

4-4-1985

Newsbulletin vol. 15, no. 14

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 15, no. 14" (1985). newsbulletin. 355.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/355>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

NEWSBULLETIN

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 15 No. 14

April 4, 1985

The Student Academic Senate will sponsor a lecture, "Getting Closer," by author and educator Ellen Rosenberg on Wednesday, April 17 at 8:00 p.m. in the O'Hare Auditorium. The lecture will focus on building quality relationships.

- How can you break through barriers which prevent you from getting close?
- How can you talk more comfortably about difficult and sensitive issues?
- How can you more easily approach others and become more approachable?

Ellen Rosenberg, author of "Ellen Rosenberg's Growing Up Feeling Good," is one of the nation's most articulate and respected experts on the feelings, concerns, pressures and changes related to day-to-day living. Her programs have helped thousands of people of all ages feel better about themselves, improve relationships and deal more effectively with life experiences. An educator since 1965, she has taught Health, Family Life and Human Sexuality at the college level for 12 years and has conducted her "Life" programs throughout the United States for children, parents, educators, college and general audiences since 1976. Mrs. Rosenberg has been featured in newspapers, radio and television programs throughout Canada and the United States.

"Getting Closer" will be the last lecture sponsored by the Student Academic Senate for this academic year. Admission is $3.00 for the general public; $2.00 for senior citizens and students. The lecture is open to the public. For ticket information contact the Academic Advising Office at extension 367.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

O'HARE LECTURE SERIES

Salve Regina's O'Hare Lecture Series will present, "The Spiritual Crisis of Modern Culture: New Energies for Renewal," by Catholic theologian Joe Holland on Thursday, April 25 at 7:00 p.m. in the O'Hare Auditorium.

Mr. Holland specializes in the dialogue between theology and social theory. His recent work has focused on the emergence of a post-modern culture. He has pursued the religious implications of this culture for Catholic theology, pastoral strategy, and spirituality, as well as its social implications for the areas of work, labor unions, family and health.

Author of "The American Journey" and co-author of the "Social Analysis: Linking Faith and Justice," Mr. Holland has been an associate of the Center for Concern in Washington, D.C. since 1973.

This will be the last O'Hare lecture of the 1984-85 academic year. The lecture is free and open to the public. For further information contact Father Hillman at extension 433.

* * *

CONFERENCE AT SALVE REGINA
"LEADERSHIP IN MANAGEMENT"

Students and faculty of Salve Regina's graduate program in General Management along with the Newport Institute will co-sponsor a conference, "Leadership in Management: Style or Substance?", on Saturday, April 13 from 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. in the O'Hare Academic Center. The conference is designed to explore conceptions of the place of leadership in the world of corporate business management and to compare these conceptions with those in the military/political arena. Guest speakers will include:

Mr. Robert O'Block
Director & Managing Partner
McKinsey & Company, Inc. (Boston)
Topic: A Corporate View -
"In Search of Excellence"

General Walter F. Ulmer, Jr. USA
Commanding General III Corps
(Fort Hood, Tex.)
Topic: A Military View -
"Creative Leadership"

General Peter G. Olenchuk, USA (Ret.)
Chairman
Newport Institute

For further information on the conference contact Dr. Heath Twichell at extension 396.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY CHORUS TO PERFORM AT SALVE

The Salve Regina Chorus will be joined in concert by the chorus of Fairfield University on Sunday, April 14 at 3:00 p.m. in Ochre Court. Folk songs, classical vocals and Broadway tunes will be featured. The concert is open to the public. A $1.00 donation is requested at the door. For further information contact the Music Department at extension 444.

* * *

IRISH FESTIVAL CONCERT VIDEOTAPE TO BE SHOWN

The videotape of the March 9 Irish Festival Concert, produced by Rollins Cablevision, can be viewed on the following dates: April 8 at 10:30 a.m.; April 16 at 2:30 p.m.; April 22 at 7:30 p.m.

The running time is two hours and twenty-six minutes, and the concert will be shown on Cable Channel 10 in those areas of Rhode Island served by Rollins. Aquidneck Island is not hooked up for cable as yet. If you missed the concert the first time around, it can be seen in Central Falls, Cumberland, Lincoln, Narragansett, North Kingstown, North Smithfield, South Kingstown, Smithfield and Woonsocket. The videotape will be available on campus later this month.

* * *

NEWPORT COLLEGE THEATRE COMPANY TO PERFORM

The Newport College Theatre Company will present "An Evening With Chekhov" on April 12, 13 and 14 in Mercy Hall's Little Theatre. The company will perform Chekhov's "The Marriage Proposal" and "The Boor." Curtain is at 8:00 p.m. General admission is $4.00; $2.00 for senior citizens and students. For further information contact the Theatre Department at extension 217.

* * *

STUDENT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The College's Student Internship Program provides opportunities for students to combine academic interest with occupational interests by working with professionals in work settings. As awareness has increased, the program has grown in popularity among employers and students. Students may work directly with their departments in locating an internship or, with approval of department chairpersons, develop an internship using resources from the Career Planning and Placement Office. Utilizing this cooperative effort, the following is a sampling of students who have internships for 1984-85: Julie Ahern, Sullivan & Limone, Attorneys; John Jones, Stephen C. Posthuma, Attorney/Real Estate Investor; Sonya Integlia, New York Life Insurance Company; Megan Branigan, W.P. Carey & Company, Inc., more...

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Investment Banking; Deborah King, J&J King Construction Corp., N.Y.; Rebecca Sweetman, American Red Cross, Newport; Nancy Tymosko, Salve Regina Art Department; Deborah Walker, Newport Historical Society; Laura Livingstone, WPRI-TV; Laurie Lane, WADK Radio.

* * *

SUMMER SESSION catalogs are now available in the Summer Session Office, 2nd floor of Ochre Court (extension 261).

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Sister M. Therese Antone, Vice President for Institutional Advancement at Salve Regina, will chair the morning session of a program for high school administrators entitled, "Staff Renewal: The Challenge to Secondary School Administrators." The program, which is sponsored by Brown University's Institute for Secondary Education, will be held on Thursday, April 25 from 9:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. at Brown. Sister Therese is a former high school principal.

* * *

Dr. William Burrell, Vice President/Dean of Faculty, has been appointed Vice Chairperson of the United Way of Southeastern New England's Allocation Panel for Programs on Social Development and Recreation.

* * *

Dr. John Greeley, Chairman of the Religious Studies Department, recently received a $2,500 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. The grant will be used to attend a seminar at Brown University's Institute of Judaic Studies from June 10 - July 19, 1985. The seminar is entitled, "Judaism in Late Antiquity."

* * *

Dr. Alice Tesch and Mrs. Kitty Rok, Special Education faculty, recently attended a Special Education Training Program entitled, "What's Working: A Look at Programming for Children with Behavior Disorders." The conference was sponsored by the Rhode Island Department of Education and the Mental Health Association of Rhode Island. Over 200 professionals from a variety of disciplines were invited to participate.

* * *

DEADLINE FOR NEXT NEWSBULLETIN: 11:30 a.m. on Friday, April 12.