Membership in the Newport Historical Society is renewed annually. Those interested in becoming members are cordially invited to contact the Society or visit its website at www.newporthistorical.org. All correspondence regarding membership, including subscriptions to Newport History, should be addressed to the Society. Newport History is published twice a year by the Newport Historical Society Museum and Library with the assistance of a grant from the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Donald Carcieri, Governor. Articles appearing in Newport History are abstracted in Historical Abstracts and/or America: History and Life published by the American Biographical Center. Newport History solicits original articles on any aspect of Newport County history. All submissions will be considered by the Publications Committee for publication. Obtain information from the editor by contacting Society headquarters.

The Newport Historical Society
Museum and Library

The Newport Historical Society has maintained a library and museum of Newport and Rhode Island history since its incorporation in 1854. For almost 150 years the Society has continued to grow in membership and in the extent and diversity of its collection.

Society activities include lectures, walking tours, and educational outreach programs and special events. The Seventh Day Baptist Meeting House, built in 1730, now attached to the main building, is a treasure of colonial architecture. The library and manuscript collections contain a wealth of information for researchers.

HOURS: The Society’s research facilities are open to the public Tuesday through Friday 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. Saturday 9:30 A.M. to 12 Noon

For information on current exhibits and programs please call (401) 846-0813 or visit the Society’s website at www.newporthistorical.org.

The Museum of Newport History at the Brick Market is an entertaining, multidimensional exhibit of over 350 years of Newport history told through objects, images, and paintings, as well as state-of-the-art interactive computers and videos. On display are examples of Newport’s finest colonial furniture and manuscripts, as well as artifacts representing all walks of life from Newport’s colorful past.

The Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House, 17 Broadway, illustrates the history of Colonial America through the daily life of individual Newporters. Open Seasonally.

The Great Friends Meeting House, built in 1699 and the oldest religious structure in Newport, is open seasonally.
