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted attended a conference on fund raising for women's colleges sponsored by the American Alumni Council, Washington, D.C.
- 10 Mr. Hugh Kilmer, member of Salve Regina College Humanities Division spoke on "Creation, Worship and Christian Growth" before the St. Lucy Catholic Youth Organization at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Middletown at 8:30 p.m.
- 10 Sister M. Martina and Sister Marilyn attended a College Day program held at Mt. St. Mary's Academy and spoke to students who were interested in coming to Salve Regina College as liberal arts students or as students in the Nursing Division. The Fall River students were a very interested audience and quite a few hope to attend Salve Regina next year.
- 12 Sister M. Rosalia, Sister M. Martina, Sister M. <sup>Smith</sup> Othilda, Sister M. Janice, Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Mrs. Eleanor McMahon and Mr. George McKim represented Salve Regina College at the Convocation and Symposium on Education of American Teachers at Rhode Island College.
- 13 Robert Goelet, Esquire, visited Salve Regina College accompanied by his nurse companion, Miss McDonald. Sister M. Hilda, President, Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Sister M. Emily, Superior and Treasurer, were on hand to make him welcome.
- 16 Sister M. Othilda and Sister M. Christopher attended the New England Business Teachers' Association held at Bryant College.
- 16 November Nocturne, Sophomore Formal Dance was held at Ochre Court.
- 16 Sister M. Brenda attended an Evolution Symposium held at Boston College.
- 18 Sister M. Hilda's Feast Day. High Mass sung by the Sisters began the President's Feast Day. Students offered prayers and flowers for the altar on the occasion.
- 18 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, Sister M. Donald, Dean of Women, and Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Director of Development and Publicity, attended a Centennial Symposium and Convocation on "The Status of Women in America" held at Bryant College.

.... 1963-1964....

November

19

Professor George L. McKim, Director of Secondary Student Teaching at Salve Regina College, will represent Newport County during the year 1963-1964 as a member of the Centennial Celebration Committee of the American Association of School Administrators.

22

Sister Mary Augustine and Sister M. Ellenice attended a meeting of the Council of Member Agencies for the National League for Nursing held in Chicago. S.M. Augustine represented Salve Regina College School for Nursing.

22

Mixer with Pershing Rifle Team of Providence College.

22

The sad news of the assassination of our beloved President John F. Kennedy came at about 1:50 p.m. The President died of bullet wounds at 2 p.m. Faculty and students prayed during the afternoon and evening for the repose of his noble soul.

22-25

Faculty and students prayed and watched TV at intervals during the sorrow-filled week-end. News of the terrible happening was given frequently on TV and no commercials were allowed during the days of mourning. All classes on Nov. 25, Monday, were cancelled and a High Mass in Memorial was said for the repose of his soul on that day at 10 a.m. All students attended attired in cap and gown. This Mass was celebrated in the Great Hall since the Forty Hours Devotion had opened earlier in the day in the college chapel.

25-27

Forty-Hours Devotion was held in the college chapel. Each evening before the Blessed Sacrament was put back in the Tabernacle the Chaplain spoke to the resident students in attendance. Visits were made frequently during the students' free time and the Sister Faculty kept up the continual adoration before the Blessed Sacrament Exposed.

27

Students left at noon for their Thanksgiving Holidays.

28

Thanksgiving Day. The Sister Faculty enjoyed a buffet supper at St. Joseph's Hall followed by a movie, "The Vagabond King."

30

Mercy Educational Conference held at Bayview. All faculty who were able attended.

December

2

Mr. Joseph Cavanagh, a member of the law firm of Higgins, Cavanagh, and Cooney, addressed the faculty at the second faculty seminar in the State Dining Room at 7 p.m. His topic was "The Implications of the Concepts of Justice and Liberty in the Encyclicals of Pope John XXIII."

*

3

Mother M. Stellamaris, R.S.M., Assistant General, visited Salve Regina and stayed to lunch with the President, Dean and Registrar.

*2-3

Sister Marilyn represented Salve Regina College at The Conference Group on Psychiatric Nursing Practice of The American Nurses' Association held in Kansas City, Missouri.

..1963..

December

- 4 A meeting of the Providence Chapter of the Salve Regina Alumnae took place at the Wayland Manor in Providence. This was the Christmas dinner meeting and Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Director of Public Relations and Development spoke at the meeting.
- 4 Salve Regina College was represented at the College- Business Symposium as guests of the Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce and 25 Business Firms of Rhode Island held at the Sheraton Biltmore Hotel. This College-Business Symposium was presented by the United States Chamber of Commerce. Faculty representatives were: Sister M. Donald, Sister M. ~~Christina~~ <sup>Christina</sup> and Sister M. Wilhelmina. There were about twenty-four student representatives from the History and Economics Departments.
- 4 Salve Regina College Glee Club took part in a grand musicale performance of the Berlioz Requiem held at the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul in Providence. ~~Mr.~~ C. Alexander Peloquin, Director, conducted the combined Salve Regina College Glee Club, Providence College Glee Club, the University Chorale of Boston College and the Peloquin Chorale.
- 4 At Assembly at 3 p.m. a film was shown, "To Smoke or Not to Smoke".
- 7 Sister M. Harold attended the New England regional meeting of the National Catholic Educational Association held at Boston College. This was a joint session of the secondary school and college department of the NCEA and was the follow- up meeting of the annual meeting of the N.E.A held at the Statler-Hilton in Boston.
- * 8 Miss Lynne Leahy, of the class of 1966, received her first holy communion at the 8 a.m. Mass in the College Chapel. She was baptized on December 5 in Middletown at St. Lucy's church.
- 8 Salve Regina College students participated in the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Christmas party for elderly shut-ins from the Newport area. This party was held in Honeyman Hall, Trinity Church parish house.
- 8 The student council of Salve Regina sponsored a tea for the faculty and Junior and Senior classes. This was held in the State Dining Room from 3 to 5 p.m.
- *7 Sister Marilyn attended a meeting of the American Catholic Philosophical Association the New England Regional Conference held at Merrimack College, North Andover, Mass. Sister M. Eloise and Sister M. Rosarita also represented Salve Regina at this meeting.
- 10 Song Fest at Mercy Hall. The judges were Dr. DiPippo, Mr. Bottari, and Mr. McKim. The song submitted by McAuley Hall won.
- 11 The Consul General of France, M. Jean Savelli, addressed the members of the Alliance Francaise on the subject "France Today". Following the address there was a tea, reception and the traditional Yule Log in the State Dining Room. The Consul General addressed the public in English on the same subject at 8:30 p.m.

December

- 11 The Home Economics Christmas Party was held at 7 p.m. and the Faculty were invited to attend. Presents were made for the Old Ladies and for poor children.
- 12 Foundation day of the Sisters of Mercy.
Sodality Party for the under-privileged children at Mercy Hall.
Play- Henri Gheon's "Christmas on the Village Square" was presented for the children by the Dramatic Club.
- 13 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Pembroke on Pembroke Campus and Salve Regina won. The score was close 23-21.
- 13 The Regina Players presented Herman Gressieker's play, Royal Gambit, at Rogers Auditorium at 8 p.m. After the play there was a panel discussion on "Modern Man and the Humanistic Image" with Rev. Edward H. Flannery, Editor of the Providence Visitor, Dr. Paul van K. Thomson, Honors Program Director of Providence College and Visiting Lecturer of Salve Regina College, and Sister M. Jean, R.S.M., Head of the English Department of Salve Regina handling the subject expertly each in his own field.
- 15 Salve Regina College Glee Club took part in the grand musicale performance of the Berlioz Requiem at Robert's Center at Boston College.
- 16 Advent Wreath Ceremony in the Great Hall at 5:20 p.m. followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
- 17 St. Joseph's Hall had "Open House" at 4 pm. for Faculty and friends.
- 18 Art Exhibit in the Great Hall. Crafts, ceramics and Christmas decorations were among the exhibits.

Class and House parties took place in the residence halls.
- 19 Holly Dinner for faculty and their wives or husbands.
Holly Dinner for students followed by traditional Candle-light Procession to the Crib and Christmas Carols.
- ✓19 It was announced that Salve Regina College has become a corporate member of The American Association of University Women. This permits all Alumnae of Salve Regina and all future graduates to be eligible to become members.
- 20 Christmas recess began after last class.
- 25 Christmas. The faculty attended three Masses at 8 a.m. said by a Columban Father. Christmas hymns were sung.
- 27-28 Sister M. Rosalia attended a meeting of the Regional-National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards.(TEPS) (NEA) This was held at the Kenmore Hotel, Boston, Mass.

December

- 28      Sisters from
The faculty of Salve Regina and the/convents in Newport made their annual three day retreat under the direction of Rev. Andrew Jahn, SS.CC.

January

- 1      New Year's Day.
- 6      Classes Resumed
Feast of Epiphany
- 8      Faculty meeting after Coffee Hour at 3:30 p.m.
Spanish Pinata Party
- 9      French Club - Feast of the Kings - Party
S.R.C. Basketball team met Vernon Court. S.R.C. won.
- 10      Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Sister M. Emily, Treasurer, attended a meeting of the Eastern Regional Group of the United States Office of Education in New York City. This meeting should brief the college representatives on the Educational Facilities Act of 1963 and other current legislation affecting colleges and universities.
- 11-12      S.M. Rosalia attended the General Advisory Board of the Sisters of Mercy held at Misericordiae College, Dallas, Pennsylvania.
- 13      A blinding snow storm caused the President to dismiss the students after lunch. A faculty seminar scheduled for the afternoon was postponed until February 10.
- 13-15      Sister M. Rosalia attended the annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C.
Sister also attended the sessions of the Mercy College Commission which convened at the same time.
- 14      Dr. Gerhart H. Seger, Public Relations Consultant to the German Information Center in New York and noted author and lecturer, addressed an interested audience in the Drawing Room at Salve Regina at 7:15 p.m. His topic was "United States-Berlin Relations Today".
- 14      No classes were held because transportation was hazardous after the blinding snow storm.
- 14      Sister M. Marcelline, M.M., Novice Mistress to Sister M. Theresa, SS.CC.
formerly Shao-ling Hwa, alumna of Salve Regina and pioneer of the native sisterhood in Formosa, visited Salve Regina College.
She addressed the Sisters concerning the vocation of Shao-ling and the manner it had come about. She also showed snapshots of the present group of novices, postulants and professed Sisters.
- 15      Sister M. Rosalia will attend a meeting of the Fathers Council at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C. This is a meeting of the Fathers of the Washington Area.
- 20      Holy Hour at 6:15 p.m.

..... 1964 .....

January

- 18 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister Marilyn attended an area meeting of the Fathers' Council in Boston, Massachusetts.
- 18 A meeting of the Officers of the Salve Regina Guild for the yearly fund-raising project took place at Ochre Court. A buffet supper followed the meeting.
- 20-21 Sister M. Antonine and Sister M. Martha represented Salve Regina College at the first annual conference of the Catholic Inter-American Cooperation Program at the Edgewater Beach Hotel Chicago, Illinois. (CICOP)
- 20 Miss Charmaine Robinson, Home Economist, gave a meat cookery demonstration for the students majoring in home economics and for local homemakers in the Home Economics Laboratory at 2 p.m.
- 21 Special Student Assembly to launch The President Kennedy Memorial Scholarship for a Foreign Student - Mercy Hall.
- 22 Reading Day in preparation for Examinations.
- 22 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Sister Marilyn attended a meetings of the Fathers' Council of the New York area at the Commodore Hotel in New York City. Dr. Brasted also attended this meeting.
- 23 Meeting of the Advisory Board of Salve Regina College took place in the State Dining Room at 3:30 p.m. Mother Provincial and Mother M. Alban were present at the meeting which was followed by a dinner in the Dining Room. Right Reverend Monsignor Matthew F. Clarke, V.G. offered the prayer at the opening of the meeting and Dr. John Quinn, Vice-President of the University of Rhode Island was chairman of the meeting.
- 23-29 Semester Examinations
- 23 It was announced at the Advisory Board Meeting that the new building would be called Miley Hall in honor of Mother M. Hilda Miley who was a charter member of the board and has been President of the College since 1948.
- 25 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Mauritia attended the area meeting of Connecticut of the Fathers' Council. Dr. Brasted also attended and the meeting was held at New Haven in the Quinnipiack Club.
- 25 Liturgical Conference held at Boston College was attended by Sister M. Emily and Sister M. Corona.
- 27 Miss Kathleen McAvoy represented Salve Regina College at a meeting for Federal Aid to Libraries held at Brown University.
- 30-31 Semester Vacation
- 30 Consecration of Bishop Bernard Kelly

February

- 2 Feast of the Purification. Resident Students return.
- 3 Classes resumed for second semester.

.. 1964 ..

February

- 3 Blessing of the Throats.
- 5 Sister M. Harold, R.S.M. addressed the Sisterhood of the Temple Shalom on "Israel's Role in World Affairs" at 1 p.m.
- 5-7 Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted attended a meeting of the American College Public Relations Association held at Agassiz House, Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass.
- 6 Holy Hour - Eve of the First Friday
- 7 First Friday
- Ring Ceremony at 2:30 in Great Hall. Tea and reception followed in State Dining Room.
- 7-9 Junior Weekend. Friday from 8-12 p.m. an informal dance was held at the Muenchinger-King Hotel.
Saturday evening at 8 p.m. the Sapphire Ball took place.
Sunday at 11 a.m. the Juniors and their escorts attended Mass and heard Rev. Christopher Johnson speak at the Communion Breakfast which followed at the Hotel Viking.
- 9-22 Sister M. Emily, R.S.M., Superior and Treasurer, attended a course in Management held at the General Motherhouse.
- 12 Ash Wednesday. Holy Communion will be distributed at noon during the season of Lent.
- 13 The February meeting of the Providence Chapter of the Salve Regina Alumnae Association was held at the Wayland Manor, Providence, R.I. at 7:30 p.m. Midd Judith Brown, '61 is the President of the chapter.
- 13 A cash grant of $506.00 from the Gulf Oil Corporation was received by Sister M. Hilda, President, from Mr. Thomas F. Falconer, Providence Area Sales Manager of the Gulf Oil.
- 13 Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted attended The Governor's Prayer Breakfast held at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel in Providence. The purpose of the meeting was to place emphasis on the recognition of God's role relative to the leadership of our State.
- 14 Valentine's Day
- 15 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Rivier College. Salve Regina won by a score of 28 to 17. As yet S.R.C. has not lost a game this season. Congratulations to team and to Miss Jane Hale, Coach, and to S.M. Philemon, Moderator.
- 17 Faculty Seminar given by Rev. Robert J. McEwen, S.J. at 3:30 p.m. in the State Dining Room. The seminar was a continuation of the discussions of the Encyclicals of Pope John XXIII and this talk stressed the Economics Aspect of the Encyclicals since Father McEwen is head of the Economics Department of Boston College.
- 17 Band Concert by Newport Civic Concert Band. Director - Dr. Moody. This was held at Mercy Hall at 7:30 p.m.

...1964...

February

- 18 Intramural Basketball Games in Gymnasium.
 Queen Hall vs. Moore Hall - 6:00 p.m.
 McAuley Hall vs. Mercy Hall - 6:45 p.m.
 Results: Queen was victorious over Moore Hall
 McAuley " " " Mercy Hall
- 19 No Session because of snow storm which made driving hazardous.
- 21 Anniversary of the death of Sister M. Emeria, R.S.M., second Dean of Salve Regina College.
- 22 Washington's Birthday - Saturday
- 23 Freshman Investiture - 2:30 p.m. in the Great Hall
 A tea and reception followed in the State Dining Room.
- 25 The Students of Salve Regina held a rally to launch the fund-raising for The Kennedy Memorial Scholarship for a Foreign Student.
- 26 A Committee of The Salve Regina College Alumnae Association attended a meeting held at a coffee hour at the home of Ann Mary Sweeney of Warwick. The meeting was held to make final arrangements for the annual Alumnae Weekend to be held June 5-7, 1964.
- 27 Sister M. Martha and Sister M. Antonine attended a meeting of PAVLA held at Father Coffey's office at the Visitor.
- 28-29-Mar.1 A students' retreat was held during this weekend and it was conducted by Rev. Frederick Jelly, O.P.
- 29-Mar.1 Sister M. Christopher and Sister Marilyn attended a meeting of the American Association of Existentialist Psychotherapists held at the U.N. International Center of New York. They resided at the Commodore Hotel.

March

- 1 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Janice attended an area meeting of the Fathers' Council of Fall River and Providence held at Mt. St. Mary's and St. Pius' Parish House respectfully.
- 3 Mr. Kevin Lawlor representing Rev. John Sullivan, Director of Extension Lay Volunteers, spoke in the Drawing Room at 12:15 p.m. to the C.C.D., Sodality, Mission Club, Legion of Mary groups and to any one else who was interested and free to attend.
- 4 Honorable Richard Rubottom, Foreign Service Advisor at the Naval War College and who was previously United States Ambassador to Argentina, spoke to students and faculty on the topic, "The United States and Cultural Exchange".
- 4 A panel of the C.C.D. took place in the Great Hall at 3:00 p.m. Rev. David J. Coffey, Diocesan Director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, was the Guest Speaker.

March

- 4 * It was announced that Miss Elizabeth Hyman, of the Class of 1964, is the recipient of a scholarship for Boston University School of Social Work. The grant is from the Federal Vocational Rehabilitation and amounts to $3,300.
- 5 Holy Hour - eve of First Friday
- 6 First Friday
- 7 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Rivier at the De La Salle Gymnasium. Salve Regina team won. It has been a season of victories for S.R.C. since the beginning of the winter.
- 7 There was a meeting held in the State Dining Room at 10:30 a.m. to consider the establishing of a Workshop for Retarded Children with the hope for obtaining a government grant for the Faculty Members who would conduct it. Several secular administrators in Education as well as several Sisters of Mercy now engaged in teaching retarded children were present as well as nurses on the staff of Salve Regina College.
- 8 There was a joint concert of the Providence College Glee Club and the Salve Regina Glee Club held in the Great Hall at 3:30 p.m. The clubs were under the direction of Dr. C. Alexander Peloquin of Salve Regina and Rev. Leo S. Cannon, O.P. of Providence College.
- 9 Miss Lois Scialo, a History Major, and Miss Florence O'Brien, a Sociology Major, were selected to spend the week in the office of Senator Pell for the purpose of participating in the Senator's Internship Program in Washington, D.C.
- 10 Salve Regina College secular faculty played basketball with the Salve Regina Varsity team. The latter were victorious.
- 11 The Home Economics Club sponsored a 12th annual Fashion Show at 8 p.m. in the Great Hall. The proceeds were used to develop the Home Economics Laboratory. Mr. Josef's Designer Shop in New Bedford, Massachusetts provided the fashions which were modeled by professional models of the Hart Agency in Boston. Miss Fran Corcoran, of Tele-Fashions, Boston was commentator.
- 12 Sisters of Mercy arrived in Providence from Pittsburg on March 12, 1851 (113 years ago).
- Salve Regina College played Annhurst Basketball team. S.R.C. Varsity won. (27-22 score).
- 12 There was an area meeting of the Fathers' Council - Newport area - held at Ochre Court in the evening.
- 13 It was announced that three faculty members had received grants for Summer Study. Sister M. Philemon received the grant for Study at Oak Ridge, Tennessee - study in Chemistry. Dr. Ascanio Di Pippo received a grant for Post-Doctorial study in Chemistry at Georgia Tech, Atlanta, Georgia. Sister M. ~~Gilda~~ <sup>Smith</sup> also received a grant for the Economics in Action Program to be held at the University of Cleveland, Ohio.
- *Miss Hyman was also the recipient of a 4 yr. National Health Foundation Scholarship in her Junior year at Salve Regina. This will assist her in Grad. Work.

.....1964.....

March

- 14 Rev. Bernard J. Finnegan, S.J. preached a day of recollection to a group of student nurses at Salve Regina. The nurses were from the Newport Naval College.
- 15 It was announced that Janice Santos received a Graduate Teaching Fellowship in Biology at Marquette University.
- 15 Salve Regina Guild spent a day of recollection at Salve Regina under the direction of Rev. Robert F. Ferrick, S.J.
- 15 A Faculty Seminar continuing the subject of the Encyclical of Pope John XXIII was held in the State Dining Room at 7 p.m. Senator Pell addressed the faculty taking a Statesman's view of the message given to us in the encyclical.
- 15 Sister M. Mercedes and Sister M. Harold attended the Annual Acies Ceremony of the Legion of Mary, Providence Curia, held at St. Michael's Church, Providence, R.I. Members of the Legion from Salve Regina attended. Most Rev. Bernard M. Kelly, D.D. spoke, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick S. Canning, Spiritual Director, presiding.
- 15 Several members of the student body of Salve Regina attended a Vocational Day held at Mt. St. Rita. Rev. Joseph T. Hughes was the speaker.
- 16 There was a meeting of the Sigma Phi Sigma undergraduate and graduate (alumnae) met at Ochre Court at 7:30 p.m. The topic of the meeting was "The Lay Apostolate" and there was an explanation of the programs such as Extension Lay Volunteers, Pavla, the Peace Corps, and others. Slides were shown. Nominations for new members were made at the meeting. Sister M. Antonine is moderator of the Sigma Phi Sigma.
- 16 Salve Regina Basketball team played Pembroke at De La Salle Auditorium. Pembroke won the score being 24-23. It was the first loss of the season for Salve Regina College.
- 17 St. Patrick's Day. The faculty were invited to St. Joseph's Hall for a St. Patrick's Day lunch.
- 19 Feast of St. Joseph.
A short meeting of the Advisory Board took place in the periodical room of McAuley Hall Library. Following this those members of the board who had not seen some of the buildings on the campus had a tour. Then, the highlight of the day, the unveiling of the portrait of Cornelius C. Moore, Esquire took place in Moore Hall. Sister M. Mercedes, R.S.M. of Salve Regina Art Department was the artist who painted the portrait. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at Ochre Court Chapel took place about 5 p.m. A buffet supper for Advisory Board, Guests, Faculty members - both ~~secular~~ and Sisters - took place in the State Dining Room and in the Breakfast Room. The Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, D.D.; Mother M. Helena, Mother Provincial; Mother Mary Alban, Assistant Provincial; the Advisory Board; Faculty and Students who reside at Moore Hall were present for the ceremony. All the members of the Advisory Board and the Faculty were invited to the buffet.

- 20-21-22 Students' Retreat. This opened on Friday evening at 7:30 with a conference and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament continued all day Saturday and closed with a conference and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Apostolic Blessing was conferred on those who made the retreat. The retreat Master was Reverend Christopher Johnson, O.P., of Providence College and one of the former members of the faculty of Salve Regina College.
- 21 It was announced that Miss Janice Santos was awarded a teaching assistantship in the department of Biology at Brown University.
- 22 Palm Sunday. Close of Students' Retreat.
- 23 Students were dismissed for the Easter Holidays a day early since Cornelius C. Moore, Esquire requested that the students and faculty have a day off in his honor. The day was chosen as Tuesday, March 24, 1964 and was called Mr. Moore's Holiday.
- 23 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Rhode Island College Basketball team at the "Hut". Salve Regina was victorious.
- 25 Sister M. Donald and Sister M. Christopher attended the Graduation Exercises of the United States Naval School, Officer, Women, Newport Rhode Island held at Women Students' Quarters, Building 113, U.S. Naval Base. at 10:30 a.m.
- 26 Holy Thursday. High Mass at 5 p.m. Adoration until midnight.
- 27 Good Friday. Adoration until Mass at 3 p.m.
- 28 Holy Saturday. Easter Vigil at 8 p.m.
- 29 Easter Sunday.
- 30-April 1 Sister M. Rosalia, Sister M. Martina, and Sister M. Mercedes attended the National Catholic Educational Association annual meeting in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Sister M. Rosalia also served as Vice-Chairman of the Conference Planning Committee during the Mercy Educational Conference held at this time. This meeting was held in Convention Hall, Atlantic City.
- 30-April 1 Sister M. Olga attended the Tenth Annual Meeting of the National Association of Catholic College Teachers of Sacred Doctrine held in Washington, D.C.
- April
- 1-3 Sister M. Augustine and Sister Mariella attended the Spring meeting of the Council of Member Agencies, Department of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs, National League for Nursing at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Boston.
- 5 Salve Regina Guild held a meeting and a buffet at St. Joseph's Hall. The winning ticket for the Caribbean Cruise (or $2,000) was drawn at the meeting. Dr. Serbst of Newport was the winner.

.... 1964 ....

April

- 6 Students began classes after Easter Recess.
- 7 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Anna Maria of Paxton, Massachusetts. Salve Regina won 45-25.
- 8 The Seventeenth Meeting of the Newport County Institute by and for the teachers of Little Compton, Jamestown, Middletown, Newport, Tiverton and Portsmouth was held at Rogers High School in Newport, Rhode Island. Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, attended the meetings of the Institute and followed Mayor Hambly and Dr. William P. Robinson in greeting the teachers of the Newport County. Sister M. Clarice attended the sectional meeting on Mathematics and a number of the Junior Sister Students attended the various sectional meetings held in the afternoon. Students who had practice teaching attended the educational meetings.
- 9 Salve Regina College Basketball team played Cardinal Cushing College team. Salve Regina was victorious in this final game of the season with the score 55-17. S.R.C. lost only one game of the season.
- 11 Fifteen Faculty members were represented at the sectional meetings of the N.C.E.A. held at Boston College. Sisters M. Andrea, Christopher, Clarice, Eloise, Harold, Ignatius, Jean, Jeremy, Marilyn, Mercedes, Mary ~~Clarice~~ and Wilhelmina, and Dr. Gaudreau, Mr. Kilmer, Mr. Bottari were the representatives while Miss Janice Santos, a Senior in the Biology Field audited the Biology meeting.
- 14 Sister M. Martina, Registrar attended a Counseling Workshop and acted as a consultant. The Workshop was held at St. Xavier's Academy, Providence, R.I. There is to be another held on April 28.
- 14 In connection with Pan American Week currently being observed throughout the country, Colonel Joseph A. Bohnak, of the U.S. Army, addressed the History, Political Science, and Spanish Majors on "Inter-American Relations Today" at 11 a.m. The lecture was arranged by Sister M. Antonine of the History Department.
- 15 The Providence Chapter of the Salve Regina College Alumnae Association held a dinner and a Fashion Show in the Jolly Miller Club of the Old Grist Mill located on Fall River Avenue in Seekonk, Massachusetts. The Fashion Show was held at 7 p.m. and the dinner at 8 p.m. The current Spring Fashions were donated for showing by the courtesy of the Carousel Shop and were modeled by Alumnae. The profits were donated for the College's Building Fund.
- 15 Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted represented Salve Regina College at the Convocation of the Sacred Heart University in honor of the first anniversary of the charter. The University is in Bridgeport, Connecticut.
- 16 Mr. Hugh Kilmer addressed the 48th Anniversary Dinner of the Daughters of Isabella at the King Philip Ballroom, Wrentham, Mass.
- 17-18 Sister M. Andrea and Sister M. Jeremy of the Modern Language Department represented SALVe Regina College at the Modern Language Meetings held at the Sheraton-Park Hotel, Washington, D.C.
- 18 Sister M. Olga was a judge at the Senior High Exhibits shown at the Massachusetts Region III Science Fair held at the Fall River Armory.

April

- 18 Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Augustin~~2~~ attended the Connecticut Chapter Meeting of the Alumnae.
- * 18-19 Freshman Week-end. The Court Cotillion, Freshman Formal Dance took place on Saturday Night from 8:30 -12 p.m. It was followed by a midnight buffet supper at the Hotel Viking. Sunday morning Mass was celebrated at 11 a.m. by Rev. Joseph T. Hughes who was guest speaker at the Communion breakfast which followed at the Cliff Walk Manor.
- 19 Salve Regina Guild Meeting at 3:00 p.m. Miss Claire Horan, B.S. spoke on "The Peace Corps in the Philippines".
- * 18 Sister M. Donald and Sister M. Jean attended the Boston College Writers' Conference held at Boston College from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- 20 The Rhode Island Student Nurses Organization held a Convention at the Nathanael Green Junior High School, Providence, R.I. Miss Maureen McElroy, '65, was elected President and Miss Genevieve Shanahan, '65, was elected second Vice-President of the Organization
- 21 Mr. Hugh Kilmer represented Salve Regina College at a lecture on "The Common Problems of Management, Labor and Government on the International Level" at Bryant College Auditorium, Providence, R.I. at 8 p.m.
- 22 Studen~~t~~ Body Assembly at 3 p.m.
- 22 The Alliance Francaise presented "Athalie" in the Great Hall at 7:30 p.m.
- 23 The Spanish Club held a meeting at 3 p.m. with a guest speaker, Professor Kozoff from Brown University.
- 23 It was announced that Miss Ellen Donnelly, Class of 1965 and member of the Home Economics Department, was the recipient of the honor of a participation in the Army Dietetic Summer Practicum from July 6 to July 30, 1964.
- 24 It was announced that Miss Pauline Henault had won the Alliance Francaise Scholarship for a month's summer study in France. Miss Henault is a member of the Class of 1966 and a major in the French Department.
- 26 Senator John O. Pastore of Rhode Island spoke to the Salve Regina Faculty at 3 p.m. in the State Dining Room. His subject was "The Impact of the Encyclical PACEM IN TERRIS on the National Scene."
- 28 S.M. Martina acted as a Consultant again at a Counseling Workshop held at St. Xavier's Academy in Providence.
- 29 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, and Miss Joan David, Instructor of English and Moderator of the Drama Club, were on the radio station WADK of Newport of the "Open Forum of the Air" between 12:30-1:00 p.m. The main questions asked were those concerning Paul Claudel's "Tidings" to be presented by the Regina Players and the Glee Club on Friday, May 1, at 8 p.m. The play is sponsored by the Fathers' Council and questions were asked about this helpful group who aid the College.

- April
30 .....1964.....
Holy Hour, eve of First Friday. 6:15 p.m.
- May
1 First Friday
Regina Players presented Paul Claudel's "Tidings" at Rogers High School at 8 p.m. The Glee Club also appeared in some of the scenes of the play.
- 1-3 Spring Weekend. Post-Play Party at the M-K Hotel from 10:30-1:00. Midnight Masquerade at Elks Club on Saturday night. Sunday afternoon a Jazz Festival took place at the Castle in Bristol - the close of the Spring Weekend.
- 3 Family Day from 2:30 p.m.-5 p.m. About 150 children with their parents, former students and now Alumnae of Salve Regina, attended. The students of the Child Psychology classes looked after games and refreshments. The families who could not attend sent pictures which were on display.
- 6 The Newport Sisterhood of Temple Shalom toured Salve Regina College at 2:30 p.m. The tour included Ochre Court, McAuley Hall, Angelus Hall and Rosary Hall ending with tea in the State Dining Room.
- 6 At 7:00 p.m. in the Great Hall the induction to Sigma Phi Sigma, Mercy Honor Society took place. Parents and guests of the new members attended the ceremony as well as former members who are now member os the Alumnae. Tea followed in the State Dining Room.
- 7 Foreign students attending Salve Regina College were presented with certificates of recognition by Governor John H. Chafee at formal ceremonies at the Rhode Island School of Design Auditorium. Students from India, Thailand and Central America number ten at present at the College. Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted presented the students to the Governor.
- 7 Ascension Day. No Classes.
- 9 The Sophomore Class sponsored a college-wide picnic from 12 noon until 3 p.m. on the campus adjoining Mercy Hall.
- 10 Mothers' Day.
Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted represented Salve Regina College at the Inauguration of President Gauvey of Roger Williams Junior College held in the First Baptist Church in Providence.
- 13 The May Procession took place at 3 p.m. in the Great Hall. Students were in academic attire except the Sodality who were in white jackets. The Sodalist who crowned was dressed as a bride and her attendants were attired as bridesmaids. Some classes stood at the Balcony upstairs because of the large number of students. However, all could see the crowning which was very impressive.
- 14-15 Art Exhibit on the patio and grounds of Rosary Hall in the afternoon.
- 14 Dr. A. A. Savastano, M.D. showed slide of the Holy Land to the faculty at 6:45 p.m. in the State Dining Room.
- 14 Salve Regina Home Economics Students wererinducted into the American Home Economic Association at the University of Rhode Island by Dean Beverly Downing, President of R.I. Chapter. (Students of Claass of '64)

....1964....

May

- 16 Twenty members of the Modern Painting Class visited the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the Copley Art Gallery in Boston, Mass.
- 15 Sister M. Christopher and Sister Marilyn attended the Annual Meeting of the Catholic Guild at Howard, Rhode Island. Sister M. Christopher gave a talk on the occasion. Father McGovern celebrated the evening Mass.
- 16 About eight members of the Salve Regina Faculty attended Shakespeare Day at Fairfield University, Fairfield, Conn. This Convocation was in honor of the Quadricentennial year of Shakespeare's birth. Sister M. Jean and Sister M. Donald represented the College in the Procession.
- 17 There was an exhibition of Early American Silver from the collection of Cornelius C. Moore, Esquire from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. The exhibit was sponsored by the Salve Regina Alumnae Association. Mr. Moore spoke briefly concerning the collection which is recognized as one of the most outstanding in the United States.
- 17 Sister M. Mercedes and Sister M. <sup>II</sup> Harold accompanied the members of the Salve Regina College Legion of Mary to Mt. St. Rita Convent in Cumberland where Sister M. Mercedes spoke to the Novices and postulants and showed slides and film of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes.
- 18 Faculty Meeting at 4:30 p.m. in the Great Hall. Awards were given to the pioneer Faculty Members and to all those who were at the College for the first graduation class in 1951 and were still on the faculty. Sister M. Hilda who was instrumental in the founding and nurturing of the College as well as being the President was surprised by receiving an award also since she had not included herself in the planning the awards for the other faculty members.
- A buffet supper for the faculty followed the meeting. The buffet took place in the State Dining Room. A Glee Club concert given by the Ladd School Glee Club provided a most interesting and enjoyable finale to the evening.
- * 19 Psychiatric Nursing Integration Meetings took place in the State Dining Room from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The Nursing Faculty and the Faculty in General were invited to attend. The Guest was Miss Margaret Kelleher, State Director of Nursing Education. A buffet luncheon was held at 12.
- 20 Farewell Assembly at Mercy Hall Auditorium at 3 p.m.
- 21 Induction of Senior Class into the Alumnae Association, 5 p.m. Dinner for the Executive Board of the Alumnae and the Class of 1964 at 5:30 p.m. Guest Speaker was Mr. Robert E. Sweeney, President of the Holy Cross College Alumni of Rhode Island.
- * 19 Students of the Class of 1964 who were Foods and Nutrition Majors in the Home Economics Department were introduced at the Spring Meeting of the R.I. Dietetic Association.

..1964..

May
22

Class Day Exercises, formal, at 2 p.m. on the Terrace. Conferring of Academic Hoods on the Seniors by Sister M. Hilda, President of the College. Induction into Honor Societies and conferring of awards followed. The gift of the Class of 1964 was given to Alma Mater. The ceremony of the laying of the cornerstone at Miley Hall followed. The Address of the day was given by the Hon. John J. McNally, Jr. Staff assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson. He topic was: "John Fitzgerald Kennedy, A Rare and Radiant Man".

Reverend Paul Curran, O.P. blessed the cornerstone and Miss Rosemarie Sbona delivered the oration. The actual sealing of the cornerstone was done by Miss Terri Carmody, Class President of the Class of 1964; Miss Ellen Scully, Student Council President; Sister M. Hilda, President of the College; Sister M. Victor, Secretary of the Provincial Council representing Mother Provincial; and Cornelius C. Moore, Esquire, chairman emeritus of the Advisory Board. Placed in the cornerstone were (in a metal box): a copy of the original charter, a current year-book signed by faculty and administration members, a picture of St. Hilda, (the patroness of Sister M. Hilda Miley after whom the Hall is named), medals of Our Lady, St. Joseph, a Sacred Heart Badge, the Providence Visitor of the Day, Newport News of the Day, and coins (Kennedy half-dollar etc.).

*

23 Sister M. Mercedes and Sister M. Corona represented Salve Regina College at the Commencement of Catholic Teachers College.

24 Salve Regina College Guild sponsored the annual reception and tea for the graduates of the Class of 1964.

20-29 Undergraduate Examinations.

25 Day of Recollection for the Class of 1964. Rev. Joseph B. Coleman conducted the exercises.

26 Faculty Seminar at 4 p.m. Dr. Servino, a psychiatrist spoke on the Encyclicals of Pope John XXIII from the psychiatrists' viewpoint.

26-27 Rehearsals for Commencement.

28 Sister M. Augustine and Sister Marilyn attended a meeting of the Rhode Island League for Nursing held at the Country Club in Lincoln, Rhode Island.

30 Commencement Ball, Ochre Court at 9 p.m.

31 Baccalaureate Mass at St. Mary's Church at 4:30 p.m.
Dinner for Parents and graduates at Shamrock Cliff Hotel at 6 p.m.
Faculty attended the presentation of awards following the dinner.

June
1

Commencement. Due to threatening showers the exercises were held at Rogers High School. The Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, D.D. presided. The speaker, Dr. William H. Conley, President of the Sacred Heart University, Bridgeport, Connecticut, spoke on "The Totally New Problem Posed by the Scientific and Technological Change and Population Growth". The Mother Provincial and her Council, the Cont over

May 23-June 3

S.M. Emily and S.M. Rosalia attended Meetings for Religious Personnel held at the General Motherhouse.

June

Governor of Rhode Island, Senators and Representatives from the State of Rhode Island, a Representative of the Mayor of Newport, distinguished educators and Monsignori marched in procession with the administration and faculty. Very Reverend Vincent C. Dore, O.P., President of Providence College, and Dr. John F. Quinn, Vice-President of Student Affairs at the University of Rhode Island, were the recipients of Honorary Degrees.

- 5-7 Alumnae Weekend. This was open to wives and husbands also. There was a buffet-dinner-dance on Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. and a Communion Brunch on Sunday after the 11 a.m. Mass in the College Chapel. Rev. Irving A. Georges, O.P., former Chaplain, offered the Mass and addressed the Alumnae and guests on "The Catholic Woman in An Existential World". The annual Alumnae Meeting followed the brunch.
- 10 Scene Two of Act Two, "The Fountain of Adoue" from the play "Tidings" that was presented on May 1, 1964 by the Regina Players was shown on Television station WTEV-TV (Channel 6), Television Center, New Bedford. The program was shown on that Channel at 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
- 15-17 Sister M. Martina, Registrar, and Sister M. Donald, Dean of Women, attended an Institute on Critical Issues in Higher Education at Boston College. This Institute was held for Faculty, Admissions Officers, Deans and Presidents.
- 15 Miss Maureen McElroy, Class of 1965, was elected to the office of National Treasurer of the Student Nurses Association at its national convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey.
- 18-27 The faculty of Salve Regina College and Sisters of the Convents in Newport and Providence area made their annual retreat under the direction of Rev. Eugene C. Brissette, S.J.
- 19-26 Sister M. Augustine, Sister Marilyn, S.M. Rosarita, S. Mariella, the Misses Helen Maloof, Lois Prosser, Elizabeth Clanton and Mrs. Graziano attended a Nurses' Workshop held at Smuggler's Notch in Stowe, Vt. This was sponsored by the New England Board of Higher Education and the Traineeship came from the Federal Government.
- *
**
29 Summer School at Salve Regina College opened with an enrollment of teachers of thirty Sisters and twenty-six lay students. A Workshop for the Mentally Retarded students was one of the many courses offered and was especially in demand.
- 29 Queen Hall opened for the annual Institute of Spirituality. Sister Jeanne Marie Reynolds, R.S.M. was superior; Sister M. Joachim Giannini, R.S.M. was Mistress; Sister M. Imelda Nee, R.S.M., was portress. Reverend Edward R. Callahan, S.J., Reverend Francis A. Sullivan, S.J., and Reverend Frederick Moriarty, S.J. were in charge of instruction each taking a period of several weeks. The Institute closed on August 10, 1964.
- * 20 It was announced today that Miss Nancy A. Lally, Class of 1961, Salve Regina College, was granted a traineeship at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. to do graduate work toward a Master's degree in medical nutrition during 1964-1965.
- ** 22-26 Miss Susan Sparks, Class of 1966, attended the American Home Economics Association national convention in Detroit, Michigan as a delegate of S.R.C. Home Economics Club of which she is secretary.

...1964...

July
8

Students and faculty members of Salve Regina College's summer session visited Touro Synagogue in Newport. When students in the Theology Courses were studying the Old Testament it was decided that a visit to Touro Synagogue would be appropriate. The trip was arranged by Mrs. George B. Gold, a part-time student at the College, with the cooperation of Reverend Rabbi Theodore Lewis who was host to the group which grew in size until it included almost all the summer session students and faculty, so great was the interest in the project. This was the second annual visit by Salve Regina summer session students and faculty to Touro Synagogue, the fine example of ecumenism in action in Newport having been begun last year.

- 13-18 Sister M. Joannes attended a Workshop on Work Simplification and Personnel Development held Pratt Institute, New York.
- 15 There was a Workshop field trip for the Special Education Workshop to the Destroyer Tender USS Cascade through the courtesy of ship's Captain Moriarty whose wife was a speech therapist at the Workshop.
- 14 The Ladd School Choir Group entertained the Special Education Workshop for Mentally Retarded.
- 18 It was announced that Mother M. Hilda, R.S.M., President of Salve Regina College, would be President Emeritus, and that Sister M. Emily, R.S.M., Superior, would take up the duties of the President on July 27, 1964. Sister M. Petronilla was appointed Superior and Treasurer, Sister M. Dionysia was appointed Registrar and Sister M. Audrey was assigned to the College as Dean of Admissions. Sister M. Martina will continue as Head of the History Department. Sister Ralph Mary was assigned to the Medical Technology Department, Sister Marie Susanne to the Education and Guidance Department, and Sister M. Columcille to the Theology Department. Sister M. Ferrer, R.S.M., from Chicago will join the Mathematics Department.

New Members of the lay faculty include Dr. Heriberto Vazquez of Miami who will join the Spanish Department, Reverend John Ditto, O.P. who will replace Rev. John Egan, O.P. in the Theology and Philosophy Departments, and, in the Nursing Division, Miss Lucille Sullivan in Public Health, Miss Margaret Krikorian in Pediatrics, Miss Sharon Hirst who will assist in Medical-Surgical Nursing, and Mrs. Arlette Hopkins who will teach French.

- 22 Special Education Workshop made a field trip to the Ladd School at Exeter. They visited the John Fogarty Medical Center also and capped their visit with a stop at the orthopedic center.
- 25 The Special Education Workshop visited the Day Camp operated by Mr. and Mrs. Oakley. While there Mr. Kerr, who is the councilor of the camp, announced that the children had been invited to Hammersmith Farm by Mrs. Auchincloss. Brother Bernard of De La Salle, who kindly brought the Sisters for the visit, was invited by Mr. Kerr to come along and bring the Sisters. All spent a pleasant hour and a half at the farm, the children riding ponies, playing with dogs, Venitia and Pug, two playful bull dogs, as well as the French poodle, Charley, who delighted the children and Sisters. Coke and cookies were served. The Sisters were delighted to meet Mrs. Auchincloss who asked many intelligent and interesting questions about mentally handicapped children.

July
27

Sister M. Arsenia departed for India. Sister M. Rosalia and Sister M. Augustine met Sister and Sister Anne Maria, S.A.B.S. in New York and also met their two companions who were returning to India with them. They treated them to luncheon and gave them a short trip to the World's Fair where they saw the Vatican Pavillion and the Indian Pavillion. At the latter they enjoyed dinner. From there they hurried to the Kennedy airport for the Sister's plane which would take them to India.

27 Rev. Francis A. Sullivan gave a lecture to the Sisters on the place of charity in the Religious Life.

30 Terrace Luncheon in place of supper in the cafeteria was a highlight of the day. Grilled hamburgers, hotdogs, Eskimo pies, coffee and cold lemonade were on the menu which was enjoyed by all. After this Sister M. Harrold showed the picture, "The Makings of a President". Sister M. Emily announced that the Alumnae planned to present flowers at the Kennedy grave in Washington in the name of the College.

Kathy Connerton, Class of 1964, is going to have Carolyn<sup>put</sup> Kennedy in her group at Bailey's Beach for swimming and tennis.

August
2

Tea was served for the Sisters who would graduate on Thursday and for their relatives and friends. There was a program of music prepared for the entertainment of the guests.

Mr. Graber's house was leased for the year for the overflow of resident students until the completion of Miley.

Negotiations are going on concerning the purchase of the Althorp House for residence of students.

6 The fourth annual commencement of Sisters at Salve Regina College took place on the Terrace. Fourteen Sisters received their degrees of Bachelor of Arts. Mr. Charles A. O'Connor, Jr., Superintendent of Schools of Providence and former Superintendent of Schools in Newport, received an honorary degree of Doctor of Education. This recognition was accorded to Superintendent O'Connor because of his great interest in Catholic Education and his great contributions to public education in the State of Rhode Island as well as his cooperation over the years with Salve Regina College. The dean, Sister M. Rosalia, presented the candidates for degrees while Sister M. Emily, the College President, conferred the degrees. Greetings from Rhode Island Department of Education and Statements of Eligibility for teaching were presented by Dr. William P. Robinson, Jr., Rhode Island Commissioner of Education. Very Reverend Dom Aelred Graham, O.S.B., Prior of The Priory of St. Gregory the Great, Portsmouth, R.I. was the Commencement Speaker. The exercises began at 3 p.m.

12 Salve Regina was one of twenty-five colleges and universities (Catholic) represented in the educational sector of those participating in the study of how United States can win the Cold War without nuclear war which has been made by the civilian National Strategy Committee of the American Security Council and released today under the title Guidelines For Cold War Victory. In addition to the 28-member National Strategy Committee, 102 cooperating organizations representing a wide range of interests, and 128 colleges and universities participated in the study. Professors in two major universities and one college, however, have already informed The American Security Council that they will use Guidelines as a text beginning this fall.

August

12

27
-30

Sister M. Mercedes of Salve Regina College represented the Diocesan Sisters and Brothers Committee in the Interdiocesan Council of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Congress in Springfield, Mass.

28

The publication of Salve Regina College's purchase of the Althorp House on Ruggles Avenue was in the local and Providence papers on this date. The House will be used as a Residence Hall until the completion of Miley Hall.

28-30

Sister M. Christopher and Sister M. Norbert attended meetings of the American Catholic Sociological Association held in Montreal at the Hotel Windsor. Sister M. Christopher read a paper on "The Impact of Social Structure on Role Conflict". Sister M. Norbert discussed the section on Religious Women. The Theme of the meeting for this year was "The Sociology of the Church."

September

1-3

Sister M. Christopher and Sister M. Norbert attended the meetings of the American Sociological Association held at the Sheraton-Mt. Royal in Montreal.

5
-7

Salve Regina College was host to the Catholic School Principals' Conference of the Diocese of Providence. Sister M. Emily, President of the College, extended the greetings of the College to about 125 participants at the opening meeting on September 5, at 10 a.m. The conference was under the sponsorship of the Very Reverend Monsignor Arthur T. Geoghegan, Superintendent of the Diocesan Schools. Sister M. Nona, O.P., President of Edgewood College of the Sacred Heart, Madison, Wisconsin conducted the week end sessions. The theme of the Conference was, "How Catholic is Our Teaching?"

7

Seventy-two Senior Salve Regina Students returned to the Campus. These Seniors were the student teachers of the Class of 1965. They returned early in order to report at special meeting on September 8, 1964 in Rogers High where they were addressed by the new superintendent of schools of Newport, Joseph Devine. Mrs. Eleanor McMahon, college supervisor of student teachers in elementary schools, and Mr. George McKim, college supervisor of student teachers in secondary schools also attended the meeting.

8

Two more Sisters from India arrived to become Sister Students in the Freshman Class. They are Sister Catechists of St. Anne.

9

Salve Regina College Division of Nursing held a meeting of Representative of Public Health Nursing Agencies with Representatives of Salve Regina College Division of Nursing Faculty from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the State Dining Room.

September

10

The annual Faculty Conference took place with registration and coffee at 9:30 a.m. and the general session at 10 a.m. in the Drawing Room. New members were introduced to the group. Several not mentioned before were Miss Mary A. McCarthy and Miss Mary Zavada of the English Department. A buffet luncheon was held in the State Dining Room at noon. The afternoon session consisted of divisional and departmental meetings and these were followed by a coffee hour at 3:45 p.m.

Dr. Manuel Nunez de Cela, a member of St. George's Faculty, Middletown, will be a part-time member of the French Department.

13

Arrival of Freshmen Resident Students.

13-18

Freshman Orientation Week

14

Assembly for Resident and Day Students at 9:30 a.m. S.M. Emily, President, welcomed them at Mercy Hall. Placement tests were scheduled for different days of orientation week.

15

The Brothers Karamazov - Preliminary Discussion at 7 p.m.

15

"This is Newport" - Assembly for Resident Freshmen at 7 p.m.
Resident

17

Junior and Sophomore/ students arrive.

18

Registration for Upperclassmen at Mercy Hall.
Photos for I.D. Cards for Freshmen in Green Room.

19

Invitation Picnic - Providence College- held at Lincoln Woods

* 21

Mass of the Holy Ghost
First meeting of classes.
Executive Board Meeting of Fathers Council in State Dining Room

22

Meeting of Department Heads at 2 p.m. in Dining Room.

*

21

Record Enrollment: 750 students with 250 Freshmen, 166 Sophomores, 126 Juniors, 172 Seniors and 36 Special Students. There are 13 states represented and 7 foreign countries.

24

Mercy Day

24-25 See next page, please.

25

Honors Convocation took place in the Great Hall (because of threatening showers the terrace could not be used). Dr. Paul van K. Thomson addressed the assembly on "Excellence on the Catholic Campus". Sister M. Emily, President, awarded the honor students and presided. Monsignor James V. Greene gave the Invocation and a brief message to the group. Mother M. Helena, Mother Provincial, presented Mrs. Kieran Farrelly with the Regina Medal. Mrs. Farrelly, a charter member of the Salve Regina Guild, is currently treasurer of that organization and has served as vice-president. Sister M. Augustine, director of Nurses, presented caps to the Sophomore Student Nurses.

28

A conference of the cooperating teachers of the Salve Regina student teaching program at Ochs Court was held in the Drawing Room to discuss the plans for the 1964-1965 school year. The elementary school teachers met at 2 p.m. Sister M. Ferrer addressed the elementary teachers on her experience as an educational television teacher of modern mathematics. The secondary school teachers met at 3 p.m. Sister M. Emily, President, welcomed both groups. A social hour followed the meetings.

September

24-25 Sister M. Harold, R.S.M. of the Salve Regina History Department attended a meeting of the Rhode Island Association and Curriculum Development of the R.I. Department of Education held at the University of Rhode Island.

28

Adult Education Courses began. Eight courses were offered for the first semester.

30

Dr. Erik van Kuehnelt-Leddihn gave a series of three lectures: the first, "The Future of Democracy in Europe" at 10 a.m.; the second, "Political Problems of Asia" at 11 a.m.; and the third, "Neo-Conservatism and Neo-Liberalism" at 3 p.m.

30

At a meeting of the Alumnae Executive Board at 6 p.m. in the State Dining Room Sister M. Hilda, President Emerita of Salve Regina College, was presented with a plaque honoring her for her long range planning for the college and for her never failing interest in all its undertakings. The plaque is to be hung in Miley Hall when the new building is opened.

*
October

1

A Holy Hour for the eve of the first Friday was held at 6:15 p.m.

Shady Lawn and Founders' Hall were blessed by the chaplain, Rev. John Dittoe, O.P.

3

Salve Regina Guild Bridge

3-4

Sister Marilyn and Sister M. Rosarita represented Salve Regina College at a Psychiatric and Mental Health Meeting of Nursing Consultants held at the Park Sheraton Hotel, Manhattan, N.Y.

4

Pilgrimage of faculty members and students representing Salve Regina College at Mt. St. Rita, Cumberland Fatima Pilgrimage.

4

An architect group from Boston, Massachusetts toured the college under the guidance of Sister M. Mercedes, R.S.M.

6

Papal Volunteers for Latin America Day on Salve Regina Campus. At 11 a.m. Reverend John J. Sullivan, national director of the Extension Volunteers Program, with headquarters in Chicago, and Reverend Henry J. Shelton, of Lincoln, R.I., director of the lay missionary program in the diocese of Providence, conducted a joint meeting to inform students of the needs and opportunities for service in the mission fields.

7-8

Sister Mariella, Mrs. Catherine Graziano, and Miss Margaret Krikorian attended the conference on Obstetric, Gynecologic and Neonatal Nursing held at the Providence Lying-in Hospital.

7

Miss Cecelia Chou Wing Wang, winner of the President Kennedy Memorial Scholarship for a foreign student, arrived at the college.

7

Sister M. Emily, President of Salve Regina College, and Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, attended a meeting of the Rhode Island Commission for Higher Education Facilities held in the Industrial National Bank, Providence, R.I.

* Sept. 30 *

Rev. David J. Coffey, Diocesan Director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, was guest speaker at the CCD Rally at Mercy Hall and spoke on the meaning of the Confraternity.

...1964...

October

- 7 Sister M. Martina, Sister M. Audrey, and Sister M. Augustine attended the Provincial Advisory Board Meeting for the Educational Conference of the Province.
- 9-13 Long Week end. Columbus Day Holiday.
- 13 Sister M. Augustine represented Salve Regina College at the dedication of the Nursing Arts Building at Rhode Island Hospital.
- 14 Sister M. Augustine represented Salve Regina College at the dedication of the Fogarty Center, University of Rhode Island.
- 14 Miss Agnes Sullivan, R.N., school nurse for the Newport School Department, spoke to the Salve Regina College elementary and secondary school student teachers at 4 p.m. in Angelus Hall.
- 14-15 Sister M. Augustine, Sister Marilyn, Sister Mariella, Miss Sullivan, Miss Prosser, Mrs. Graziano, Miss Krikorian, and Miss Maloof attended the Rhode Island League of Nursing Association Annual Convention held at the Colony Motor Hotel.
- 15-16 Performance of Hamlet at Bayview by the Catholic University Players.
- 16-18 Sister M. Mercedes and Sister M. Martha represented Salve Regina College at the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine New England Regionall Meeting held at St. Anselm's College, New Hampshire. Ten student delegates also attended.
- 17 Sister M. Harold represented Salve Regina College at the New England Area History Conference held at Regis College, Weston, Massachusetts.
- 17-18 Fall Weekend. Dance at Shamrock Cliff from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.
Sunday "The Buffer'n Blast" from 2 - 4 p.m. at The Castle, Bristol, R.I.
- 20 Mr. Leo Bottari, biology instructor at Salve Regina College, accompanied nine members of the newly formed biology club to Providence College where they attended a lecture on "The Mechanisms Controlling Sexual Receptivity and Oocyte Development in Cockroaches" given by Louis M. Roth, head of the Entomology Laboratory of the U.S. Army Natick (Massachusetts) Laboratories.
- 21 Art Workshop for student teachers arranged by Mrs. Eleanor McMahon through Milton Bradley Company. The workshop was held at Mercy Hall at 1 p.m.
- 21 Shakespearean Lecture in the Great Hall given by Sister M. Catherine from the College of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, New Jersey. The lecture was given at 3 p.m.
- 21 Sister M. Emily, President, and Sister M. Rosalia, Dean, attended the first Convocation of Rhode Island Junior College held at Veteran's Auditorium, Providence, R.I. at 10:30 a.m.
- 22 Sister M. Christopher spoke at a meeting of the Family Service Society held at Honeyman Hall, Mill st., Newport at 3 p.m. Her topic was Family Service in Newport.

Father-Daughter Weekend. Fathers attended classes with daughters on Saturday morning after registration and coffee hour at Ochre Court. A meeting of the Fathers' Council was held on Saturday afternoon at Mercy Hall. Following the meeting was a one act play, "The Clown Who Ran Away" at Mercy Hall. The fathers could chose to attend the latter or go on the tour of Newport on the bus hired for the occasion. Tours of the campus were also conducted. Dinner was served at Shamrock Cliff, the Viking, and Cliff Walk Manor for the fathers and daughters of the different classes. The dance was held at Ochre Court and commenced at 8:30 p.m.

On Sunday the Holy Mass was celebrated at the auditorium of De La Salle for the fathers and daughters and the breakfast was served at the CliffWalk Manor. The Mass was celebrated by Rev. John Dittoe, O.P., Chaplain. About 250 father-daughter couples attended.

- 25 Salve Regina College Guild held their annual day of recollection. Rev. Christopher Johnson, O.P., was master of ceremonies. The Holy Hour was held at 2:30 p.m.

It was announced that the Fathers' Council contributed $1,000 to the Kennedy Memorial Scholarship for a foreign student as the fund had not been completed.

The reception of a check of $500 from the Manice and Goellet family was also announced. This check will go toward the beginning of a chapel fund.

- 26-27 Sister M. Ferrer, R.S.M., Head of the Mathematics Department, and Mrs. Eleanor McMahon, the College's Director of Elementary Teacher Education, attended a regional conference sponsored by the national Committee on the Undergraduate Program in Mathematics. (CUPM). The meeting was held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Hartford, Connecticut.
- 26 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean of Studies, spoke on requirements for admission at Salve Regina College at the Academy of the Resurrection, Rye, N.Y. and the School of the Holy Child, Rye, N.Y.
- 28 Sister M. Rosalia, Dean of Studies, and Sister M. Audrey, Dean of Admissions represented Salve Regina College at the C.E.E.B. meeting held at the Hotel Commodore, N.Y.
- 29 Mr. Arthur Maynard gave a lecture and Space Demonstration at Mercy Hall Auditorium at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. This demonstration was given through the courtesy of N.A.S.A. (National Aeronautics and Space Administration - a branch of National Gov. since 1958).
- 29 Freshman Halloween Party in Lounge at Ochre Court.
- 29-30 Student Teachers Institute. Because of the Institute, Senior Student Teachers had no classes on campus.
- 30 Halloween

At some time during the month, Sister Mary Christopher spoke to the St. Joseph's Hospital Nursing School Faculty and Nursing Staff on "The Hospital as a Social Interaction System".

November

- 1 Feast of All Saints.
- 2 Feast of All Souls - Three Masses
- 2 Sister Mary Rosalia, Dean of Salve Regina College, attended meeting of St. Mary's Parish Guild, at Garretson Memorial Building, Newport, R.I. She presented a talk to parents entitled "Salve Regina College and Newport."
- 3 Sister Mary Emily, President of Salve Regina College, had a conference with Mr. Galehouse and Mr. Dawson of Sasaki & Walker Co. who presented the drawings of plans for the future development of the college.
- 3 Commander Eleanor J. Sowers, Officer in charge of U. S. Naval Women Officers School, spoke to approximately 60 students on the advantages available in the Navy for language majors and minors. Commander Sowers spoke to Spanish and French Classes.
- 4-6 Sister Mary Dionysia, Registrar, and Sister Mary Audrey, Dean of Admissions, attended 17th Annual Conference of the New England Association of Collegiate Registrars & Admissions Officers at Schine Inn, Chicopee, Mass.
- 6 Sophomore Class of S.R.C. held Inter-Collegiate Mixer at Mercy Hall at 8:00 p.m. Sophomore, Junior and Senior college men from Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts were invited to attend. Music, dancing and refreshments were provided.
- 6 Sister Mary Emily went to Boston today. Examined bookstores.
- 6 Holy Hour began at 4:45 today.
- 7 The Salve Regina faculty of 40 today was taken on a tour of the city for the first time since the college was established in 1947. The Sisters were guests of the Hotel Viking management which engaged George Oakley's Viking Tours for the occasion. The afternoon schedule included a visit to "The Breakers" and a tour of the Ocean Drive, with a stop at "Belcourt Castle" for tea. Later they visited The Elms and the Point section for a view of Colonial homes. A stop at the Colony House also was scheduled before the return to the college.
- 9 Miss Julie Carlson, an English teacher at Cranston-Calvert School center for the gifted, spoke on "The Teaching of Creative Writing" at the education seminar at Salve Regina College today. Miss Carlson is a 1958 Graduate of the college.
- 9 The Newport County Council, Navy League, today announced that scholarships have been donated by colleges and schools through its efforts on behalf of children of those lost aboard nuclear submarine Thresher, April 10, 1963. Dr. I. George Schaffer, president of Newport Council, made known the donations by colleges and schools. S.R.C. is one of the colleges. A plaque is to be presented to the college.

November

- 9-14 Sister Mary Emily went to Washington this week. Sister Mary Rosalia, Dean, accompanied her. They attended the Sister Foundation Workshop at Mercy Generalate in Bethesda, Maryland, sponsored by M. Regina Cunningham, Mother General of the Sisters of Mercy Union. 80 Sisters from all parts of the United States were present.

- 11 123rd Anniversary of the death of Foundress Mother Mary Catherine McAuley marked by commemorative program at Salve Regina College.

- 11 The regular holiday was postponed until November 13th.

- 11 Dr. Brasted, Public Relations Director of Salve Regina College spoke today at the "College Day" in Worcester, Mass.

- 12,13
& 14 The Northeastern Interstate Conference of nursing students, sponsored by the Student Nurses Association of Rhode Island, was held on the campus of Salve Regina College. Sixty-three representatives from fourteen states, from Maine to West Virginia, will meet at St. Joseph's Hospital in Providence for a coffee hour and will then be transported by bus to Salve Regina College. Friday the group was welcomed by Sister Mary Augustine, R.S.M., Director of the College's Nursing Division, and will also have heard greetings from the Rhode Island State Nurses Association and the Rhode Island League for Nursing. The Luncheon speaker was the Honorable John E. Fogarty, Congressman from Rhode Island. Friday afternoon and all day Saturday were general business meeting, state group conferences, interstate exchange of ideas, and an advisers' conference--both on the Salve Regina College campus and at the Newport Hospital. The advisers and observers from the seven schools of nursing in Rhode Island plus future nurse organizations of the State brought the total attending the conference to nearly 100. Miss Maureen McElroy, S.R.C. Class of 1965, of 145 Front Street, Lincoln, R.I., President of the Student Nurses Association of R.I., and treasurer of the national organization, was chairman. Miss Joan Gleckel, S.R.C. Class of 1965 of 630 Stuart Ave., Mamaroneck, N.Y., were the SNARI delegates from Salve Regina. The Newport Hospital School of Nursing was represented by Miss Marilyn Thompson. Mother Hilda attended the luncheon by invitation of Miss Gleckel.

- 12 College Night Program at Rogers High School, Newport, R.I. Dr. Brasted represented Salve Regina College.

- 14 A dinner was held in the Viking Hotel by the Navy League to honor schools and colleges that offered scholarships to the orphans of the Thresher. Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Martina represented Salve Regina College. Dr. Brasted accepted plaques for those school officials who were not present at the dinner.

November

- 15 The Newport Teachers held a tea to honor Dr. Charles O'Connor, former Superintendent of Schools in Newport, at Viking Hotel. Salve Regina was represented by Sister Mary Emily, Sister Mary Hilda and Sister Mary Martina.
- 16 An exhibition of International Sterling Silver was held in the State Dining Room under sponsorship of Home Economics Dept. The purpose was to determine the designs most attractive to the student body.
- 17 Salve Regina College Fathers Council - Area 2 - held meeting in Dr. Brasted's office.
- 17 College Night - East Providence High School - Recruiting Dr. Brasted attended as Salve Regina representative.
- 18 Father Behan gave a talk to Sisters on the liturgy in the evening.
- 18 Sister Mary Augustine and Sister Mary Audrey attended a meeting in Doctor Pontarelli's office in Providence concerning State Nursing Scholarships.
- 18 Miss Browne of Rhode Island School of Design gave an illustrated lecture on American art in the Drawing Room at 4 p.m.
- 19 Salve Regina Fathers Council (Area 4) held an informal get-acquainted meeting and dinner at Woodland Country Club, Washington Street (Route 16), West Newton, Mass. Dr. and Mrs. Brasted were guests. Dr. Brasted spoke on the Progress and Plans of Salve Regina College and explained the functions of the Fathers Council. An open discussion followed.
- 19 Mother Hilda's Feast Day. She received many cards of congratulations and flowers. There were five Masses said for her today.
- 21 Peace Corp placement tests - Angelus Hall - 9 a.m.
- 21 Society of Catholic College Teachers of Sacred Doctrine, New England Region, held meeting at Stuart House, Newton College of Sacred Heart, Newton, Massachusetts. Sister Mary Olga and Sister Mary Columcille attended.
- 21 November Nocturne - Sophomore Dance, Great Hall, Ochre Court 8:30 to midnight. Joseph Conte Orchestra. Silver charm souvenirs. Buffet supper at Cliff Walk Manor.
- 22 Francis X. A. Flannery, a member of the Advisory Board of Salve Regina College presented a Kennedy memorial address at the college during a ceremony honoring the late President. Before the address, students attended mass on campus. The ceremony was highlighted by the exhibition of a portrait of

November

- 22 the late President, painted by Anthony E. DeCotis of Newport. It was displayed in the Great Hall of Ochre Court. Sister Mary Emily, president of the college, introduced the speaker after whose address taps were played by Larry Sawtelle of the Rogers High School band.
- 22 Salve Regina Guild Meeting
- 22 Salve Regina College Fathers Meeting (Area 3) 7:00 p.m. at Mt. St. Mary's Academy, 1017 Middle Street, Fall River, Massachusetts.
- 23-25 Forty Hours
- 23 A meeting concerning funds from the Harris Foundation was held in the President's Office. Professor Ekstrom, formerly of Brown University, represented the Foundation, which distributes funds for vocational, technical, and home-making instruction. Dr. Brasted and Sister Mary Joannes were present.
- 24 Salve Regina College Fathers Council, Area 1, met at Ochre Court.
- 25 Thanksgiving Vacation
- 26 Thanksgiving
- 26-28 Fifth Annual Business Education Conference of the Eastern Business Education Association was held. Sister M. Othilda, R.S.M., of Salve Regina Colleges Economics Department is Chairman of the Economics Section which met on November 27th. Principal speaker was Dr. Mary Ellen Oliverio, Chairman, Department of Business Education, Columbia University.
- 27-28 New England Conference on Educational Research was held at Rhode Island College. Dr. Brasted represented Salve Regina College. Conference was analysis of what is being done and what needs to be done in the field of educational research and analysis of operations of co-operative research program of U.S. Office of Education.
- 28 Mercy Educational Conference
- 29 First Sunday in Advent
- 30 Home Economics Club held its annual Christmas party in the Home Economics Laboratory at Mercy Hall from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

December

- 1 Fathers Council, Area I, meeting held at Tiverton, R.I.
- 2 Sister Mary Christopher of Sociology Department at Salve Regina College addressed faculties of all Rhode Island Schools of Practical Nursing at a meeting held at Our Lady of Fatima Hospital, Providence, R.I. * over
- 3 College Business Symposium, Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, Providence, R.I. Faculty members from Salve Regina College that attended meeting were Sister M. Ferrer, Department of Mathematics; Sister M. Donald, Dean of Women; Sister M. Othilda, Department of Economics and Sister M. Wilhelmina, Department of History.
- 4 Sister Mary Emily, President, and Sister Mary Audrey, Dean of Admissions, attended the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools Meeting held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Boston. It was the 79th Annual Meeting of the Association.
- 5 Sister Mary Eloise, R.S.M., Sister Mary Donald, R.S.M. and Rev. John Dittoe attended The National Catholic Educational Association, New England Unit, College and University Department meeting, representing Salve Regina College, held at Emmanuel College, Boston, Massachusetts.
- 6 Student Council Tea to honor Faculty - Dining Room 3:00 p.m.
- 7 Economics Seminar - Providence College and Salve Regina College participated. Topic was "Medicare" Seminar was conducted at Ochre Court at 7:00 p.m. Guest speaker was the Rev. Charles B. Quirk, O.P. of Department of Economics, Providence College and Sister Mary Othilda, R.S.M. of Economics Department of Salve Regina represented the college.
- 8 Feast of Immaculate Conception - Holy Day - No classes.
- 9 Sister Mary Christopher, R.S.M. of Sociology Department of Salve Regina College conducted staff conference on team nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital, Providence, R.I. Topic- "Institutional Roles and the Necessity of Communication".
- 9 Regina Maris Sodality Christmas Party was held at Mercy Hall for 30 Newport children who were guests. A play entitled, "The Clown Who Ran Away", by Conrad Seigler and directed by Miss Joan David was presented.
- 19 Meeting for the Interracial Project for Newport was held at the College at 8:00 p.m. Sister Mary Christopher was hostess to the group.
- 10 Meeting of American Association of University Women (AAUW) was held at Ochre Court at 7:00 p.m. The Christmas program included the Navy Choristers.

Special Note

December

- 2 Monsignor Clark, Vicar General of the diocese and member of the Advisory Board of Salve Regina College died this date.

- 2 Sister Mary Christopher's subject was "The Student Interview as a Counseling Tool".

December

- 11 Mr. Edward Denning of Kurtz and Denning architecture firm visited the college and inspected the buildings.
- 12 Day of Recollection sponsored by Sodality - Father Coleman
- 12 Foundation Day of Sisters of Mercy - 133 years
- 13 A Christmas Program and Concert was presented at the college by the Glee Club and Dramatics Club at 3:00 p.m. at Ochre Court. The Queen's Choristers sang and the Regina Players presented a Nativity Mystery Play. The public was invited.
- 15 French Club presented "Buche de Noel" at Ochre Court.
- 17 Holly Dinner, Candlelight Ceremony and Procession to Crib was held this day for the faculty. The dinner was served at 5:30 p.m. in the State Dining Room.
- 18 Meeting of Sasaki & Walker Associates was held to finalize the campus study that they have been doing.
- 18 Christmas vacation starts.
- 20 Mr. Moore notified the college that Mr. Forsythe Wickes died about 3:00 p.m.
- 21 Administration Meeting in President's Office
- 25 Christmas
- 26-28 Sister Mary Jean and Sister Mary Laslo attended the meeting of the M. L. A. in New York City.
- 28-30 The faculty of Salve Regina and the Sisters from convents in Newport made their annual three day retreat under the direction of Rev. Robert Ferrick, S.J. of Boston College.

January

- 1 New Years
- 2 A check for $500.00 received from the Marquis George MacDonald Foundation.
- 4 Classes resumed
- 5 Dr. Brasted represented Salve Regina College at the Inauguration of Governor Chaffee in Providence.
- 5 Sister Mary Anthony of Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny showed slides of various missions of her community to the Mission Club in Room C at 7:00 p.m.
- 6 Faculty Meeting was canceled because of the death of Sister M. Mercedes sister. Faculty attended wake.

January

- 9 Snow Ball Dance at Hotel Viking

- 12-14 Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Kieran attended meetings of the Association of American Colleges, in St. Louis, Missouri

- 18-19 Reading Days for students

- 19 Visitors from College of Sacred Heart, Newton, to see Miley Hall, in view of their own construction plans.

- Dr. Bowes (State of R.I.) requested use of SRC auditorium for a June meeting involving 400 people. Could not be granted because of lack of space.

- Dormitory students given tour of Miley Hall.

- 20-27 Final Examinations of semester.

- 21 Reception, 3-5 P.M., Miley Hall, for Mr. McKim, upon his retirement from Education Dept. (postponed from 17th because of snowstorm).

- 25-26 Sister Mary Audrey and Sister Mary Dionysia attended Regional Meeting for Member Colleges of College Entrance Examination Board, Tufts University, Medford, Mass.

- 27 2 P.M. Semester break commenced. Registration for second semester on February 3.

- 29-31 Sister Mary Emily attended 8th New England Regional Meeting, Sister Formation Conference, St. Joseph Scholasticate, Fontbonne Hall, Framingham, Mass.

- 29 SRC submitted application for a Federal grant for the Science-Academic Building

- 30 Check received from Mr. Goelet ($10,000) to implement the program for Mentally Retarded Children.

- Tour of Miley Hall for Sisters.

- 29-30 Sister Mary Christopher, of the Department of Sociology, and Sister Mary Rosina, of the Department of Music, attended a Regional Meeting of the Religious Research Association, held at the Interfaith Center and at Union Theological Seminary, in New York City.

February

- 3      Classes resume; opening of Second Semester.
Girls took up residence officially in Miley Hall. Dining-room not yet ready for use.

Lecture at 8:00 p.m. at Rogers High School Auditorium, by Baroness Maria von Trapp, on the story of her family which is the basis for "The Sound of Music".
Reception following at Ochre Court for those attending the lecture.
4.      Presentation of Mercy Nursing Cap to Freshmen Nursing Majors, 3:00 p.m., Ochre Court.
- 6      Dr. C. R. Adams (Committee to Aid Higher Education) visited the college and inspected the site of the proposed academic building.
- 8      Opening classes this week of Adult Education Program at SRC.
Monday class is: Art Education, taught by S. M. Mercedes, RSM
- 9      Tuesday class is: History, taught by S. M. Harold, R. S. M.
- 10      Wednesday classes are: Modern Mathematics, taught by S. M. Ferrer, R. S. M.; and History of Art, taught by S. M. Mercedes, R. S. M.

S. M. Emily received telephone call from Rhode Island Committee to Aid Higher Education to say that SRC request for funds approved locally and being forwarded to Washington for final decision.
- 11      Thursday Adult Education class is: English (Creative Writing), taught by Miss Mary Zavada.
- 13      Monsignor James V. Greene, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Newport, died today.
- 15      The Biology Club sponsored the showing of the movie "Autopsy".
- 16      A delegation from Salve Regina College attended the Requiem Mass for Monsignor Greene, at St. Mary's Church.
- 17      French movie, "Le Testament d'Orphée", presented by L'Alliance française, Miley Hall
- 18      S. M. Emily and S. M. ~~Ann~~<sup>Authilda</sup> attended a meeting of the Sub-Committee on Education of the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women, at Alumnae Hall, Pembroke College (Dean Rosemary Pierrel, of Pembroke, is Chairman.).

February

- 18 (continued) (Sub-Committee) SRC was assigned the project of investigating Programs for the Re-Education of Mature Women, above the High School level.
- 19 S. M. Eloise and S. M. Wilhelmina attended the International Convocation held in the Hilton Hotel, New York City, on Pope John's Encyclical "Pacem in Terris". They were 2 of 6 Sisters of Mercy who attended. Also present were Mother General, and Sister Mary Flavia.

Class of 1966 Ring Ceremony and Tea, Ochre Court, 2:30 p.m.

S. M. Rosalia returned to Salve Regina after an illness of a month's duration.
- 20 Sapphire Ball for Class of 1966 and escorts, Ochre Court. Evening.
- 21 Mass and Communion Breakfast for Juniors and their escorts. Father Dittoe was speaker at the breakfast.
- 22 Washington's Birthday. Holiday.
- 23 Mr. Goelet sent S. M. Hilda a check for $1,000 for furnishings in Miley Hall. (Check will be used to furnish the President's Dining Room.)

S. M. Eloise and S. M. Wilhelmina held a summary and discussion of the "Pacem in Terris" meeting, for interested students, in Miley Hall (evening).
- 24 S. M. Emily, S. M. Hilda and others held a meeting with a Committee from Washington: Miss Dorothy Reese; Dr. Mary O'Connor from Boston; Miss Margaret Kelliher of the State of R. I.; Mr. Denning and Mr. Butler, representing the Architects; to investigate the possibility of a grant under the Health Professions Act for the new Science and Academic Building.
- 26 Freshman Investiture (Class of 1968), Mercy Hall, 2:30 p.m. No guests were invited because of the large class.

S. M. Christopher, R. S. M., of the Sociology Department, is serving as Chairman of the Citizens' Action Committee for Newport County, an outgrowth of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. First meeting of full committee this date; group hopes to meet about every two weeks.

March

- 1 Opening lecture in a series principally for freshmen - Psychology of Christian Womanhood, by Dr. James Bowes. Evening.
2. Special Faculty Meeting was held in the afternoon to hear a report by Sister Mary Eloise and Sister Mary Wilhelmina on the Pacem in Terris Conference, which they attended on February 19 in New York.
- 4 Morning Panel Discussion Meeting on "The Christian Challenge in Latin America", with Sister Mary Antonine in charge.
5. Sister Mary Eloise and Sister Mary Columcille gave a lecture on Catholicism at Vernon Court Junior College, at the request of Rev. Ralph Patterson, who is conducting a course there on Comparative Religions.
- 6 Some of the students attended a Conference on Latin America at Brown University, as an "Intercooperation Year" activity.

Fourteen of the College Faculty members took part in discussion committees in preparation for the forthcoming General Chapter of the Sisters of Mercy, to be held in August 1965.

- 7 Bible Service and Silver Tea for College Students was conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. John Gallagher, S.J.
- 9 An afternoon lecture by Dr. Godwin Alaoma Onyegbula, Chargé d'Affaires of the Nigerian Embassy, Washington, was held in Ochre Court.

The Rhode Island Conference of Social Work and the newly created State Office of Economic Opportunity, sponsored an Institute and Workshop on "Poverty Midst Plenty" at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, Providence. The college was represented by Sister Mary Martina and Sister Mary Christopher.

- 11 Mr. Denning, the Architect, was at the College for an all day meeting on plans for the new Science and Academic Building.
- 12 and 13 - Presentation by The Regina Players, of The Sound of Music, the musical about the life of the vonTrapp family, directed by Miss Joan David, SRC Director of Dramatics. Choral music directed by Sister Mary Rosina. It was presented at the Rogers High School Auditorium. An orchestra under the direction of Mr. Joseph Conté, comprised of about 20 members of the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra, played the musical score. It was presented to a capacity audience both evenings and was well received.
- 13 Sister Mary Augustine and Sister Mary Ella, Miss Louise Sullivan, and Miss Helen Maloof, all members of the Nursing Division Faculty, attended an Intercollegiate Nursing Conference at Boston University.

March

- 14 - 16 Sister Marilyn attended a conference in Washington, D. C., on Religion and Mental Health.

- 15 Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Petronilla left for Cincinnati, Ohio, to attend the Sisters of Mercy Generalate Workshop at Our Lady of Cincinnati College, held from March 16 through March 21. Sister Mary Emily served on the Panel for the lecture given by Mother Huberta. The meeting was entitled: The Unique Function of the College in Relation to Religious Government and an Effective Apostolate - the College's Contribution to the Individual Sister, to the Province, to the Church, and to Society.

A meeting of the Student Nurse Organization was held in Miley Hall. The speaker was Mrs. John Malone, Chairman of Volunteers of the Rhode Island Mentally Retarded Association. The SRC student nurses hope to establish a volunteer program in this field in Newport and Providence.

The opening lecture of a Marriage Forum for Seniors was held this evening. The speaker was Rev. Walter Heath, O. P., whose subject was Courtship.

- 16 The College announced the recipients of the five competitive scholarship awards for 1965-1966: The Mother Mary Matthew Doyle Scholarship to Margaret O'Donnell; The Mother Mary Hilda Miley Scholarship to Linda M. Kenny; The Sister Mary James O'Hare Scholarship to Jean L. Maigret; The Mother Mary Catherine Durkin Scholarship to Susan H. Kennedy; and the Rhode Island Schools Science Fair Scholarship to Barbara A. Healey.

- 18 Sister Mary Augustine attended the Rhode Island Nurses' Association meeting, held at the Club Embassy in Woonsocket.

The Fall River Area Club, composed of undergraduates, presented a check to Sister Marie Therese, R.S.M., Librarian, in the amount of $50.00, to be used for books for the College Library.

- 21 At the meeting of the Salve Regina Guild, Miss Fitzpatrick spoke on The Holy Land - So Far and Yet So Near.

- 22 The second lecture of the Marriage Forum for seniors was given by Dr. Thomas F. Head, on the subject, Marriage and Medicine.

Miss Elizabeth Costello and Miss Kathleen Dillon, members of the Junior Class, have been selected to represent Salve Regina College as participants in Senator Claiborne Pell's Internship Program, in Washington, D. C., this week.

- 23 A meeting was held at the Metacomet Country Club, in Providence, to discuss the Nurses' Training Act. SRC was represented by Sister Mary Rosalia, Sister Mary Audrey, Sister Mary Augustine, Mother Mary Alban, Sister Mary Verona, and Miss Lucille Sullivan, and Dr. F. K. Brasted. It was an all-day meeting.

March

- 24 The Home Economics Club held its annual Spring Fashion Show this evening in Ochre Court. Student chairman was Jacqueline Fernandes, of Fall River. Fashions and models were furnished by Madeline's Dress Shop, of North Dartmouth and New Bedford, Mass. There was a good attendance, and numerous door prizes were awarded.
- 26 The Spanish Club sponsored a Pan American Exhibition in Mercy Hall, from 10:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. Murals and paintings were loaned by the Rhode Island School of Design; the Naval War College loaned its Pan American flags, and various typical materials and items were sent from the ambassadors of the countries involved. During the afternoon a group of Latin American students presented dances of the seven republics; regional costumes of the countries were worn by the dancers.

Receipt was announced of a $7,100 grant from the Public Health Service of the Division of Nursing of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. These funds will enable graduate nurses to "update" management and teaching skills by taking short-term courses to meet new developments in patient care and community health practices without being away from their regular positions.

- 26-28 Sigma Phi Sigma organization held a Convention at Mount St. Agnes College in Baltimore, Maryland. Delegates from the College included Sister Mary Antonine, RSM, Moderator of the College Chapter, of the History Department, and the following students: Miss Jane Edward, Miss Kathleen Dillon, Miss Mary Louise Donnelly, and Miss Jane Herron.

A Retreat was held for Freshmen. The Master was Rev. Thomas Curran, S.J., of the Jesuit Retreat House, Gloucester, Massachusetts.

- 31 The Third Lecture of the Marriage Forum was given this evening by Dr. Thomas F. Head.

April

- 1 Salve Regina College was presented with 45 books, by the Embassy of Colombia, South America. The representative of the Embassy who presented the books, stated that the Pan American Display showed such bonds of friendship between the College and his country that he was anxious to strengthen these bonds. Five of the books had been autographed by the authors, and include documents of the country, novels by Colombian authors, and accounts of international relationships between Colombia and the United States and other world powers.

Elections were held on this date by the Student Government for student body officers for the next college year (1965-1966) and the successful candidates were: President of the Student Council, Miss Mary Hill; Vice-President, Miss Nancy Phelan; Secretary, Miss Theresa Marzilli, '67; and Treasurer, Miss Joanne Mattias, '67.

- 2 and 3 - Sister Mary Christopher, R. S. M., lectured at the Order of Mercy Novitiate on The Role of the Sociologist in the World Today.

- 2-4 A Retreat for sophomores and juniors was held. It was conducted by Rev. Daniel Foley, S.J., of Boston College

- 4 Sister Mary Christopher, Sister Mary Harold, Sister Marilyn, all took part in group discussions at the Newport Interracial Council meeting at Thompson Junior High School. Some of the Salve Regina College students also attended, took part in the discussions, and acted as Recorders.

- 4-9 Sister Mary Mercedes, Head of the Art Department, attended the Eighth Biennial Conference of the National Art Education Association, held in Philadelphia.

- 5 Sister Mary Columcille spoke at St. Mary's Church Mothers' Club, in Garretson Memorial Hall. Her subject was: The Bible and the Dead Sea Scrolls.

Sister Mary Christopher spoke at Rhode Island College to the Rhode Island Student Nurses' Convention on Sociology and Nursing.

- 6 Sister Mary Donald attended a series of lectures on the Problem of Alcohol Education, held at the Viking Hotel. The three-day Workshop involved some 60 representatives of schools, teacher training institutions, and other agencies.

- 7 Dr. Nicolae Iliescu, a distinguished scholar of Dante, and presently a Professor at Harvard University, lectured in Ochre Court on "Dante: Poet and Protagonist of Divina Commedia". The lecture was given in honor of the 700th anniversary of Dante's birth, May 1265. (1265-1321)

- April 9 Sister Mary Emily, Sister Mary Rosalia, and Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted were delegates to an all-day Conference on church-affiliated higher education, sponsored by the Danforth Foundation. It was held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Boston.

Sister Mary Audrey and Sister Mary Dionysia attended the Rhode Island Regional meeting of the New England Association of College and Secondary Schools, held at Providence College. The topic for discussion was "College Drop-outs".

- 9-11 A Retreat for Seniors was given by Rev. Edward Canning, S.J., of Fairfield Preparatory School.

- 10 Sister Mary Philemon, Sister Mary Corona, Dr. DiPippo, and Dr. Morris attended the joint Meeting of the American Chemical Society and the New England Association of American Chemistry Teachers at Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut. The subject was the Chemistry Curriculum.

The Home Economics Club of Salve Regina College sponsored A Career Day, in Mercy Hall, from 1 - 4 P.M. All High School and Junior High School students of Aquidneck Island and interested parents and friends were invited to see the exhibits. Professional careers in Home Economics and Business were highlighted, and each exhibit was in charge of a student member of the club, who explained about the various opportunities.

Sister Mary Jean, Chairman of the Division of the Humanities, attended the Boston College Writers' Conference, held in the Boston College Library Auditorium, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts. The conference dealt with careers in writing, in all phases, and especially the relationships between the author, the editor, and the publisher.

- 14 Last day of classes before the Easter Recess. Classes resume on Monday, April 26.

- 16 Two seniors in the Home Economics program have been accepted for dietetic internships for 1965-1966. Miss Ellen Jane Donnelly has accepted an internship at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, effective September 1, and Miss Mary Jane Halloran will commence her internship at The Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, New York, on June 30.

- 19 Sister Mary Othilda attended the meeting of the Sub-Committee of the Governor's Committee on the Status of Women, held at Pembroke College at the call of Dean Rosemary Pierrel.

- 19-21 Sister Mary Olga and Sister Mary Columcille, of the Theology Department, attended the National Convention of the Society of Catholic College Teachers of Sacred Doctrine, in St. Louis, Missouri

Sister Mary Ignatius and Sister Mary Othilda had an interview at Harvard University with Dr. Francis Rogers, of the Modern Language Department there.

- April 19-21 Sister Mary Dionysia, Registrar, and Sister Mary Audrey, Dean of Admissions, attended meetings of the National Association of Registrars and Admissions Officers, held in Chicago, Illinois.
- 19-21 Mr. John Corrigan attended the Annual Meeting of the American Catholic Philosophical Association, held in Denver, Colorado. The main theme of the meeting was "Philosophy and the Arts".
- 19-23 Sister Marie Therese attended the 41st Annual Convention of the Catholic Library Association, in Philadelphia.
- 19-24 Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Rosalia attended the National Catholic Educational Association Meeting, held in New York City.
- On April 19, also in New York City, a meeting was held of the General Advisory Board of the Sisters of Mercy of the Union, to which Sister Mary Emily was recently appointed a member.
- 24 Announcement was made today of the courses, workshops and seminars being offered this summer at the College. One Workshop begins on June 9, and another starts on August 16, but the remainder of the offerings will be during the regular summer session, June 28 through August 6.
- Workshops will be offered as follows: June 9-15, "Improving Quality of Nursing Practice Through Improved Management Care", for professional nurses; June 28 - August 6, a Workshop for teachers of the Handicapped; August 16-27, Space Science for Elementary School Teachers, a Workshop sponsored by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. A seminar in Creative Art Teaching will be offered July 6-30.
- 25 Sister Mary Christopher, Head of the Sociology Department, spoke at the Cluny School Mothers' Communion Breakfast, at the Hotel Viking.
- A Meeting of the Salve Regina Guild was held this afternoon, at which the drawing was held for the Carribbean Cruise. First prize was $1,500, and second prize was $1,000.
- 26 Classes resumed after the recess.
- 28 Sister Mary Augustine, Director of the Division of Nursing, left to attend the Biennial Convention of the National League for Nursing, at the Hilton Hotel in San Francisco, May 1-7.
- * (over)
- April 29 - May 1 Miss Janet Interrante and Miss Maureen McElroy attended the National Student Nurses Association Convention as delegates from the Nursing Division of the College. Miss McElroy is presently serving as National Treasurer of the organization.

April 28      Sister Mary Christopher spoke at a meeting of the Sturdy Memorial School of Nursing Faculty on "The Student Interview as a Counseling Tool".

- April 30 His Excellency, The Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, Bishop of Providence, presided at the afternoon Dedication and Blessing Ceremonies of Miley Hall. Exercises were held in Ochre Court, at which the speakers were Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M., College President; The Honorable Charles A. Hambly, Mayor of Newport; Dr. William C. Gaige, President of Rhode Island College, who brought the greetings from all the other Rhode Island colleges; and Bishop McVinney. Rev. John Dittoe, O.P., was Master of Ceremonies. Following the exercises, a procession led the way to Miley Hall, where Bishop McVinney officiated at the formal Blessing of the building.
- After a tour of the building for guests, a dinner was served in Miley Hall Dining Room. There were various speeches following the dinner, and Mother Mary Hilda Miley was prevailed upon to make a few remarks in honor of the occasion.
- Miley Hall was named in honor of Sister Mary Hilda Miley, R.S.M., President of the College from 1948 to 1964. This building is the first step in the long-range physical development program of the College. It is contemporary in design, and was constructed at a cost of $1,500,000, provided through an HHFA Government loan, and its furnishings cost in excess of $120,000.
- May* 2 Alumnae Family Day was held as sons and daughters of Salve Regina alumnae visited the college during the afternoon, while their parents revisited familiar scenes on the campus.
- Open House was held all afternoon in Miley Hall. Alumnae and friends of the College were invited, as well as the general public. Approximately 1200 persons visited this new building and were given tours by student guides.
- 5 Sister Mary Mercedes, Moderator, had Father Besse give a talk to members of the Legion of Mary, at 7 P.M., in Miley Hall. His subject was The Liturgy.
- The Alliance Française of the College sponsored an evening of Poetry and Music, at Ochre Court. The Guest of Honor was M. Maurice Pizet, Consul of France in Providence.
- *1 Members of the College Faculty from all departments attended a regional meeting of the New England Unit, College and University Department, National Catholic Educational Association, at Providence College. Sister Mary Wilhelmina served as Chairman of the History sectional meeting and Sister Marilyn as Chairman of the Psychology sectional meeting. Sister Mary Ignatius gave a paper for the Romance Languages section.
- The Glee Clubs of Salve Regina College and Fordham University presented a joint concert at Ochre Court this evening. The Directors of the two clubs are James B. Welch, of Fordham, and Normand A. Gingras, of Salve Regina.

. . . 1965 . . .

May 5

Sister Mary Mereedes, Moderator, had Father Besse give a talk to members of the Legion of Mary, at 7:00 P. M., in Miley Hall. His subject was 'The Liturgy'

Repeat in error.

The Alliance Française of the College sponsored an evening of Poetry and Music, at Ochre Court. The Guest of Honor was Mr Maurice Pizet, Consul of France in Providence.

6

Dr. Ascanio Di Pippo spoke at the Annual Convention of the Catholic Teachers Association of the Diocese of Fall River. The meeting was held in Attleboro, Mass.

7

The College Library held Open House this afternoon, as a part of the program of Rhode Island Heritage Week. Sister Marie Therese gave a talk and visitors were taken on a tour of the library facilities.

8

Miss Lois Prosser represented the College at the Inauguration of Dr. Howard W. Ferrin as Chancellor of Barrington College .

The Class of 1968 held its Court Cotillion this evening in Ochre Court .

11

A Survey was made today by Saga Food Service of the College Dining facilities.

A Chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, National Honor Society for Hispanic Studies, has been established at the college, Epsilon Sigma Chapter. Dr. José Martel, Vice-President of Sigma Delta Pi, presided at the Installation Ceremony, held this evening. Five active members and four honorary members were inducted into the new Chapter.

13

Mr. Hugh Kilmer addressed the Harvard-Radcliffe Catholic Club at Cambridge, Massachusetts. His subject was, "Sorrow and Happiness in Man and God."

14

Two students of the Music Department, Anna Maziarz, pianist, and Linda Graves, soprano, gave a program this evening in Miley Hall.

Sister Mary Rosalia, Dean, announced that eleven upperclassmen have been elected to membership in Sigma Phi Sigma, a national honor society of the Sisters of Mercy colleges, and three seniors have been elected to Kappa Gamma Pi, a national honor society of Catholic Women's Colleges. The induction ceremonies of Sigma Phi Sigma will take place on Tuesday, May 18th.

Sister Miriam Joseph, R. S. M., and Dr. A. G. DiPippo are co-authors of an article entitled, Freezing Point Depression, published in the April issue of the Journal of Chemical Education, Volume 42 (1965).

District

16

Sister Mary Eloise spoke at a meeting of the Newport ~~Division~~ of the National Council of Catholic Women. In the Panel Discussion, S. M. Eloise spoke on Ecumenism and the Religious. Ecumenism and the Home and Ecumenism and Music were treated by two lay women. Meeting held in the Drawing Room, Ochre Court.

. . . 1965 . . .

- May 17 Corporation of Salve Regina College held a meeting at 3:00 P. M. in the Dining Room. Mr. Moore was present as were the other Trustees. S. M. Antonine resigned as a member, and was replaced by S. M. Rosalia.
- 18 Induction ceremonies were held for the eleven students who were elected to Sigma Phi Sigma, the national honor society. Great Hall, Ochre Court.
- Several Sisters and a group of students, headed by S. M. Othilda, went to Boston to visit and tour the Federal Reserve Bank. The students were members of a class in Economics.
- *
- 20 The Annual May Procession took place at 4:30 P. M. in the Court in front of Ochre Court.
(see over)
- *18 Dr. F. K. Brasted attended a N. A. M. New England Industrial Conference at the Sheraton-Plaza Hotel, Boston, Mass.
- 20 A meeting was held at the R. I. School of Design Auditorium, Providence, sponsored by Governor John Chafee, to present Certificates of Recognition to Foreign Students attending Rhode Island Universities and Colleges for the first time. Dr. Brasted represented the college in introducing Sister Mary Angel, Sister Selegrina (from India) and Miss Cecelia Wang (Formosa) to the Governor.
- Sister Mary Joannes attended a Seminar meeting of the Rhode Island Dietetic Association at Chapin Hospital, on the subject "Phenylketonuria, Detection and Therapy".
- 23 The Salve Regina Guild held a Musicale and Tea at Ochre Court at 3:00 P. M. (over)
- 25 A Reception and Banquet were held for the senior class to be taken into the Alumnae Association - Miley Hall Dining Room. The members of the Alumnae Board were also present.
- 26 Class Day Exercises were held at 2:00 P. M. Various Awards and honors were presented, and the Senior Class Gift to the college was made.
- * *
- 27-28 Reading Days before Final Examinations.
- 29-June 4 Final Examination Period.
- * *26 A Farewell party was held for the two Dominican priests, Rev. John P. Dittoe, and Rev. Michael McCaffrey, who are leaving the college ~~permanently~~ at the close of the college year.
- 27-31 A Provincial Chapter Meeting was held at Mount St. Rita Convent, in Cumberland, R. I. S. M. Emily and several other sisters were delegates from the college.

May 23 Sister Mary Christopher spoke at the Communion Breakfast of the St. Augustin's Mother's Club on Women and the War on Poverty

At some time during May she spoke at the Rogers High School Hostess Club on the Newport Community Action Project

May 20 It was announced that El Circulo Espanol (the Spanish Club) of Salve Regina, had elected officers for 1965-1966, as follows: Miss ~~AK~~ Elaine Paiva, '66, President; Miss Jane Harrington, '67, Vice-President; Miss Myrna Santiago, '67, Secretary, and Miss Cynthia De Mello, '68, Treasurer. Club members expressed pride in the success of the President in a contest in Spoken Spanish, sponsored by the Pan American Society of New England, for second place in which Miss Paiva won a summer scholarship for study at the University of Monterrey, Mexico, July 10 to August 21.

. . . 1965 . . .

- May 28 A telephone call from Senator Pell's office and various other telegraph messages from members of Congress were received at the college, notifying Salve Regina that it had been granted $320,122 under Title I of the Higher Education Facilities Act administered by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, for the Construction of a Natural Science, Mathematics and Modern Foreign Language portions of the new Science and Academic Building proposed for the college. The official notification, dated May 28, was subsequently received by the college.
- 29 S. M. Mercedes and S. M. Corona represented the college at the Commencement Exercises of the Catholic Teachers College of Providence.
- June 1 S. M. Emily and S. M. Rosalia represented the college at the Commencement Exercises at Providence College.
- 2 S. M. Emily and S. M. Rosalia attended at the Colony Motor Hotel, in Cranston, a luncheon given for 7 Rhode Island colleges who have been given 3M Company Education Assistance Grants, consisting of various items of equipment and materials for classroom use. The Awards were presented at this time.
*(over)
- 5 Commencement Ball of the Class of 1965 was held in the Great Hall, Ochre Court.
- 6 The Baccalaureate Mass for the graduates was held in St. Mary's Church at 4:30 P. M. It was a Solemn High Mass, officiated at by three brothers of graduates - Rev. Joseph Cardoza, Celebrant; Rev. John Magnani, Deacon; Rev. Edmund Tobin, Sub-Deacon.
- Following the Mass the Parents' Dinner was held for graduates and their parents. The Toast to the Parents was given by Jane C. White, and the response was made by her father, William F. White. Sister Mary Emily made a few remarks to the group.
- 7 Commencement Exercises were held on the Terrace on a lovely day. Senator Claiborne Pell was the Speaker. Honorary Degrees were conferred upon Sister Mary Josetta Butler, R. S. M., of the Province of Chicago, who is at present working with the Better World Movement in Washington, D. C., (Doctor of Humane Letters) and upon Senator Pell (Doctor of Humanities).
- 9-15 An Institute was held, under the auspices of the Division of Nursing, for Hospital Nurses in Leadership Positions. Sister Mary Augustine was Program Director, and the Faculty were: Miss Lucille Sullivan, M. S., Salve Regina College; Miss Mary Santulli, C. G. S., Director of Staff Development at Memorial Hospital in Pawtucket; Sister Marilyn, R. S. M., Salve Regina College; Mrs. Gertrude Godfrey, M. S., from the Rhode Island Hospital School of Nursing, Providence; Miss Helen Maloof, M. S., Salve Regina College; and Sister Mariella, R. S. M., Salve Regina College.
- Keynote Speakers on the various days were: Dr. Mary T. Thorp, Distinguished Service Professor, Rhode Island College; Sister Mary Emmanuel Black, R. S. M., Director of the School of Nursing, Mercy Hospital, Watertown, New York; Miss Lucille Kinlein, of Catholic University, Washington, D. C.; and Mr. John Hite, a Consultant in Management.

* June 4, 1965      Sister Mary Christopher spoke at the First Friday Club on The Implications of Antipoverty Legislation for Citizens

. . . 1965 . . .

June 9-15 (continued) There were 46 members in attendance, both Religious and Lay students.

10 The Community celebrated Sister Mary Petronilla's Feast Day.

A movie was shown to the Community, entitled "The Singer, Not the Song".

12-13 Alumnae Week-end was held on the campus.

13 Sister Mary Hilda, R.S.M., President Emerita, was the recipient of the Honorary degree of Doctor of Science in Education from the University of Rhode Island at afternoon ceremonies at the University. S. M. Emily, S. M. Rosalia, and S. M. Antonine attended with Mother Hilda, as well as other Sisters of the Community and the Province and members of the Miley family. The exercises were held out of doors on the quadrangle. Seven prominent men, including Governor Chafee, were also recipients of honorary degrees.

and Sister Mary Rosalia

14 S. M. Audrey attended a meeting of the Association of Rhode Island College Admission Officers, held at the W. Alton Jones Campus of the University of Rhode Island, at Hianloland Farms, in Rhode Island.

16 Dr. Eino A. Johnson, the Regional Representative of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Division of Higher Education, in Boston, paid his annual visit to the college to check on the collections made on National Defense Student Loans. He discussed with S. M. Venard the Government's new Economic Youth Opportunity Program which (when passed by Congress) has a three-fold purpose of loans, grants, and part-time work for students to be helped under this Program. Dr. Johnson expressed himself as being satisfied with the way the NDSL program is going at Salve Regina.

S. M. Eloise attended one afternoon of a Workshop on Ecumenism, held in Boston. Subjects treated were: Ecumenism and Education, by Bishop Wright, and the Work of various Ecumenical Commissions in the United States and Canada.

17 Sister Mary Victor (Provincialate) and S. M. Emily went to the H. H. F. A. Office in New York City, to be present for the signing of the Bonds which were sold for Miley Hall.

S. M. Augustine, Director of the Division of Nursing, attended a meeting of the Executive Board of the New England Chapter of Higher Education for Nursing, held at the Belmont Hotel in West Harwich, Mass.

S. M. Eloise and S. M. Jean went to the Mother of Mercy Novitiate to give lectures to the novices. S. M. Eloise spoke on Ecumenism, and S. M. Jean gave a lecture on Dante.

18-26 A Retreat was held for the Community, conducted by Rev. Thomas Curran, S.J., from the Jesuit Retreat House in Gloucester, Massachusetts.

21 S. M. Christopher attended a meeting Workshop at the University of Rhode Island.

. . . 1965 . . .

- June 21-24 S. M. Mercedes attended a meeting of the Diocesan delegates to the Inter-diocesan Teaching Sisters and Brothers Committee of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. There were representatives of the 7 Dioceses of New England. The meeting was held at the Manor House, Belmont Hotel, West Harwich, Massachusetts
- 22-24 S. M. Joannes, Head of the Home Economics Department, and Sister Veronica Marie attended the American Home Economics Association Convention in Atlantic City, New Jersey. The official College delegate was Miss Margaret R. Marra, vice-president of the Home Economics Club; other students attended were Miss Elaine Cross and Miss Ellen Anderson.
- 23 The College gave a final answer to the Saga Food Service that we would not take them on for this coming year. We would try one more year operating the dining room with our own personnel.
- The two Indian sisters, Sister Jane Frances, S.A.B.S., and Sister Mary Jerome, S.A.B.S., left Newport to attend Coady International Institute, in Antigonish, Nova Scotia, from June 25th through August 12th. Full expense, travel, maintenance and tuition scholarships were made possible through the benefaction of the Reverend Cornelius Collins.
- 26 Sister Marilyn and Sister Mariella left Newport for an 8-week stay at our Foreign Mission in Honduras. Sister Mariella will work with D'Antoni Hospital, in La Ceiba, and Sister Marilyn will be in Tegucigalpa, with Sister Ellenice, establishing a Mental Health Program.
- A group of 40 people came from the Boston Center for Adult Education to study the architecture of Ochre Court, under the direction of Dr. Sidney Smith and Mr. Selig.
- June 27 - S. M. Emily attended the Summer Seminar at St. Louis University on July 5 The American Private College in Action, under the direction of Dr. Daniel O'Neill.
- 28 The Workshop in Special Education, to train teachers for the mentally retarded, began its second year. It is offered by the college in cooperation with the Newport School Department, and 20 people (lay and religious) are enrolled. Many classes are held in the Underwood School, Newport.
- The College Summer School opened today, to run through August 6. Courses are being offered in various subjects. There is also a Workshop in Creative Writing, being offered by Miss Mary Zavada, of the college faculty. Pre-registration figures indicated that 86 lay men and women, and 76 Sisters would be in attendance in the summer session.
- Salve Regina College Guild held its Dinner and Annual Meeting at 5:00 P. M. in the Ochre Court Dining Room.

...1965 ...

- June 28 - July 5      An 8-day Retreat for the Renovation Group commenced today in Queen Hall. It was led by Rev. Edward Callahan, S.J. Attending from the college Community were Sister Mary Petronilla, Sister Mary Mercedes, Sister Mary Joannes, and Sister Mary Christopher.
- June 27 - July 1      Dr. F. K. Brasted attended a meeting of the American Alumni Association, in Atlantic City, New Jersey.
- July 5-7      Dr. F. K. Brasted attended a meeting of the American College Public Relations Association, in Cincinnati, Ohio
- July 6 - 30      A Summer Seminar in Creative Art Teaching opened under the direction of Sister Mary Mercedes, R. S. M., Chairman of the College Art Department. Painting, ceramics, and arts and crafts will be offered. The faculty will be Sister Mercedes, Mr. Martin Murray (painting) and Mr. Charles Laranjo (ceramics). The Seminar will deal with all aspects of Art Education at the elementary and secondary school levels, and is designed to meet the needs of teachers as well as to provide an enriching period for creative work in art.
- July 9      Various members of the Faculty attended a Curriculum Meeting at 1:30 P.M. in the State Dining Room. Mr. Stodghill was appointed Chairman for future meetings.
- July 14      Meeting of the Provincial Advisory Board was held at 2:00 P.M. in the State Dining Room of the College.
- Summer Study, 1965, by the Faculty.
- |  |  |
|--|--|
| Boston College                               | Sister Mary Clarice - Advanced Modern Mathematics  |
| Graduate School                              | Sister Mary Janice - Institute   |
| Colorado, Univ. of                           | Dr. Ascanio DiPippo - Continuation of Post-doctoral work in Chemistry, National Science Foundation Grant, Special Projects in Science Education Section. |
| Columbia University                          | Sister Mary Rosarita - Nursing   |
| Fordham University, New York City            | Sister Mary Harold - Doctoral work in HistorySister Mary Jeremy - Continuation of doctoral work in Modern Languages                                  |
| Georgetown Univ.                             | Sister Mary Andrea - Study in Advanced German  |
| New Hampshire, Univ. of                      | Sister Ralph Mary - Parasitology   |
| Notre Dame, Univ. of                         | Sister Mary Loretto - Study in Scripture   |
| Operation Headstart, Newport                 | Sister Mary Christopher - Staff Member (Sociologist)   |
| Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N Y. | Sister Mary Philemon -Intensive Courses in Instrumental Analysis - in Summer Program for College Teachers; National Science Foundation grant.            |

. . . . 1965 . . . .

July 17

Sister Mary Petronilla left to attend a Workshop for Superiors at Fordham University, New York.

- 17 The Annual Changes of the Sisters of Mercy were announced. Leaving the Faculty to go to other new assignments were: Sister Mary Martha, R.S.M., Home Economics Department, to Mount St. Rita Convent, Cumberland, R.I.; Sister Mary Othilda to Mount St. Rita Convent, Cumberland, to assist the Provincial Procurator; Sister Mary Olga to St. Mary's Academy, Bay View, to teach Chemistry and Mathematics.

Assigned to the Faculty for the first time are the following Sisters: Sister Mary Thecla, R.S.M., M.A., to teach Theology; Sister Mary Magdala, R.S.M., M.A., also to teach Theology; Sister Mary Loretto, R.S.M., M.A., to teach English and Theology; Sister Patricia Marie, R.S.M. to teach Mathematics; Sister Mary Patrician, R.S.M., to teach History; Sister Frederick Mary, R.S.M. A.B., to teach Economics and assist in the Business Office; Sister Michaelinda, R.S.M., to be Procurator.

- 22 A Curriculum Meeting was held, attended by various members of the College Faculty. Guest Speakers were: Commissioner William P. Robinson, Jr., Mr. Arthur Pontarelli, Miss Grace Glynn - all of the State Department of Education; and several School Superintendents: Dr. Charles A. O'Connor, of Providence; Mr. Joseph Devine, of Newport; Mr. Joseph H. Gaudet, of Middletown; Mr. Thomas Roach, of Johnston, and Mr. Charles Shea of Pawtucket.

Operation Headstart was organized all over the country for the first time this summer. In Newport it was sponsored by the Board of Directors of the Children's Home, of which Mr. Myles Santamour, a part-time member of the Salve Regina College Faculty, is Director. Sister Mary Christopher, R.S.M. of the College Faculty, served on the social service staff of the Project. Assisting her were Sister Mary William Joseph, R.S.M., and Sister Rose Marie, R.S.M., who were volunteer workers.

- 26 Mr. Falconer, of the Gulf Oil Corporation, presented a check to the College in the amount of $500.00 for unrestricted use, under the Corporation's Aid-to-Education Program. The money will be used this year, as the first such grant was last year, to furnish a student room in Miley Hall. The room will be marked with an appropriate plaque.

- 27 Mr. Patrick O'Reagan gave a talk on Lay Dialogue to various members of the Summer School.

- 29 Members of the Summer Seminar in Creative Art held a display of their paintings, ceramic items, and other projects made during the summer, in Ochre Court, from 2 until 8 P.M., to which the public was invited. Students in this program have come from Ottawa, Canada; Michigan; the District of Columbia; and the New England States, as well as locally from Aquidneck Island.

- 31 Sister Mary Audrey and Sister Mary Emily attended the Bryant College Graduation. Sister Frederick Mary received her degree summa cum laude.

. . . 1965 . . .

- August 2 An Ecumenical Coffee Hour, to which ministers of the various denominations on Aquidneck Island were invited, was held. It was attended by Faculty members of the College Summer School, as well as by Father Schenick, and Rev. Spyridon Papademitriou, the Pastor of St. Spyridon's Greek Orthodox Church.
- 5 The Summer Graduation for the Sisters was held. The Most Reverend Bernard M. Kelly, Auxiliary Bishop of Providence, presided and gave the Commencement address. Thirty-one Sisters of Mercy received the Bachelor of Arts degree. Candidates were presented by Sister Mary Rosalia, R.S.M., Dean, and the degrees conferred by Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M., President. Dr. William P. Robinson, Jr., brought greetings from the Rhode Island Department of Education, and presented Statements of Eligibility for teaching to the graduates.
- 8 Sister Mary Jean left for a period of independent study at Seton Hall University, South Orange, New Jersey. Sister Mary Ignatius left Newport, also for independent study, at Columbia University and at the Hispanic Institute of the Hispanic Society of America, both in New York City.
- 12 The two Indian Sisters, Sister Jane Frances and Sister Mary Jerome, returned to Newport after their attendance at Coady International Institute in Antigonish, Nova Scotia.
- 16 Sister Mary Martina, R.S.M., left the College to attend the General Chapter meetings of the Religious Sisters of Mercy of the Union, at Bethesda, Maryland.
- 16-27 The National Aeronautics and Space Administration two-week workshop in Space Science commenced today. Lectures and demonstrations will be given mornings in Mercy Hall, with project work and private study in the afternoons. The Program is under the direction of Mr. Arthur Maynard, Space Science Lecturer from the Electronics Research Center of NASA, Cambridge, Mass. Sister Mary Philemon, R.S.M., Chairman of the Natural Sciences Division of the College is Coordinator of this Workshop.
- 20 Announcement was made of the following new Members added to the Lay Faculty of Salve Regina College for the coming year: Miss Cecile Belisle, Nursing; Mr. Joseph Berman, Mathematics; Mr. E. William Burrell, English and Education, including Directorship of Secondary Education; Mrs. Margaret Burton, Education; Mr. Robert J. McKenna, Social Studies and Philosophy; Mrs. Ann D. Pelletier, Spanish; Mrs. Dorothy Troendle, English; Mrs. Marian Van Slyke, Director of Glee Club; Rev. John P. Reilly, Ph.D., will come to Salve Regina as Chairman of the Division of Theology and Philosophy, and Rev. Joseph Schenick, of St. Augustin's Church, Newport, will teach part-time in Theology.
- 22 An informal presentation of Class Rings to the four girls who are to study in France in the coming year (Junior Year Abroad) was held in the Alumnae Lounge of Miley Hall, followed by a Buffet Luncheon in the Student Lounge.

. . . 1965 . . .

- August 25 A special Space Science Lecture Demonstration was given by Mr. Arthur H. Maynard this evening, in Mercy Hall, open to the public because of the interest shown by so many Newport County residents in the Workshop for Elementary Teachers now being conducted at the College.
- 26-29 Sister Mary Mercedes, R.S.M., Chairman of the college Art Department, and Sister Mary Florella, R.S.M. of St. Mary's Academy, Bay View, attended the 19th Regional New England Congress of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, at Bishop Stang High School, North Dartmouth, Mass. Three Salve Regina students also attended: Gail Greer, Nancy Phelan, and Joanne Leonard. Salve Regina is classified as a member of the Eastern Region, along with Regis, Stonehill, Merrimac, and Cardinal Cushing Colleges.
- 27-30 Principals of the Diocese arrived at Salve Regina for a Workshop under the direction of Monsignor Arthur T. Geoghegan, Superintendent of Schools of the Diocese. Dr. James Hayes, Director of the School of Business Administration at Duquesne University, was the principal Speaker at the Workshop. All sessions were held in Miley Hall.
- 28 Sister Mary Jean, R.S.M., returned to the College following the completion of her period of independent study.
- August The Division of Nursing received a grant for a three-year period from the United States Government, for the project, "Improvement of the Public Health Nursing Component of a Baccalaureate Curriculum".
- September 1 Rev. John P. Reilly, formerly Assistant Editor of the Providence Visitor, arrived to act as Chaplain and teacher in the Philosophy and Theology Departments of Salve Regina College. He has a Ph.D. degree from St. Louis University in Philosophy.
- 3 Announcement was made today by Sister Mary Rosalia, R.S.M., Dean, of the Continuing Education Program for the forthcoming academic year. Twelve late afternoon and early evening courses will be offered, with the program commencing on Monday, October 4. Courses are offered to teachers for renewal of certificates, and advanced work in specialized areas is also provided. A special course "The Functions of The Supervisory Teacher" will be taught by Miss Marguerite Brennan, for 7 meetings, beginning January 10, 1966.
- As a part of this program, and as a continuation of the workshop offered during the recently concluded summer session, there will be a projected Two-year Program in Special Education, to prepare teachers of the mentally retarded for certification in Rhode Island and other nearby states. The program extends through the summer session of 1967.

- September 5 Two Sisters of Charity, Sister Mary Lucille Ann and Sister Mary Lawrence of St. Elizabeth's College, Convent Station, New Jersey, stayed over night at the College. Sister Lucille Ann is Dean of Admissions at St. Elizabeth's.
- 6 Senior students (37) who will be doing practice teaching during the first semester of the coming year arrived on the campus today. They will attend a meeting at Rogers High School in advance of the opening of the public schools. This important phase of the preparation of Salve Regina students for teaching careers is under the direction of Sister Mary Janice, R.S.M., College Supervisor of Student Teachers in the Elementary schools, and Dr. E. William Burrell, College Supervisor of Student Teachers in the Secondary schools.
- 7 Rev. Harry Marchosky arrived in Newport today. Father Marchosky, of the Diocese of Quebec, will reside at Salve Regina College for a year. He will serve as Chaplain and teacher in the Theology Department. He is also writing his Ph.D. thesis, for Laval University, in Quebec, Canada.
- 8 A letter was received by Sister Mary Augustine, R.S.M, Director of the Division of Nursing, from the Public Health Service of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (Division of Nursing) notifying the College of a Grant (#NT 109) for Professional Nurse Traineeship. The sum of $10,020.00, is to run from September 1, 1965 to August 31, 1966.
- 9 The four Salve Regina College Juniors who will study in France during the coming year, sailed from New York today for Europe.
- 9 The First Faculty Meeting of the new academic year was held today in Miley Hall. It commenced at 9:30 in the morning, for registration and a general meeting, at which Faculty were welcomed by Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M, College President, and Sister Mary Rosalia, R.S.M, Dean, and Special Reports were given. Following luncheon and a talk on the United Fund, the program continued in the afternoon in separate departmental meetings.
- 11 A meeting of Class Agents of the Alumnae Association was held in the Alumnae Lounge, Miley Hall, at 2:00 P.M. today. Sister Mary Augustine, R.S.M., Alumnae Moderator, presided.
- 16 Sister Mary Janice was appointed to serve during 1965-1966 as representative of the college on the Research and Membership Committees of the Rhode Island Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development.
- 13 Freshmen (210) arrived for Freshman Week Activities. They represent 100 cities in 12 states. They will take tests, meet for orientation lectures and register for classes. Other activities include an assembly on "This is Newport and Rhode Island"; a tour of Newport by bus; and an invitation picnic sponsored by Providence College at Lincoln Woods on Saturday.

. . . 1965 . . .

September 18, 1965

Sister Mary Christopher, Sister Ralph Mary, and Sister Mary Emily attended the Vesper Service held at St. Spyridon's Greek Orthodox Church as a part of the Church's 50th Anniversary Commemoration. The Service was conducted by His Eminence, Archbishop Iakovos, the Primate of the Greek Church in North and South America.

- 19 Sister Mary Emily, Sister Mary Christopher, and Sister Ralph Mary attended the Banquet for the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of St. Spyridon's Church, held at the Hotel Viking. Greetings were brought by various dignitaries, and Sister Mary Emily was among those special guests introduced to the gathering. His Eminence, Archbishop Iakovos, was the principal speaker.
- 20 His Eminence, Archbishop Iakovos, was the guest of Salve Regina College at a dinner in the State Dining Room, preceding his scheduled Address in the Great Hall in the evening. Guests at the dinner included, in addition to the Archbishop and his Secretary, the three priests at the College - Father Marchosky, Father Reilly, and Father Schenick - Father Spyridon Papademetriou, Pastor of St. Spyridon's Church, Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Director of Development of the College, Mr. Constantine Hologgitas, Mr. Chris Caragianis, and Attorney Dean Lewis.

Following the dinner, approximately 150 invited guests and members of the college faculty and administration, as well as a large number of the college students assembled in the Great Hall to hear Archbishop Iakovos. His Eminence was introduced by Sister Mary Emily, College President. Following his address, the Archbishop opened the meeting to questions from the audience. Refreshments were served later in the State Dining Room to give members of the audience an opportunity to greet His Eminence. The Archbishop consented to make a copy of his speech available to Sister Mary Emily, in order that those wishing it may request a copy from the President's Office.

- 20 This was the first day of classes of the new academic year. The Year was officially opened by celebration of the Mass of the Holy Spirit in the College Chapel.

The Academic Calendar for the first semester includes Honors Convocation on September 30; a Mid-Semester at November 11; Thanksgiving Recess at noon on November 24; Christmas Vacation beginning December 17; Reading Days on Monday and Tuesday, January 17 and 18; Final Exams From January 19 to January 26, 1966.

The enrollment for the year 1965-1966 is 770 students with 210 freshmen. There are 13 states represented and 6 foreign countries. Approximately 55 per cent of the student body resides on campus.

. . . 1965 . . .

September

- 24 and 25 A Conference on the Status of English Teaching in Rhode Island was held at the college, under the Co-Sponsorship of the Rhode Island Council of Teachers of English and the National Council. The general Chairman was Dr. E. William Burrell, President of the Rhode Island Council. Dr. Burrell joined the English Department of the college this fall, having been a teacher at Classical High School in Providence previously. After a general meeting, sessions were turned over to Group discussion meetings on various phases of English teaching in the state. Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M., College President, gave the welcoming address to the meeting.
- 25 A Visit to the College by Miss Louise Vialle, of the School Department of Glamour Magazine, for luncheon and a chance to talk with the students and others about the college. Dr. Brasted took part in the discussions. Upon her return from her tour of New England colleges and schools she will report back to the Editor of her Department, and pass on to her information about Salve Regina College.
- 29 A supper meeting of the Officers of the Fathers' Council was held in Miley Hall. Dr. Brasted was in charge of arrangements. Father-Daughter Week-end is October 23 and 24.
- 30 The Annual Honors Convocation was held on Ochre Court Terrace at 2:30 P. M. It was a sunny day, but the wind was off the water, and it was more chilly than had been anticipated when the decision was made in the morning to hold it outside. (At that time, it was expected that it would warm up considerably.) There were 27 upperclassmen who received fourrageres, and a total of 50 upperclassmen who were recognized for having made the Dean's List for the last semester of the academic year 1964-1965. The address was given by the Very Reverend William Paul Haas, O.P., the new President of Providence College. Invocation and prayer were given by Rev. John P. Reilly, College Chaplain. Many friends and parents of the students being honored were present at the exercises.
- 30 The Executive Board of the Alumnae Association held a supper meeting in Miley Hall.

October

- 2 The Salve Regina Guild held a Bridge party in the afternoon. There were a great many prizes offered. Mother Provincial, Sister Mary Philomena, Sister Mary Victor and Sister Mary Othilda attended.
- 3 The Fatima Pilgrimage was held at Mount St. Rita. The speaker for the occasion was Father Driscoll, of Fall River. 48 girls and 10 Sisters attended from the College.
- 6 Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Rosalia attended the College Commission of Presidents and Deans of Mercy Colleges, at the Mayflower Hotel, in Washington, D. C.
- 7 & 8 Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Rosalia attended the American Council on Education meetings at the Mayflower. They resided at the Dupont Plaza. (Nice hotel - SME).

. . . 1965 . . .

October

7 &amp; 8

The College's first Guest Lecturer of the Academic Year was Dr. Richard Pattee, of the University of Laval, Quebec, Canada. He addressed various classes and seminars, the students attending the lectures presented in the Great Hall, Ochre Court. His lecture on Contemporary World Issues, in which he spoke mainly about the Continent of Africa and the problems of the various states there, was held at 7:30 in the evening of October 7th, and was open to the public. Quite a number of visitors were in attendance, and there was an enthusiastic response to his offer to answer questions following the lecture. A copy of the complete program is attached.

8

The Art Club, under sponsorship of Sister Mary Mercedes, R. S. M., head of the Art Department, has been organized for the 1965-1966 college year. Officers are: President: Janice Chenail; Vice-President, Carolyn Schaffer; Secretary, Adrienne Guilmette; Social Chairman, Diana LaCazette. Meetings will be held once a month, and the program has already been drawn up for the year, each meeting with a different subject.

8

Sodalists' Convention, New York City. Sister M. Elaine to supply details, names of delegates, etc.

9

Sister Mary Rosalia and Sister Mary Emily attended the inauguration of the Very Rev. William Paul Haas, O. P., as President of Providence College, and also the Inauguration Concert by the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra in Veterans Auditorium, Providence. Three Sisters from St. Xavier's accompanied "us" (SME): Sister Marie Marguerite, Sister Mary Paulette, and Sister Mary Rochelle.

12

The Faculty attended a movie, "The Sound of Music", shown especially for Sisters in the Durfee Theatre in Fall River. Mr. John McAvoy was the admirable host, who treated us to popcorn, coke, and free prizes.

13

The Freshman-Sophomore Party was held on McAuley grounds at 4:00 P. M.

The ceremony of induction into the Home Economics Club was held in Mercy Hall at 7:00 P. M.

Sister Mary Augustine attended a meeting of the State Nursing Association, at the Nurses' Headquarters, in Providence.

An evening meeting of the Newport Area Fathers' Council was held at Ochre Court. Sister Mary Emily gave a greeting to the group, and the remainder of the evening was under the direction of Dr. Michael Walsh. The purpose of the meeting was to orient the members so that they could be helpful in making the rest of the fathers feel at home on Father-Daughter Week-end.

14

A meeting of the Executive Board of New Visions for Newport County was held in the drawing room at 7:00 P. M. Sister Mary Christopher is President of the Board.

... 1965 ...

October

- 15 About 30 girls and 12 Sisters attended a lecture on "Dante and His Times" by Father Foerster, O.P., at Providence College, at 8:15 P.M. The group was transported by bus.
- 16 Two Sisters of Loretto, Mother Evangelista, and Mother Mary of the Rosary, from Manchester, England, spend the day here. Their Community intends to open a new four-year college. They were particularly interested in our Home Economics Program. Two Holy Cross Sisters took them back to Cardinal Cushing College about 5:30 P.M.
- 17 The Salve Regina Guild sponsored a Reception for Freshman Mothers, in the Great Hall at 3:00 P.M. Short talks to the mothers concerning freshmen were given by Sister Mary Petronilla, Sister Mary Emily, Sister Mary Rosalia, Sister Mary Donald, and Sister Mary Wilhelmina; and Sister Mary Martina gave a brief history of the Guild and its activities. Musical selections by members of the student body interspersed the talks.
- Sister Mary Augustine and Sister Ralph Mary took part in a program on Medical Careers, at Bay View, at 8:00 P.M.
- 18 A Meeting of the Newport Chapter of the Salve Regina College Alumnae Association was held at the Muenchinger-King Hotel. New Members were welcomed. Commander Peter Ferrari, Chaplain, USN, spoke on Parent-Child Relationships.
- 18 Meeting of the Student Nurses' Association of Rhode Island (SNARI) was held in Miley Hall Dining Room at 7:30 P.M.
- 19 A Lecture was given by Rev. Robert J. Banks, of Brighton Seminary, a Canonist, at 7:00 P.M., in Ochre Court, to a large audience of students. His topic was the Laws of the Church Body on Ecumenism.
- 20 Mrs. Buell Mullin, an artist, and her agent, Mr. John Leonard, met with college representatives to discuss a wall decoration or painting which is supposed to be the gift of an as yet unknown donor.
- Mrs. Forsythe Wickes, as a result of a thank-you letter sent to her for a book she had sent for our Library, sent us a check for $100, for library books for the Art Department.
- Sister Mary Christopher, R.S.M., attended a meeting of the Newport Council of Community Services at the Viking Hotel. Senator Pell addressed the group concerning the Medicare Bill and also spoke on Higher Education. Mr. Myles Santamour is presently President of the Council. Also attending were Mr. McKenna, Father Schenick, and Sister Mary Donald, R.S.M.
- 20-21 Meeting of Nurses Association and R. I. State League for Nursing, at Colony Motor Hotel. SRC Faculty and students attended the various activities.

... 1965 ...

October

- 21 Sister Marilyn and Sister Bernard Mary attended a Convention of Rhode Island Social Workers, at the Biltmore Hotel in Providence.
- Mr. Kurtz and Mr. Butler delivered another set of plans to the college, for Faculty consideration and possible changes.
- 22 Senior Nursing Majors were hostesses to members of the Future Nurses Clubs of Rhode Island, in the Drawing Room of Ochre Court this morning. A tour of the building followed the meeting.
- Salve Regina College was notified that it had been accepted into the Honor Society, Delta Epsilon Sigma, by Father Friedman, of Loras College, Dubuque, Iowa, who is Secretary of the National Society.
- A Leadership Meeting of the Fathers' Council was held in the Lounge of the Viking Hotel at 8:00 P. M. Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Rosalia were present, as well as the officers of the Council, members of the Executive Board, and area Chairmen and Co-chairmen. The purpose of the meeting was to arouse enthusiasm among the leaders for the inauguration of a Century Club in the Fathers Council. The idea was to present it to the general group on Saturday.
- Sister Marilyn and Sister Mariella showed slides and gave an informal talk about their experiences in Central America, to the members of the Novitiate at Mount St. Rita's.
- 23 An all day meeting of the New England Area History Conference was held at Regis College. Sister Martina, Sister Mary Antonine, Sister Mary Wilhelmina, and Sister Mary Patrician were present.
- 23-24 Father-Daughter Week-end followed the usual pattern. Two sample classes were held in the morning on Saturday, with luncheon at Miley Hall; a general meeting in the afternoon at 1:30, in Mercy Hall, and area meetings at 2:30. Class dinners were held at four different places at 6:30, and there was a dance in the Great Hall at 8:30 in the evening. On Sunday morning, Mass was celebrated at 10:00 o'clock in the De La Salle Auditorium, followed by breakfast in the Dining Room at Miley Hall.
- 24 Sister Mary Rosalia and Sister Mary Audrey left to attend the CEEB meetings in New York City. Later in the week they went to New Rochelle for a meeting of the Catholic College Coordinating Committee for admissions.
- 26 Members of the Science Department had a meeting with one of the architects, Mr. Kurtz, in Mercy Hall, from 6:30 to 9:30 P. M. Mr. Denning would like another meeting with the Science Department on November 1st at 10:30 A. M. in Mercy Hall.

... 1965 ...

October

28

Miss Joan David represented the college at the Annual Fall Meeting of the Rhode Island Council of Teachers of English at the Sheraton-Biltmore, in Providence. Dr. E. William Burrell, of the English Department, is President of the Council.

The Freshman Class gave "Command Performance" in honor of the Sophomores, to mark the end of their initiation period.

29

Sister Marilyn Sullivan has been appointed to serve as the delegate from this Province on a Committee to Study Proposals and Plans relative to Nursing Education, in conjunction with Sisters from other provinces.

November

1

The second meeting of the architects and the Science Department took place today. It was an all day meeting.

Sister Mary Nolasco, Sister Mary Andrea, Sister Mary Ignatius and Sister Mary Emily visited the Language Laboratory at Harvard University. Dr. Humphrey, Mr. Miller, and Mrs. Salmon graciously demonstrated the equipment and informed us of all the details of the Laboratory.

Nov. 3-5

Sister Mary Audrey and Sister Mary Dionysia attended the New England Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers' meetings, held at the Sheraton-Plaza Hotel, in Boston.

Sister Mary Augustine and Miss Lucille Sullivan attended a meeting of the National Nurses' Association, in Washington, D.C. The topic discussed was "Exploring Progress in Nursing Practice".

3

A Meeting was held in Ochre Court of the Extension Volunteers, at 3:00 P. M. Mr. Larry Benzie, accompanied by Father Shelton, interviewed the girls and remained for supper.

4

Mr. Paul Quinlan, S.J., of Weston, came to the college to give a Concert of Psalms set to Folk Music, in the evening. After classes in the afternoon, a record-autographing session was held in the Bookstore in Miley Hall.

6

Father Theodore Schmults conducted the Day of Recollection of the Sodalists. Twelve girls were received into the Sodality.

6-7

The Fall Week-end took place. A dance was held at the Viking Hotel on Saturday evening. There was a sing-along at Sully's on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Leo Con-nerton entertained.

9

A meeting of the Rhode Island Chapter for the Retarded was held in Ochre Court. Dr. R. Kugel, of Brown University, was the speaker. The brochure of the Association is attached hereto.

...1965...

November

- 12 Several members of the faculty attended a lecture by Reverend Robert McNally, S. J. at La Salle Academy.
- 13 Sophomore Class held the November Nocturne at the Great Hall.
- 14 The Art Club held a meeting in the Drawing Room at 3 p. m. There was an exhibition and discussion on Colonial Samplers. Meeting was open to the public.
- 15 An Administration meeting was held at 10 a. m.
- 16 The English Department sponsored a lecture on Oriental Literature given by Dr. John Tsu of Seton Hall University.
- 19 The Glee Club gave a concert with Fordham University at Fordham, New York. Sister Mary Rosina, Sister Mary Philemon, and Mrs. Van Slyke accompanied them.
- Sister Mary Emily and Sister Mary Rosalia attended a Seminar on "Planning for College and University Facilities" at the Sheraton East Hotel, New York City.
- 19-20 Sister Mary Audrey and Sister Mary Augustine attended College Day meetings in New York with those who were interested in Catholic Colleges in the East.
- 19-21 Regional Meeting of the C. C. D. at Assumption College. Sister Mary Mercedes attended.
- 20 Regional Meeting of the Society of Catholic College Teachers of Sacred Doctrine was held at Providence College. Sister Mary Thecla, Sister Mary Columcille and Sister Mary Magdala attended.
- Peace Corps examinations were given at 9:15 a. m.
- 21 Salve Regina Guild held its meeting in the State Dining Room at 3 p. m. A lecture on Flower Arranging was given and demonstrated by Mrs. Everett Aspinwall.
- 23 The classes were dismissed at noon for Thanksgiving Holidays.

...1965...

November

- 25-27 Sister Mary Jean, Sister Mary Andrea, Sister Mary Janice and Sister Mary Emily attended the National Meeting of the Teachers of English in Boston. Dr. William Burrell is President of the Rhode Island Chapter.
- 29 Home Economics Department held its Christmas Party in Mercy Hall at 7:00 p.m.
- 30 The Newport Alumnae held a Fashion Show in the Great Hall at 8 p.m. Maureen Hull was the Chairman.

December

- 1 Sister Mary Sylvia and Sister Marie Sarah gave a lecture to students concerning their experiences in Southern Universities during the summer. It was held in Miley Hall at 7 p.m.
- 3 Basketball game between Salve Regina and Bryant College.
- 7 Senator Clayton Pell gave a lecture at Great Hall on "The U. N. After Twenty Years-Success or Failure". A discussion was followed by a coffee hour.
- 8 Sister Mary Venard, Sister Frederick Mary attended a workshop on Financial Policies and the Work-Study Program held at the Hotel Sheraton Motor Inn in New York City.
- 9 Four Faculty members and twenty students attended the Fourth Annual College-Business Symposium presented by the Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel.
- The Inauguration of Dr. William Flannigan was held at Rhode Island College. Dr. Brasted represented Salve Regina College.
- Father Edward <sup>Flannery</sup> Flaherty gave a lecture in the Great Hall at 7:30 p.m. The title of his lecture was "The Anguish of the Jews, a Christian Concern." Father is the author of the book "Anguish of the Jews."
- 10 A meeting of the architects at 10:00 a.m. for the planning of the Academic Building.

...1965...

December

- 11 Diamond Jubilee of the American Chemical Society was celebrated at Salve Regina. The dinner was held at Miley Hall followed by a dance at Ochre Court.
- Salve Regina basketball team played Rivier College in New Hampshire.
- 12 The Salve Regina Glee Club gave their Christmas Concert under direction of Mrs. Van Slyke. Mrs. Joyce Mangler Carlson accompanied on the harp and gave solo selections.
- 13 The annual Christmas party for underprivileged children was held at Mercy Hall under the sponsorship of the Sodality.
- 15 The French Department held their traditional "Buche de Noel" in the State Dining Room at 4 p. m.
- The Spanish Club held its Christmas Program in the Chapel at 7 p. m. followed by repast and carol singing in the State Dining Room.
- 16 The Holly Dinner took place in Miley Hall for the girls and the State Dining Room for the faculty. This was followed by the traditional candlelight ceremony.
- 17 Christmas vacation began after the last class.
- 28-31 Retreat by Reverend W. Richard Bidwell, S. J. of Cranwell Preparatory School, Lenox, Massachusetts.

January

- 2 Sister Mary Joycelin came to the College to prepare herself in Spanish to begin a second semester at Catholic University in Washington.
- 3 Classes resume.
- 4 Dr. Paul van Thomson gave a memorial lecture on T. S. Eliot at 7:15 p. m. in the Great Hall.

LECTURE PROGRAM - DR. RICHARD PATTEE

October 7 and 8, 1965
Great Hall - Ochre Court

Sponsored by International Relations Club - Salve Regina College

Thursday, October 7

10:00 A. M.	Some Aspects of Underdevelopment and Aid
12:00 noon	Tensions and Strife in Latin America
3:00 P. M.	A Candid View of South Africa
7:30 P. M.	Contemporary World Issues	OPEN TO PUBLIC

Friday, October 8

9:00 A. M.	Portugal in Africa
11:00 A. M.	The Church in Latin America
2:00 P. M.	Brazil: Promise or Tragedy

STUDENTS AND FACULTY MEMBERS ARE INVITED TO | ATTEND THIS SERIES OF LECTURES

for Binding with Historical Outline