Acknowledgments

We are very much indebted to many for the encouragement given us to accomplish this work:

To Sister Marie Andre Guay, R.S.M., a member of what was then known as the Provincial Team, for her enthusiasm and confidence in us when, with some misgiving, we first broached the subject to her. We thank her for opening the way for our initial steps in our research.

To Sister Mary Brenda Sullivan, R.S.M., our friend and colleague for many years at Salve Regina University, who not only monitored our progress but assumed the role of our publicity agent in some respects.

To Sister Eleanor Little, R.S.M., archivist at Salve Regina University, who reassured us by offering her help, providing us with a place to work, thus giving us ready access to the shelves of the University library.

To Sister Catherine Felton, R.S.M., archivist of Regional Community of Providence, for graciously loaning us copies of The Jesus Psalter and the Original Rule.

To Ms. Estelle Bouley, Mercy Associate, for her critical reading of the manuscript and her valuable comments.

To Ms. Jean Cavanaugh, Director of Communications for the Sisters of Mercy of the Regional Community of Providence, for offering to type the original manuscript and bring it to completion.

To the Regional Leadership Team for officially placing the seal of Mercy on our humble endeavors.
