RECEPTION FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS:

The Graduate Studies Office of Salve Regina - The Newport College is hosting a pre-Thanksgiving reception Tuesday, November 24, for all enrolled or prospective graduate students of the College. The reception will be held in Ochre Court, Salve's administration building, from 6:30 to 8:00 pm. Light refreshments will be served.

The purpose of the reception is to provide a combination social event for current graduate students and an informal informational session for prospective students who wish to learn more about the College's programs, through its current students and graduate faculty.

EDUCATION VIA RADIO GUESTS TO DISCUSS LEADER, FOUNDERS OF TOURO SYNAGOGUE.

Touro Synagogue's Rabbi Theodore Lewis and Joseph Caufield are the scheduled guests for the upcoming "Education Via Radio" program, Wednesday, November 25.

Rabbi Lewis is a native of Dublin, Ireland, graduating from Trinity College there. He is also an honorary degree recipient from Salve Regina. Joe is a senior majoring in history and theatre.

Historical Newporters to be discussed include Moses Seixas, one-time rabbi of Touro Synagogue, the oldest synagogue in North America and an historical landmark. Seixas is distinguished for the famous "Washington letter."

Abraham and Isaac Touro, for whom the synagogue is named, were wealthy, influential individuals who helped finance the American Revolution.

UNITED WAY APPEAL

A hearty congratulations to all who contributed to this year's United Way Appeal! Of 187 individuals who contributed, out of a possible 243, $6,151. was pledged. That amounts to an average pledge of $33. and exceeds last year's total by a whopping $1,113. Best of all, our projected goal this year was $5,602.18, already up 11 per cent from last year, so once again you have generously given far above all expectations. Thank you for your kindness, and God bless you!

FACULTY NEWS

Recently Brother Francis Nolan and Sister Elizabeth McAuliffe attended the Second New England Conference on Teaching Students to Think. The Conference, sponsored by the Council of Presidents, New England Land Grant Universities and held at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, serves as a forum for college and university faculty members to share their insights and experiences with colleagues.

Sister Mary Smith, college archivist, is attending a workshop at the National Archives in Washington, D. C. Historians, social scientists, archivists and curators were invited to participate in the week long workshop. The workshop will consist of lectures and a laboratory course in research techniques. The program will provide one afternoon for independent research.

BROTHER GENE, GUEST ON TV PROGRAM

Take time Sunday, November 29, to watch Brother Gene Lappin on Channel 12's "Front and Center" program. The program airs at 1:30 pm, and Brother Gene will be discussing the College's new M.A.L.S. program with Channel 12's host Hank Bouchard. Break a leg, Brother Gene!

ANTHOLOGY DUE IN BOOKSTORE

Paperback copies of Shared Harvest, Sister M. Loretto O'Connor's book, will be available in the college bookstore beginning the week of November 30, 1981. They retail at $9.75 per copy.

Though this anthology demonstrates the continuity of English prose, it will also be useful in other disciplines - history of England and of Ireland, European history, history of Western Civilization, philosophy, religious studies and education.

ATTENTION SENIORS!

WHAT! NO YEARBOOK???

You may be asking this question sooner than you think! The yearbook staff is working hard to produce the most outstanding yearbook ever, but without your cooperation, there may never be a yearbook for the graduates of 1982 to treasure.

The staff has several deadlines to meet. Help us make these deadlines by putting a minimum $5.00 deposit down before the Thanksgiving Break. Total cost is $17.00. Orders will be taken November 18-20 in O'Hare Lobby and November 23, 24.

Do you have time and ideas you wish to share? Meet with us on Sunday nights, 8:00 pm in Miley Haven. All welcome!

ATTENTION COMMUTERS:

Do you want to help out the yearbook staff and see yourself in the yearbook? Get together with your roommates and friends and have a staff photographer come to your apartment or favorite gathering place to "put your faces in the right places!"

For appointment call Diane Griffin, 846-4573, and a staff photographer will come to your place at your convenience.

BOOKSTORE NOTICE:

Now until Thanksgiving, all sweaters, jackets and sweatwear are 20% off. There are great savings on lamps, Buxton wallets and gift books.
