

4-22-1988

Newsbulletin vol. 18, no. 12

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 18, no. 12" (1988). newsbulletin. 402.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/402>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

BI-WEEKLY

Vol 18 No 12

April 22, 1988

THE NEWPORT COLLEGE THEATRE COMPANY
TO PRESENT "OLYMPUS ON MY MIND"

Salve Regina's Newport College Theatre Company will be the first college in the country to present the musical comedy "Olympus On My Mind" from April 27 through May 1 in the Megley Theatre. Curtain time will be at 8:00 p.m.

The play is based on the original book by Barry Harman, who also wrote the musical's lyrics. Musical score is by Grant Sturiale. The plot is based on a Greek myth about the God Jupiter who assumes the role of a human being on earth to experience human emotion.

The cast, which will be using costumes from the original show, will include Paul Wargo (freshman), Gregory Geer (junior), Robert Matteau (sophomore) Robert Renshaw (sophomore), Christopher Moriarty (sophomore), Marjorie Santo (sophomore), Joanie Mitchell (freshman), Patty O'Gara (sophomore), and Robert Whitaker (junior).

James DiZazzo (senior), who has been involved in every college theatre production since 1984, is the stage manager. Kris Engel (senior), is in charge of set and props, and Debra Cherubini is in charge of business and publicity.

This is the final production of the year and it is dedicated to Nancy Hallas, a former singer at Carnegie Hall and former voice instructor at Salve Regina. Tickets for "Olympus On My Mind" are $6.00 for adults and $4.00 for students and senior citizens. For further information call extension 463 between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

* * *

WEST POINT GLEE CLUB TO PERFORM

Salve Regina will host the United States Military Academy West Point Cadet Glee Club in a concert on Friday, April 22 at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court. Directed by Dwayne S. Milburn, the Cadets will perform folk songs, spirituals, Broadway songs and songs of the American Nation. Accompanist will be Ruthanne Schempf. Tickets for the performance are $4.00 and may be obtained from the Music Department in Cecilia Hall, extension 445.

* * *

SENIOR SHOW AT THE MCKILLOP GALLERY

The McKillop Gallery will hold its annual Senior Exhibit from Wednesday, April 27 through Sunday, May 15. The opening reception will be held in the gallery on Wednesday, April 27 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Exhibiting will be Patricia Demeter, illustration/design; Madelyn Macedo, photography; Maria Rivellino, photography/mixed media, and Jess W. Saur, clay/mixed media. Gallery hours are Monday through Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

* * *

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE VISA CARD

Salve Regina has arranged with Fleet National Bank to offer a Salve Regina College Visa card. Each time the card is used the College will receive funds from Fleet. Monies received as a result of the VISA program will be used to establish the Salve Regina College Endowment Fund, which will help maintain and revitalize the College's campus for years to come. For further information contact Fleet National Bank at 1-800-343-5420.

* * *

SIGMA PHI SIGMA SPONSORS FUNDRAISING EFFORTS

Salve Regina students have joined in the fundraising efforts of the College for the new library/resource center. Sponsored by the Sigma Phi Sigma Honor Society, the effort will raise $10,000 for the purchase of the 20th Century Video Encyclopedia. The Video Encyclopedia is a self-contained video archive which offers a compelling visual perspective that motivates studying, learning, and understanding of the people and events of the 20th century. The collection is adaptable to all curricula or courses.

For further information on the project and a brochure contact the Office of Sr. Sheila Megley, Advisor to Sigma Phi Sigma, at extension 504.

* * *

SIGMA PHI RAFFLE WINNER!

Virginia Morris, Programmer/Systems Analyst at Salve Regina's Munroe Center, was the lucky winner of the Sigma Phi Raffle. Ginger won an IBM PC with printer and three software packages - DW3, Symphony, and Storyboard. Monies raised from the raffle will be applied toward the purchase of the 20th Century Video Encyclopedia.

* * *

IN MEMORIAM

The College recently mourned the death of Dr. William F. Maher, Jr., who died on January 23, 1988. He was the attending physician to Salve Regina College students majoring in nursing during the early years of the program. A prominent doctor and surgeon, he was a medical staff member of St. Joseph's Hospital. Always available for the Salve Regina College junior and senior nursing students who lived at the St. Joseph's/Fatima residences, Dr. Maher is remembered as having been an unusually kind, compassionate, caring doctor who will be greatly missed by all. He was very highly esteemed by his medical associates, his patients, family and friends as a man who had a deep respect for the dignity of each person with whom he came in contact.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Brother John Buckley, Professor of History, recently attended the Convention of the Organization of American History held in Reno, Nevada.

Dr. John Coakley, Associate Professor of English, was recently awarded participation in the summer seminar sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities on "Issues in the Philosophy of Childhood." Dr. Coakley will join eleven other scholars from around the nation at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst for the eight-week session when his particular contribution will be to offer literary perspective on the topic.

Dr. Jack Childs, Professor of Human Development, attended the Convention of the Association for Counseling and Development in Chicago during the Spring Break. While there he was elected national secretary of the Association for Holistic Counseling, which is seeking charter membership within the parent body.

Sister Patricia Combies, Assistant Professor of English, served as hostess for the Spring meeting of the National Council Teachers of English recently held in Boston.

Sister Patricia presented a paper, "Composition Teaching: Fifty Years of Questions," at the National Conference of College Composition and Communication in St. Louis. She also participated in the organizational seminar on current research in composition held in conjunction with the Conference.

Brother Robert Daszkiewicz, Director of the Office of Instructional Development, recently attended a five-day seminar which studied the issues involved in evaluating college faculty and instructional development for improved college teaching. During this seminar Brother Robert presented participants with an overview of the Teaching Improvement Process developed by the Office of Instructional Development. The entire seminar was sponsored by the Center for Faculty Evaluation and Development of the Kansas State University.

Dwight Webb, Management Department, recently delivered a speech before the Newport County Bar Association concerning the "Outlook for the Economy and the Securities Markets." He also delivered a lecture to the Rotary Club of North Kingstown. His topic was "The Economic Outlook for 1988 and 1989."

* * *

STAFF NEWS

The following members of the Student Services Staff recently attended the Eleventh National Conference on Student Development held at the University of Connecticut: Lynn Sheedy, Norman Mather, Kevin Lyons, and Lisa Steimer. The conference focused on current issues impacting student life and various methods of dealing with such issues.

* * *

STUDENT NEWS

Detective John Fagan and Michael Hoar, members of the Fall River Police Department and students in Salve Regina College science courses were instrumental in compiling and presenting physical evidence that led to the arrest and recent conviction of multiple murderer, Gene Traves. They are to be commended for their work.

* * *

Deadline for the next issue of the NEWSBULLETIN is Friday, April 29.