

2-24-1984

Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 10

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 10" (1984). newsbulletin. 335.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/335>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

NEWSBULLETIN

---

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

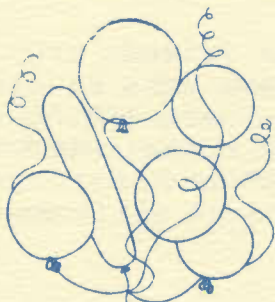

Vol. 14 No. 10

February 24, 1984

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

How would you like to go to the Mardi Gras? The Student Life Senate is planning a Mardi Gras celebration on Saturday, March 3 in Ochre Court from 8 p.m. to 12 a.m. This is intended as an event which will involve the entire College community.

We are seeking students, staff and faculty who would like to take an active part in making this evening a success. Artists, jugglers, mimes, musicians, minstrels, magicians, clowns, etc...are needed to mingle among the crowd during the evening. Also, during the Parade of Costumes judges are needed for the Costume Contest.

Anyone wanting to volunteer their services and talents that evening may call Joan Whalen in the College Activities Office at ext. 332.

There will be complimentary hot and cold food served. The price will be $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. The public is invited to attend. Tickets may be purchased in the College Activities Office and are on sale now! For further information call the Activities Office at ext. 332.

* * *

On Thursday evening, March 8, the Little Theatre in Mercy Hall will be the setting of "The Magic of Jack & Company," a magic show featuring Jack Sallesses and his assistants, Karen Holliday, Ellen Toole, Magda Skomal, Karl Ginalski and Ronnie

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

Anderson.

The ensemble will perform in such examples of stage illusion as Houdini's Metamorphosis, swallowing fire, levitation, as well as making someone vanish into thin air -- and then reappear!!

Tickets for the show are $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students and senior citizens. Curtain time will be at 8:00 p.m. For tickets and information call the Theatre Department at ext. 217.

* * *

The staff of Salve Regina is sponsoring a "Portuguese Night" on Saturday, March 24 in Ochre Court. The evening will consist of a sit-down Portuguese dinner, followed by four hours of dancing to the music of the "Roman IV."

All members of the Salve community and their friends are invited. Tickets are going quickly - so call Clara Rosa at ext. 396 or 397 for tickets now!! The entire evening costs $12.50 per person. The proceeds from this night will be contributed to the College and added to the McKillop Scholarship Fund.

* * *

Attention: Today is the last day to submit your application to study abroad in Quebec, Canada. Applications and information are still available outside Sister Theresa McQueeney's Office, room 115, O'Hare Academic Center. For further information about the program contact Sister Theresa at ext. 292.

* * *

The committee on Admission and Retention in Teacher Education Programs will meet March 23 at 10 a.m. Sister Kathryn Murphy will serve as Chairperson of this committee for the next two years.

* * *

All applications for Fall Practicum/Observation and Student Teaching Programs must be filed with Sister Corinne Walsh (Elementary/Secondary) and Special Education with Sister Kathryn Murphy by Tuesday, March 6. Applications must be picked up at Angelus Hall outside rooms 205 and 206. The students who are seeking dual certification in both Elementary and Special Education must fill out both applications.

* * *

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

A word of gratitude to the students and staff members of Salve Regina who serve the Christian community as lectors, liturgical coordinators and Eucharistic Ministers. A special thanks to those students who share their musical talent weekly at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. liturgy in Ochre Court. Our liturgies at Salve are enriched due to this active participation.

If other members of the Salve community are interested in participating in the roles of ministry (i.e. lector, liturgical coordinator, etc.) please do not hesitate to call the Campus Ministry Office at the Gatehouse, ext. 302/389.

* * *

Dr. Elaine Mayer would like to thank all of the students who extended their sympathy and concern during the recent death of her father. It was deeply appreciated.

* * *

Dr. Anthony Walsh, Chairman of the Psychology Department, recently announced that former Salve student, Ms. Joyce Hickey, '78 has been accepted as a doctoral candidate in the Psychology Department at Boston College. Ms. Hickey will be studying Counseling Psychology.

* * *

---

FACULTY NEWS

---

Dr. Mary Louise Greeley recently participated in a workshop on "A Multidisciplinary Approach to Fluids" which was sponsored by the American Society for Medical Technology, at Miriam Hospital in Providence, R.I. During this workshop the participants discussed the genesis of CSF (Cerebral Spinal Fluid), rapid identification of bacterial antigens in fluids, drugs and the blood-brain barrier, normal and abnormal cells in spinal and other fluids, cell counts and the cytopsin preparations.

* * *

Dr. Dennis Robbins, Director of the Graduate Health Services Administration Program, will present a talk on "Ethics and Hospice DRG's" (a new mechanism for reimbursement for Hospice services) with Inge Corless, Director of St. Peter's Hospice, Albany, N.Y. at the International Work Group in Death, Dying and Bereavement. The talk is scheduled for the week of February 28 in Banff, Alberta, Canada.

---

FACULTY NEWS

---

Dr. Robbins will also present a clinical-in-service rounds entitled "On Living Wills and Orders Not to Resuscitate" at the Newport Naval Regional Medical Center on March 13.

Dr. Robbins recently appeared as a guest on Mark Wile's show, "Area 12," Channel 12 and WOTB's "Coastline" discussing topics on "Health Law and Health Care Ethics."

* * *

---

SPORTS

---

Although the College was on semester break, the athletic program continued to operate. The men's and women's basketball team remained on campus for practices and games. Coaches Paul Gamache and William Campbell continue to maintain the commitment and morale of the men and women on our teams. The final scores of past games do not reflect the spirit and determination that has characterized Salve basketball this season.

* * *

The Women's Track and Field participated in the Holy Cross Women's Invitational on Sunday, February 12th. Sophomore Eloise Evans placed first in the 800 meter and third in the 1500 meter. Annmarie Simmons placed 4th in the shot. Out of twenty-seven teams, Salve placed seventh overall.

* * *

Gerald Willis participated in the Salem Y.M.C.A. Open Weight Lifting Championship, February 5th, taking home the first place trophy in the 90K Class.

* * *

NEXT NEWSBULLETIN DEADLINE: 11:30 a.m. Friday, March 2.