NORTHEAST REHABILITATION ASSOCIATION NAMES ROBERT J. MCKENNA OUTSTANDING LEGISLATOR OF THE YEAR

State Senator Robert J. McKenna was named Outstanding Legislator of the Year by the Northeast Rehabilitation Association (NERA) at its 1982 awards banquet held Thursday, May 27 in Bretton Woods, New Hampshire.

Senator McKenna was named this year's recipient for his sponsorship of legislation for the independent living program for handicapped individuals, and more specifically, for his work on the Personal Care Attendant (PCA) program.

Earlier this year, Senator McKenna was named the Outstanding Rhode Island Legislator of the Year by the Rhode Island Rehabilitation Association. Again, this award was made in recognition of his legislative leadership and achievement in facilitating rehabilitation opportunities for the disabled.

This will be the third award Senator McKenna has received in the last two years for his work in this area. In 1980 he received the Hubert H. Humphrey award from the Rhode Island Handicapped Action Committee for his work on PCA legislation.

CHEIRON

The 14th annual meeting of CHEIRON: THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF THE BEHAVIORAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCES will be held at Salve Regina College from Wednesday June 23 to Saturday June 26, 1982. The conference will bring together about 100 participants from all quarters of North America, from Wales, East Germany, Yugoslavia, Israel and elsewhere for the exchange of scholarly ideas through the media of workshops and formal scholarly paper sessions. A reception will be held in the Great Hall of Ochre Court on Wednesday evening the 23rd and a banquet will take place there on Friday evening, June 25th. Salve Regina College Faculty and others are welcome to participate. Registration for the full conference is $35.00 ($5.00 of which goes toward membership in the Cheiron Society). Faculty may register for one day (any day) for $15.00, These fees include refreshments. Anyone registering for the full conference may attend the reception without charge. Attendance at the banquet or other functions requires additional fees. Anyone with questions about this truly international scholarly event should contact Dr. Anthony Walsh at extension 342. For the information of all, Salve Regina College was chosen as the site over invitations from the University of Rome, the University of Heidelberg, the University of Toronto, Vassar and a consortium of three New York City Universities as a result of a presentation by Dr. Walsh before the Society in Bowdoin, Maine in 1980.

BON VOYAGE TO SISTER ANN NELSON

Sister Ann Nelson will be leaving for her sabbatical on Wednesday, June 23. Sister Ann has accepted an appointment as Visiting Fellow in the Department of Political Science, Faculty of Arts at The Australian National University in Canberra for a six month period starting in mid-July.

Sister Ann will be stopping off in Hawaii and Japan on her way to Australia.

We all wish her a most enriching and enjoyable sabbatical and will be looking forward to welcoming her back for the Spring Semester.

UNITED WAY

Last week Sister Esther Whalen, chairman for the 1981 United Way campaign on campus, attended a United Way awards dinner.

At the dinner Salve received a Silver Award for the outstanding support the United Way received from Salve employees.

Salve College employees deserve a round of applause for this achievement. Salve and Providence College received the Silver Award which was the highest obtained by any of the Rhode Island Colleges.

1982 must be Salve's gold year!!!

CONGRATULATIONS, LORI AND SUSAN

Lori L'Esperance and Susan Willis have just won a $750 scholarship each, it was announced by Barbara Bush, scholarship committee chairperson of the Women's Advertising Club of Rhode Island.

The competition was open to full time students coming from or studying in Rhode Island who plan careers in advertising, commercial art, communications, marketing, or retailing.

The awards were based on career objectives, academic achievement, and faculty recommendation. Susan and Lori were among some dozen Salve students who applied.

The awards are to be presented at a banquet held in Providence on Monday, June 14. Recipients and their parents have been invited.

GRADUATE SCHOOL ALUMNA TO DIRECT WORKSHOP

"Movement Education for Children with Learning Disabilities," is the subject of a summer workshop to be offered June 25 to July 9.

The workshop, designed for teachers, parents and related professionals will run 10 sessions, Monday through Friday from 6 to 9:30 p.m. Three credits may be earned for this course.

The workshop will be conducted by Newport resident Joya Hoyt, a movement specialist now in California running similar workshops. Hoyt introduces participants to movement as dance therapy specifically designed for the child with learning disabilities.

Hoyt holds a master of arts degree in human development from Salve Regina College. She has previously taught classes for the learning disabled at the University of Connecticut.

Individuals may register for this workshop and other summer session classes by calling the Graduate Office, 847-6650, ext. 260.
