

3-17-1987

Newsbulletin vol. 17, no. 13

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 17, no. 13" (1987). newsbulletin. 387.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/387>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

SALVE REGINA

THE NEWPORT COLLEGE

NEWSBULLETIN

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 17 No. 13

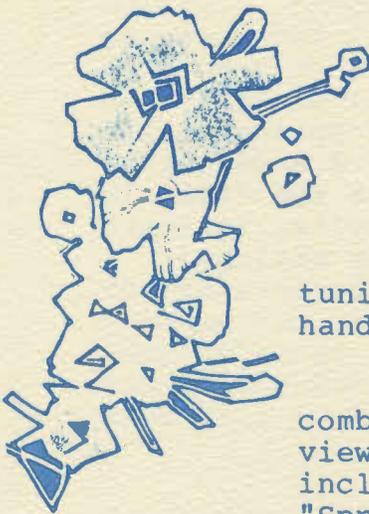

March 17, 1987

Parents' Weekend '87 April 10, 11, 12

This special weekend offers a stimulating opportunity for parents to share the Salve experience firsthand.

Here is the chance for parents and students to combine a refreshing Newport visit with an in-depth view of the College in action. Weekend activities include a performance by the Salve Theatre Company - "Spring Concert," to include the concert band, jazz combo and instrumental ensembles - The Honors Convocation recognizing student leaders - Ochre Court Reception - Exhibitions - Tours - Parents' Weekend Dance - Brunch with the President.

All of us at Salve are eagerly looking forward to the pleasure of meeting all parents on Parents' Weekend '87. Please plan to join us. For further information call the Alumni Office at extension 223.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SENIOR VOCAL RECITAL

Susan E. Hegarty, a music and theatre major at Salve Regina, will perform her Senior Vocal Recital on Saturday, March 28, 7:30 p.m. in Ochre Court. The recital is free of charge and open to the public and will consist of music composed by such artists as Purcell, Handel, Mozart, Faure and Niles.

* * *

NOTICE

Mrs. Nancy Hallas' Senior Recital, scheduled for April 5, is postponed.

* * *

SPRING VISITATION DAYS

The Admissions Office has scheduled the Annual Spring Visitation Days for March 30, 31, April 1, 2, 6, 7, 8 and 9. Students who have applied and have been accepted for the fall semester of 1987, along with their families, are invited to learn more about Salve Regina College. Specifically, they will be familiarizing themselves with the details and requirements of their individual program interests.

* * *

RETREAT OPPORTUNITY

Lent is a time to stop for awhile and give some thought to the meaning of life. On three Tuesday evenings, March 24, March 31, and April 7 from 7:45 p.m. to 9:45 p.m., you will have an opportunity to reflect on the Re-Discovery of Life. The video presentations are made by Reverend Anthony DeMello, a Jesuit priest from India.

Father DeMello's message in this series of lectures is simple yet profound, enlightening, and very challenging. All faculty, staff, and student members of the College community are welcome. All lectures will be held in O'Hare, Room 223 at 7:45 p.m.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

EMMAUS WEEKEND

The next Emmaus weekend is April 24 - 26th. Application forms should be in by April 8th. For more information contact Sister Leona at the Gatehouse, extension 302.

* * *

CALLING VOLUNTEERS FOR ALUMNI PHONATHONS

Faculty, staff and students are invited to assist at the annual alumni phonathons scheduled for the following evenings from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m.:

Tuesday, March 24	Fleet National Bank, Providence, R.I.
Wednesday, March 25	Fleet National Bank, Providence, R.I.
Monday, March 30	The Hartford, Hartford, Conn.
Tuesday, March 31	The Hartford, Hartford, Conn.

Please consider volunteering an hour or two of your time. It will be enjoyable and contribute substantially to the College's efforts to increase support from our graduates. For more information call the Alumni Office at extension 223.

* * *

DINNER FOR SENIOR NURSING STUDENTS

South County Hospital's Department of Nursing will hold a "Let's Get Acquainted Dinner" for senior nursing students of Salve Regina and other colleges and universities in the state on Monday, March 23. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the hospital, located at 95 Kenyon Avenue, Wakefield, and will be followed by a presentation on "Living and Working in South County" at 7:30 p.m.

Pamela Stapans, R.N., B.S. and a member of the South County Hospital nursing staff, will deliver the evening's presentation. Ms. Stapans will provide adequate time to answer any questions the senior nursing students may have about what is ahead of them in the field of nursing.

Senior nursing students will receive invitations to the dinner and are encouraged to call the hospital, at 783-3361, extension 492, for directions or further information.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

McKILLOP gallery

SENIOR THESIS EXHIBITION

The first of three Senior Thesis Exhibitions will be held from April 2 through April 19. Ceramic works will be featured with pieces by Philippe Berthiaume, Daniel J. Driscoll, Maura Stepeck and Diana Streeton. An opening reception will be held in the gallery on Thursday, April 2 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Following the ceramic exhibiton will be photography from April 22 through May 1 and painting and illustration from May 3 through May 13.

* * *

DEVELOPMENT OFFICE ANNOUNCES GRANT

The Development Office has announced the receipt of a $650 grant from the American and Irish Cultural Exchange Commission. The grant was applied toward the March 6, 1987 program, "Our Heritage/Ireland and Portugal."

* * *

SALVE STUDENTS SELECTED FOR WASHINGTON INTERNSHIPS

Four students from Salve were selected to spend the week of March 16 - March 20 in Washington, D.C. under the student intern programs of Senator Claiborne Pell and Congresswoman Claudine Schneider.

Mark Dray and Paige C. Tarver, both senior politics majors, will be working with Senator Pell's staff. Serving Congresswoman Schneider's office will be Donna L. Cataldi, a politics major, and Regina C. Graziani, a politics, administration of justice and philosophy major.

The interns will be gaining valuable insight by attending sessions of Congress and seminars devoted to the processes of federal government.

Dr. Robert J. McKenna, Assistant to the President, is coordinator of the program at Salve Regina. This year marks the 27th in which Salve has participated in the Congressional Intern Program.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THEATRE DEPARTMENT NEWS

Theatre Department faculty and Theatre education majors recently conducted master classes in acting for grades 4 to 8 at the Catholic Regional School on Aquidneck Island, at the invitation of Sister Judith Oliver, R.S.M. The Salve students visited respective classes and then presented a master class with over 100 students.

During Spring Break, Gary Diomandes and several theatre majors visited the Big Apple to see Les Miserables and Starlight Express but also had appointments and visitations at CBS studios for "Guiding Light", ABC East Coast casting offices, Actor's Equity Union, Backstage at the Met and ABC studios for "All My Children."

Rehearsals are in progress for the department's upcoming musical, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, which will be presented in the Megley Theatre April 30, May 1, 2, 7, 8 and 9 at 8:00 p.m. and May 3 and 10 at 2:00 p.m. The musical will be dedicated to the memories of Sister Blanche Ouellette, R.S.M., formerly of the College's faculty, and Sister Jean Marie LaPierre, R.S.M., formerly of St. Mary's Academy, Bay View. Both Sisters were strong supporters of the Theatre Department.

Monique M. Lareau, '82, the first female theatre major, recently acquired membership in the Actor's Equity Union. Monique has the lead in an Equity production of a new musical adaptation of "The Emperor's New Clothes" which will play in Providence during its country-wide tour. It will end its tour at Town Hall in New York City in the latter weeks of May.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

During Spring Break, Bernard G. Masterson was in Boston and New Orleans defending his dissertation, a biographical paper entitled The Theatre in Me. Mr. Masterson is a candidate for a Ph.D. in Theatre at Fairfax University, London, England.

* * *

Dr. Patricia Murray of the Sociology Department was the guest speaker at the Providence chapter of the American Association of University Women at their March meeting. Dr. Murray has also been asked to serve on the executive board of the King Center for a two year period.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Sister Eloise Tobin, R.S.M. of the Religious Studies Department recently lectured to the cast and technicians of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, a group of 50 students, on the actual biblical sources for the musical.

* * *

The next NEWSBULLETIN will be published on Thursday, April 2.
Deadline is Friday, March 27.
