Mr. John Yale,

Dear Sir:-

I beg to forward prices to you for painting fences and gates at Mr. Ogden Goelet's house, this city, and stables connected with same.

Having carefully gone over the gates this winter, I am convinced from my own personal observation of them, that nothing but the most careful overhauling and the best of material procurable will be of any use on any of the iron work, consequently I send you my price, allowing for a first class job only.

I agree to give the gates and fences a through overhauling and one (1) good coat of paint, consisting of the best linseed oil and pure color, for the sum of $235.00 (Two hundred and Thirty Five Dollars)

Yours very truly,

Signed N. Thos. Hodson.
