SALVE REGINA COLLEGE DANCE MARATHON
RAISES MORE THAN $9,000 FOR THE
AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION

Salve students raised more than $9,065 for the Rhode Island affiliate of the American Heart Association during the second annual dance marathon in November.

One-hundred-twenty students entered the "Dance for Heart" marathon, sponsored by the Student Life Senate and the Office of College Activities. Of these students, 112 completed the 20-hour event. Dozens of area businesses contributed money, food, beverages, T-shirts, gift certificates and dinners for the event.

Winners of the first-place prize, a seven-day trip to Orlando, Florida, were Nina Speropolous, a junior from Lynn, Mass., and Carolyn Burrows, a sophomore from North Attleboro, Mass. The pair's pledge returns totaled more than $1,400. Second-place winner was Alan Marsilio, a Coast Guard Academy cadet from New London, Conn., who collected $984. Marsilio won a $150 gift certificate to the store of his choice. Paula Caissie, a freshman from Waltham, Mass., won the third-place prize of a 10-speed bike for raising $611. The Heart Association donated each of these prizes.

PROVIDENCE OPERA THEATRE WILL PRESENT A CONCERT/LECTURE

The themes of the opera TOSCA will be discussed at the Concert/Lecture series to be offered at Salve on Wednesday, February 16, 1983, 7:30 p.m. in Ochre Court. In this program series, opera will be used as a point of departure to discuss the social, historical, political, and literary circumstances surrounding both the writing and subject matter of the libretto and score of TOSCA which the Providence Opera Theatre is offering this spring.

Professor Nancy Harlow of the Roger Williams Humanities Division will discuss images and ideas that TOSCA conveys about women, their social roles, and especially the way they function as icons within the imaginations of the male characters.

Professor Kenneth Lewalski of the Rhode Island College History department will examine Revolution and Napoleonic ideology, and the problems which arise from the betrayal of the ideals of the Revolution.

Professor Edward Markward of Rhode Island College Music department and Assistant Conductor/Chorus Master of the Providence Opera Theatre will serve as commentator, giving a short synopsis of the opera and leading the musical segment. Four vocalists will portray principal roles from the opera, TOSCA, by Puccini.

This series is funded by a grant from the Rhode Island Committee for the Humanities, an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

PROVIDENCE ALUMNI CHAPTER DINNER

A dinner for the Providence Chapter of the Salve Regina College Alumni Association will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 16 at Eileen Darling's restaurant, Seekonk, MA. Members of the College administration will be present to update alumni on College news and to answer questions.

For reservations or more information, call Maureen Oates Sweeney ('53) dinner chairperson at 353-222, or Darlene Regula Ferland ('75), coordinator of the Providence Chapter Alumni Association at 723-9889.

ROTARY CLUB OF NEWPORT SCHOLARSHIP

The Rotary Club of Newport, Rhode Island wishes to announce the availability of application forms for the Rotary Foundation scholarships for the academic year 1984-85.

Scholarships are available in the fields of Graduate, Undergraduate, Vocational, Teacher of the Handicapped, and Journalism. This program provides an opportunity for study abroad to outstanding men and women who are interested in world affairs and can fulfill a dual role of student and "ambassador of good will". The Scholarship offers qualified students, practitioners, journalists, and teachers an opportunity to contribute to better understanding between the peoples of the United States and other countries while pursuing their own career interests.

A candidate for the Foundation Education Award must not be a Rotarian or a relative of a Rotarian and must be both an outstanding student, practitioner, journalist, or teacher. Anyone interested in applying should request an application by writing to the Rotary Club of Newport, Rhode Island, P.O. Box 164, Newport, Rhode Island, Attention: Scholarship Committee. The final date for receipt of applications and supplementary documents is March 1, 1983.

For additional information contact Mr. Carl Nykaza, Ext. 220.
