INTERNATIONAL GROUP VISITS SALVE

A delegation of foreign officers' wives from the Naval Command College recently enjoyed a coffee hour and tour of Salve's campus. The international group, students in Sister Theresa McQueeney's English classes at the War College, represented the following countries: Dominican Republic, Greece, Israel, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, Peru, Tunisia, Turkey, and Venezuela.

This annual event is of particular interest to the visitors as each year the foreign officers request Salve students to tutor their children. Currently, Michele LaBeaume is teaching French, and Pauline O'Meara and Laurie Mettson are teaching English to five-year-olds.
